Spirit and Ch'i (Qi) Koo Dong Yun, 2012-03-02 This book articulates a contextual pneumatology from a perspective of the Eastern idea of ch'i in Korean. Rather than understanding the Spirit from a Westernized philosophical perspective, this book utilizes East Asian categories rooted in the I Ching and Asian religions in dialogue with such prominent Western theologians as Barth, Pannenberg, Moltmann, and Harvey Cox. The result is an exciting interaction between the Bible traditions of the West and experiences of the Spirit rooted in East Asia. Yun argues that the formal dimension of the Spirit (sangjeok) is present and active in all cultures and religions, while the material dimension of the Spirit (muljeok) is categorically revealed and embodied through the life of Jesus Christ, the event of Pentecost, and Charisms given to the church. In making his case, he mediates a creative balance between countercultural and exclusivist models on the one hand and pluralistic and anthropocentric models on the other.

Unparalleled Spirit Sovereign Jiu Long Zhen Qi, 2020-03-25 On the continent of spiritual energy, young Ye Feng was born with a broken soul and was unable to fuse with spirit beasts, causing him to be unable to cultivate. At such a young age, he was bullied. A little cub full of spirit could improve a teenager's soul, a good for nothing teenager, and suddenly had a strong and powerful rise.

Spirit of the Environment David E. Cooper, Joy A. Palmer, 2004-06-02 Spirit of the Environment brings spiritual and religious concerns to environmental issues. Providing a much needed alternative to exploring human beings' relationship to the natural world through the restrictive lenses of science, ecology, or even morality, this book offers a fresh perspective to the field. Spirit of the Environment addresses the environmental attitudes of the major religions, the relationship between art and nature, the Gaia hypothesis, the non-instrumental values which have inspired environmental concern. Contributors range from a variety of disciplines including philosophy, comparative religion, education, and social anthropology, providing students with an intriguing survey on the role that spirituality and religion play in nature. This is a vital collection for those eager to examine the relationship between the spiritual and the environment.

Tarot of the Spirit Pamela Eakins, 1992-01-01 Illustrated with the Tarot of the Spirit deck painted by Joyce Eakins. Centered on the Qabbalistic Tree of Life, this symbolism clearly explores the Minor Arcana as a representation of the four components of life: spirit, emotion, intellect, and body, while it reveals the Major Arcana to be the keys to our emotional response patterns to the symbolic universe in which we live. Includes seven monthly meditations, individual readings, and layouts.

Holy Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2010-01-01 Theologians from the early church to the present have written much about the Holy Spirit and Christian salvation. This extensive sourcebook of primary theological texts makes many of these writings available with a description of their context and importance. Especially valuable are more recent works emerging from theologians in Africa, Asia, and Latin America. This global perspective, coupled with the broad selection of writings from the history of theology, makes this the most complete collection of primary source material on these topics.
