Spirit Possession And Personhood Among The Kel Ewey Tuareg:

Spirit Possession and Personhood Among the Kel Ewey Tuareg Susan J. Rasmussen, 2006 Spirit Possession and Exorcism Patrick McNamara Ph.D., 2011-04-26 This two volume text reviews spirit possession throughout history analyzes case studies from a cognitive neuroscience perspective and examines rites for exorcism From the beginning of civilization to the present day and across all major religions and cultures there have been documented cases of people seemingly overtaken by an unseen entity The invading force whether good or bad appears to replace the possessor s soul with the spirit s own persona resulting in mystifying symptoms such as levitation or other supernatural feats speaking in tongues and even horrific and inexplicably accelerated physical distortion and deterioration This is a two volume chronological history and examination of spirit possession that addresses its phenomenological psychological and neurobiological aspects and its effects on societies Volume one reviews spirit possession from the upper Paleolithic era to modern times while Volume two focuses on case studies and rites of exorcism Traveling Spirit Masters Deborah Kapchan, 2023-09-05 A group of ritual musicians and former slaves brought from sub Saharan Africa to Morocco the Gnawa heal those they believe to be possessed using incense music and trance But their practice is hardly of only local interest the Gnawa have long participated in the world music market through collaborations with African American jazz musicians and French recording artists In this first book in English on Gnawa music and its global reach author Deborah Kapchan explores how these collaborations transfigure racial and musical identities on both sides of the Atlantic She also addresses how aesthetic styles associated with the sacred come to inhabit non sacred contexts and what new amalgams they produce Her narrative details the fascinating intrinsic properties of trance including details of enactment the role of gesture and the body and the use of the senses and how they both construct authentic Gnawa identity and reconstruct historically determined relations of power Traveling Spirit Masters is a captivating and elucidating demonstration of how and why trance and indeed all sacred music is fast becoming a transnational sensation Serendipity in Anthropological Research Haim Hazan, 2016-04-15 Challenging the idea that fieldwork is the only way to gather data and that standard methods are the sole route to fruitful analysis Serendipity in Anthropological Research explores the role of fortune and happenstance in anthropology It conceives of anthropological research as a lifelong nomadic journey of discovery in which the world yields an infinite number of unexplored issues and innumerable ways of studying them each study producing its own questions and demanding its own methodologies Drawing together the latest research from a team of senior scholars from around the world to reflect on the experience of research Serendipity in Anthropological Research presents rich new case studies from Europe and the Middle East to examine both new and old questions in novel and enriching ways An engaging examination of methodology and anthropological fieldwork this book will appeal to all those concerned with writing ethnography Women and Indigenous Religions Sylvia Marcos, Cheryl A. Kirk-Duggan, Lillian Ashcraft-Eason, Karen Jo Torjesen, 2010-07-01 This book examines the critical and often undervalued contributions of women to the culture well being and subsistence of their communities as active powerful and wise ritual specialists From the Dalit midwives in India to the women of the Nahua region in the state of Morelos Mexico from the indigenous nations in Turtle Island in Canada to the shamans male and female of South Korea and Vietnam there are still many vital indigenous cultures around the world in which women often hold positions of religious authority and leadership Women and Indigenous Religions addresses specific issues in the study of religion such as the multifaceted tensions between indigenous traditions and gender and the genealogy of positions of authority in religion or spiritual matters A close examination reveals that native religions with their women specialists are still a source of inspiration for millions of men and women even in the advanced areas in the world This fact challenges the opinion that indigenous cultures are becoming extinct

Women's Songs from West Africa Thomas A. Hale, Aissata G. Sidikou, 2013-12-02 Exploring the origins organization subject matter and performance contexts of singers and singing Women's Songs from West Africa expands our understanding of the world of women in West Africa and their complex and subtle roles as verbal artists Covering Cote d'Ivoire the Gambia Mali Niger Nigeria Senegal and beyond the essays attest to the importance of women's contributions to the most widespread form of verbal art in Africa

Miracles and Extraordinary Experience in Northern Kenya Bilinda Straight, 2013-05-31 The Samburu of northern Kenya struggle to maintain their pastoral way of life as drought and the side effects of globalization threaten both their livestock and their livelihood Mirroring this divide between survival and ruin are the lines between the self and the other the living and the dead this side and in a way that side Cultural anthropologist Bilinda Straight who has lived with the Samburu for extended periods since the 1990s bears witness to Samburu life and death in Miracles and Extraordinary Experience in Northern Kenya Written mostly in the field Miracles and Extraordinary Experience in Northern Kenya is the first book length ethnography completely devoted to Samburu divinity and belief Here child prophets recount their travels to heaven and back Others report transformations between persons and inanimate objects Spirit turns into action and back again The miraculous is interwoven with the mundane as the Samburu continue their day to day twenty first century existence Straight describes these fantastic movements inside the cultural logic that makes them possible thus she calls into question how we experience how we feel and how anthropologists and their readers can best engage with the improbable In her detailed and precise accounts Straight writes beyond traditional ethnography exploring the limits of science and her own limits as a human being to convey the significance of her time with the Samburu as they recount their fantastic yet authentic experiences in the physical and metaphysical spaces of their culture

The Hammer and the Flute Mary Keller, 2005-04-14 Award for the Best First Book in the History of Religions from the American Academy of Religion Feminist theory and postcolonial theory share an interest in developing theoretical frameworks for describing and evaluating subjectivity comparatively especially with regard to non autonomous models of agency As a historian of religions Mary Keller uses the figure of the possessed woman to analyze a subject that is spoken through rather than speaking and whose will is the will of the ancestor deity or spirit that wields her to engage the question of agency in a culturally and historically comparative study that recognizes the prominent role possessed women play in their respective traditions Drawing from the fields of anthropology and comparative psychology Keller brings the figure of the possessed woman into the heart of contemporary argument as an exemplary model that challenges many Western and feminist assumptions regarding agency Proposing a new theoretical framework that re orients scholarship Keller argues that the subject who is wielded or played the hammer or the flute exercises a paradoxical authority instrumental agency born of their radical receptivity their power derives from the communities assessment that they no longer exist as autonomous agents For Keller the possessed woman is at once hammer and flute paradoxically powerful because she has become an instrument of the overpowering will of an ancestor deity or spirit Keller applies the concept of instrumental agency to case studies providing a new interpretation of each She begins with contemporary possessions in Malaysia where women in manufacturing plants were seized by spirits seeking to resacralize the territory She next looks to wartime Zimbabwe where female spirit mediums the Nehanda mhondoro declared the ancestors will to fight against colonialism Finally she provides an imaginative rereading of the performative power of possession by interpreting two plays Euripides Bacchae and S Y Ansky s The Dybbuk which feature possessed women as central characters This book can serve as an excellent introduction to postcolonial and feminist theory for graduate students while grounding its theory in the analysis of regionally and historically specific moments of time that will be of interest to specialists It also provides an argument for the evaluation of religious lives and their struggles for meaning and power in the contemporary landscape of critical theory Sensual Relations David Howes,2010-02-22 Offers a full bodied approach to the study of culture in which each sense serves as a potent register of meaning Culture and Customs of Mali Dorothea E. Schulz Ph.D.,2012-01-06 Touching on everything from its rich musical heritage to its varied cultural traditions this is a thorough and accessible introduction to the contemporary lives of the different peoples who call Mali their home Rated among the world s ten poorest nations Mali has a glorious past and a less certain present Culture and Customs of Mali touches on the first as background for understanding the second exploring multiple facets of contemporary social life and cultural practices in this landlocked West African nation The book offers an overview of diverse aspects of everyday social cultural and religious life in Mali paying particular attention to regional and ethnic variations It shows how current social conventions and cultural values are the product of a centuries long history while at the same time dispels the common perception that African societies are rooted in unchanging tradition Readers will come away with a better understanding of the multiple ways in which Malians starting from their own customs and cultural foundations integrate themselves into an international economic order and a globalized world of shared media images and cultural practices Wrapping Authority Joseph Hill,2018-01-01 Since around 2000 a growing number of women in Dakar Senegal have come to act openly as spiritual leaders for both men and women As urban youth turn to the Fay a Tij niyya Sufi

Islamic movement in search of direction and community these women provide guidance in practicing Islam and cultivating mystical knowledge of God While women Islamic leaders may appear radical in a context where women have rarely exercised Islamic authority they have provoked surprisingly little controversy Wrapping Authority tells these women s stories and explores how they have developed ways of leading that feel natural to themselves and those around them Addressing the dominant perceptions of Islam as a conservative practise with stringent regulations for women in particular Joseph Hill reveals how women integrate values typically associated with pious Muslim women into their leadership These female leaders present spiritual guidance as a form of nurturing motherhood they turn acts of devotional cooking into a basis of religious authority and prestige they connect shyness concealing clothing and other forms of feminine self wrapping to exemplary piety hidden knowledge and charismatic mystique Yet like Sufi mystical discourse their self presentations are profoundly ambiguous insisting simultaneously on gender distinctions and on the transcendence of gender through mystical unity with God

The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Ritual and Religion Timothy Insoll,2011-10-28 The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Ritual and Religion provides a comprehensive overview by period and region of the relevant archaeological material in relation to theory methodology definition and practice Although as the title indicates the focus is upon archaeological investigations of ritual and religion by necessity ideas and evidence from other disciplines are also included among them anthropology ethnography religious studies and history The Handbook covers a global span Africa Asia Australasia Europe and the Americas and reaches from the earliest prehistory the Lower and Middle Palaeolithic to modern times In addition chapters focus upon relevant themes ranging from landscape to death from taboo to water from gender to rites of passage from ritual to fasting and feasting Written by over sixty specialists renowned in their respective fields the Handbook presents the very best in current scholarship and will serve both as a comprehensive introduction to its subject and as a stimulus to further research

Anubis Ibrahim al-Koni,2005-06-01 A Tuareg youth ventures into trackless desert on a life threatening quest to find the father he remembers only as a shadow from his childhood but the spirit world frustrates and tests his resolve For a time he is rewarded with the Eden of a lost oasis but eventually as new settlers crowd in its destiny mimics the rise of human civilization Over the sands and the years the hero is pursued by a lover who matures into a sibyl like priestess The Libyan Tuareg author Ibrahim al Koni who has earned a reputation as a major figure in Arabic literature with his many novels and collections of short stories has used Tuareg folklore about Anubis the ancient Egyptian god of the underworld to craft a novel that is both a lyrical evocation of the desert s beauty and a chilling narrative in which thirst incest patricide animal metamorphosis and human sacrifice are more than plot devices The novel concludes with Tuareg sayings collected by the author in his search for the historical Anubis from matriarchs and sages during trips to Tuareg encampments and from inscriptions in the ancient Tifinagh script in caves and on tattered manuscripts In this novel fantastic mythology becomes universal specific and modern

Shamans of the Foye Tree Ana Mariella

Bacigalupo,2010-01-01 Drawing on anthropologist Ana Mariella Bacigalupo s fifteen years of field research Shamans of the Foye Tree Gender Power and Healing among Chilean Mapuche is the first study to follow shamans gender identities and performance in a variety of ritual social sexual and political contexts To Mapuche shamans or machi the foye tree is of special importance not only for its medicinal qualities but also because of its hermaphroditic flowers which reflect the gender shifting components of machi healing practices Framed by the cultural constructions of gender and identity Bacigalupo s fascinating findings span the ways in which the Chilean state stigmatizes the machi as witches and sexual deviants how shamans use paradoxical discourses about gender to legitimize themselves as healers and at the same time as modern men and women the tree s political use as a symbol of resistance to national ideologies and other components of these rich traditions The first comprehensive study on Mapuche shamans gendered practices Shamans of the Foye Tree offers new perspectives on this crucial intersection of spiritual social and political power The Edge of Islam Janet

McIntosh,2009-07-29 Explores ethnoreligious tensions in coastal Kenya between the impoverished Giriama people and their neighbors the privileged Swahili and Arab communities and documents the Giriama s idiosyncratic uses of Islam and their conflicted relationship with it Modernity and Re-enchantment Philip Taylor,2008-01-01 Representative of a new wave of anthropological research on religion in Vietnam Modernity and Re enchantment brings together in a single book the latest and best research available on this topic Its lively and original descriptions deftly evoke the burgeoning field of religiosity in contemporary Vietnam With case studies into a great variety of religious practices it covers more ground than the small handful of single authored books currently available on religion in Vietnam Domestic Demons and the Intimate Uncanny

Thomas G. Kirsch,Kirsten Mahlke,Rijk van Dijk,2022-10-21 This book explores local cultural discourses and practices relating to manifestations and experiences of the demonic the spectral and the uncanny probing into their effects on people s domestic and intimate spheres of life The chapters examine the uncanny in a cross cultural manner involving empirically rich case studies from sub Saharan Africa Latin America and Europe They use an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to show how people are affected by their intimate interactions with spiritual beings While several chapters focus on the tensions between public and private spheres that emerge in the context of spiritual encounters others explore what kind of relationships between humans and demonic entities are imagined to exist and in what ways these imaginations can be interpreted as a commentary on people s concerns and social realities Offering a critical look at a form of spiritual experience that often lacks academic examination this book will be of great use to scholars of Religious Studies who are interested in the occult and paranormal as well as academics working in Anthropology Sociology African Studies Latin American Studies Gender Studies and Transcultural Psychology African Herders Andrew Brown Smith,2005 Scholars have long acknowledged a gap in the archaeological literature on African herder societies Utilizing almost 40 years work Andrew Smith presents a detailed portrait of modern herdsman and their historical antecedents Following the assumption that Africa has never been isolated from the rest of the world Smith illuminates key topics ranging from material culture and rituals to future prospects for pastoralists Written in a scholarly yet accessible style Smith presents evidence detailing African herders historical relationship to similar societies in the Near East as well as their present state in the modern world This volume will be indispensable to understanding the unique role pastoralists have played over time throughout the continent Prayer Has Spoiled Everything Adeline Masquelier,2001-03-26 An ethnographic and historical account of bori spirit possession and its relation to Islam colonialism and the state Arguments with Ethnography Ioan Lewis,2021-03-10 A critique of the globalisation of the culture principle arguing that theory is dependent on the actual study of peoples
