Spiritual Assessment and Intervention with Older Adults, 2012      Spiritual Assessment and Intervention with Older Adults Mark Brennan, Deborah Heiser, 2004 Spiritual Assessment and Intervention Current Directions and Applications examines current state of the art efforts in the development and implementation of spiritual interventions for older adults. Academics and practitioners working in social work, social welfare, medicine, and mental health, and aging present innovative approaches to meeting major challenges in the field of gerontology, including elder abuse, dementia care, giving palliative care, and intergenerational relationships. The book provides practical methods for dealing with the problems and pitfalls of starting and evaluating interventions of a spiritual nature in a variety of community-based and institutional settings.      Spiritual Assessment and Intervention with Older Adults Mark Brennan, Deborah Heiser, 2013-04-03 Stay up to date with the latest innovative methods of meeting the spiritual needs of the elderly. Spiritual Assessment and Intervention Current Directions and Applications examines current state of the art efforts in the development and implementation of spiritual interventions for older adults. Academics and practitioners working in social work, social welfare, medicine, and mental health, and aging present innovative approaches to meeting major challenges in the field of gerontology, including elder abuse, dementia care, giving palliative care, and intergenerational relationships. The book provides practical methods for dealing with the problems and pitfalls of starting and evaluating interventions of a spiritual nature in a variety of community-based and institutional settings. Spiritual Assessment and Intervention Current Directions and Applications provides you with an overview of current and future methods and means of providing spiritual support to the elderly as they struggle with the problems and possibilities of aging in today's complex world. Growing interest in the positive effects that religiousness and spirituality can have on life stress has created a growing need for research and practice models that strengthen, reinforce, or promote the spiritual well-being of older adults. This collection, first presented in 2003 at the 56th Annual Scientific Meeting of the Gerontological Society of America, addresses the important care-giving and practice issues involving the physical and psychological health of older adults. Spiritual Assessment and Intervention Current Directions and Applications examines how older adults use narrative therapy to manage adversity and maintain self-efficacy, how faith-based communities can be enlisted as important social resources, a pilot government-funded project to raise awareness of elder abuse in faith communities, an intergenerational project involving a preschool and a retirement community, spiritual activities for adults with Alzheimer's disease, the Creating Alternative Relaxing Environment (CARE) Cabinet intervention. Spiritual Assessment and Intervention Current Directions and Applications is an essential resource for gerontological practitioners from the biological/clinical, including physicians, physician assistants, nurses, and dentists; behavioral and social sciences, including anthropologists, psychologists, social workers, sociologists, and researchers; and for health care administrators.      Aging, Spirituality and Palliative Care Elizabeth MacKinlay, 2006 The period of time when a person approaches death is always difficult both for the patient and the caregiver Aging Spirituality and Palliative Care discusses best practices in aged and palliative care while addressing patients diverse spiritual needs Leading authorities presentations from the Third International Conference on Ageing and Spirituality in Adelaide Australia in 2004 explore practical sensitive spiritual approaches to help older patients deal with aging illness and approaching death Each chapter is carefully referenced and many include tables and figures that enhance understanding of research data

Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke, 2013-10-18 Learn how to focus your ministry's programs and services on the elderly By 2030 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well being Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn't center primarily on youth and families in its outreach instead presenting a step by step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations both large and small to create a focused older adult ministry No two congregations are alike The resources perspectives and skills of each congregation are different as are the needs of its members Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs cultural history and structure of their individual congregations Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections The Fundamentals defining your audience your mission and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process Programming Possibilities spiritual needs based on the aging process continued learning for older adults opportunities to serve and be served providing quality pastoral care and community building Putting it All Together deciding on a direction using desired outcomes for evaluation establishing target dates and ongoing evaluation Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process The book is an invaluable resource for clergy ministry committees and planning groups and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries
