Encounters with God in Augustine's Confessions Carl G. Vaught,2012-02-01 This book continues Carl G Vaught s thoroughgoing reinterpretation of Augustine s Confessions one that rejects the view that Augustine is simply a Neoplatonist and argues that he is also a definitively Christian thinker As a companion volume to the earlier Journey toward God in Augustine s Confessions Books I VI it can be read in sequence with or independently of it This work covers the middle portion of the Confessions Books VII IX Opening in Augustine s youthful maturity Books VII IX focus on the three pivotal experiences that transform his life the Neoplatonic vision that causes him to abandon materialism his conversion to Christianity that leads him beyond Neoplatonism to a Christian attitude toward the world and his place in it and the mystical experience he shares with his mother a few days before her death which points to the importance of the Christian community Vaught argues that time space and eternity intersect to provide a framework in which these three experiences occur and which give Augustine a three fold access to God Augustine's Confessions Saint Augustine,2017-09-01 The Confessions of Saint Augustine is considered one of the greatest Christian classics of all time It is an extended poetic passionate intimate prayer that Augustine wrote as an autobiography sometime after his conversion to confess his sins and proclaim God s goodness Just as his first hearers were captivated by his powerful conversion story so also have many millions been over the following sixteen centuries His experience of God speaks to us across time with little need of transpositions Lively narrative and colorful anecdotes are interspersed with passages of great poetry in praise of God In the process of describing his own very human failings Augustine also gives advice on how to live a committed Christian life His view that happiness is not to be found in transitory physical pleasure but in searching for the truth beyond the material world is more than ever relevant today

Rebuilding the Temple Robert P. Vande Kappelle,2022-04-21 As the Bible indicates our lives are a construction zone for our bodies are temples of the divine Spirit Formed initially in the image of God human beings lost intimacy with God through corruption rebellion or neglect In response the divine Creator loves us back into relationship providing means of grace to help restore us to wholeness beginning with our body and continuing through our mind soul and spirit As buildings need
