Spiritual Zest Dialog:

A Spirit of Dialogue Christopher N. Okonkwo, 2008 A groundbreaking study A Spirit of Dialogue examines through extensive interdisciplinary research theory and close reading the intricate reconstructions extensions and resonances of the West African myth of spirit children the Born to Die in contemporary African American neo slave narratives Arguing that the myth called Ogba je in Igbo language and b k in Yoruba has had over thirty years of uncharted presence in African American literature Okonkwo advances a compelling case absent in extant scholarship He traces Ogba je the Born to Die s appearance in African American texts to a convergence of factors They include but are not limited to the impact of Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart the 1960s emergence of the contemporary neo slave narrative the 1960s and 1970s black consciousness Black Power movement and the cultural agenda gendered politics and centripetal philosophy of the Black Arts movement s nationalist aesthetic African American identity questions of the post civil rights and the multicultural eras and the thematic shifts as well as the African diaspora orientation of African American fiction of the post nationalist aesthetic period A Spirit of Dialogue focuses on the sometimes neglected and understudied works of four canonical African American writers Octavia E Butler s Wild Seed and Mind of My Mind Tananarive Due s The Between John Edgar Wideman s The Cattle Killing and Toni Morrison s Sula and Beloved Okonkwo demonstrates persuasively how the mythic spirit child informs the content and form of these novels offering Butler Due Wideman and Morrison a non occidental code by which to engage collectively with the various issues integral to the history experience of African descended people The paradigm functions then as the nexus of a life affirmative dialogue among the six novels as well as between them and other works of African religious and literary imagination particularly Things Fall Apart and Ben Okri s The Famished Road Reading Spiritualities Dr Dawn Llewellyn, Dr Deborah F Sawyer, 2013-05-28 The phenomenon of sacred text has undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women s writings emerging church blogs Neopagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Mich le Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focused

Soulful Spirituality David G. Benner, PhD, 2011-03-01 Spirituality has an indispensable role to play in the expression of our humanity However spiritual practices can sometimes make us less not more authentically human We may be good Christians but we aren t good human beings How can we ensure that our spiritual journey is conducted in a way that allows us to become fully alive and deeply human David Benner has spent thirty five years integrating psychology and spirituality Here he presents an expansive psychologically informed understanding of spirituality probing the contrasts between soulful and soulless spirituality deep and shallow religion and healthy and unhealthy relationships with God to affirm the vital role of human development in the spiritual journey Benner then suggests

Fiddes, Günter Bader, 2013-08-01 Paul's statement that letter kills but the spirit gives life 2 Corinthians 3:6 has had an extraordinary impact on Christian thought through the ages It has been read both as affirming the saving power of the new covenant in comparison to the old and as a key to hidden spiritual meanings in the text of scripture It is however an ambiguous phrase followed by a tangled story This book explores the Pauline distinction both in its original context and in its aftermath in the early church the Reformation and modern Biblical Studies It then considers a postmodern reversal where ideas of Spirit are often seen as deadly and the openness of the letter or text as life affirming and draws conclusions for Spirit in the world Theological Notebook: Volume 5: 1993-2010 Donald G. Jewish relations The Gospel of Leadership Ryan Krupa, 2018-09-21 This book is an odyssey into the truth of leadership's nature and essence. Written for aspiring leaders, teachers of leaders and followers, the aim is to practice awakening a leader's potential. The book mirrors and reflects the inner nature of the leadership journey. It is written in a contemplative style and uses dialogue to exercise a leader's will, intelligence and spirit. The techniques taught in these chapters are dialogue, meditation and contemplation. The author seeks to teach leaders how to exercise the power of will and the power of intelligence to make the kinetic chain of knowing, willing and acting morally and intellectually strong. Reading this book serves as a leadership development exercise. This book is a teaching tool designed to demystify what takes place in the interior nature of a leader. It examines a leader's soul as it is exercised and strengthened in preparation for the cardinal act of leading and it analyzes the act of making practical judgments, an act that demands the cultivation of a discerning mind to see and know the truth to be acted upon. Based on a true story, these chapters are a reflection on the formation of a leader and a realization of twenty years of research. The author studies the question: What does it take to develop a leader? Deliberations on eight years of guiding leaders on moral and intellectual quests in search of true freedom are revealed. Karl Polanyi In Dialogue Michael Brie, 2020-06-21 The contemporary Left fights its political battles on various fronts, protesting the crippling structural inequalities that sustain neoliberal economic policy, developing sustainable community-based alternatives to the consumerism and short-termism that exacerbate the environmental crisis, and advocating for the cultural recognition, emancipation and celebration of the diversity and pluralism of human identity. But despite this versatility, the Left appears to be in worldwide retreat whilst an aggressive new Alt Right is taking to the internet and the streets, regurgitating a regressive and patriarchal vision of society that has already won startling political victories in the US and Europe. Amidst the vertiginous tension of such a crisis, Michael Brie argues for an urgent theoretical and practical reorganisation of the Left. Developing the work of philosopher and social theorist Karl Polanyi, Brie advocates an alliance of socialist liberals and libertarian commonists that unites contemporary campaigns for recognition, difference and human dignity with more traditional struggles for social welfare and economic democracy. Starting with Nancy Fraser's critical reappraisal of Polanyi in her article 'A Triple Movement: Parsing the Politics of Crisis after Polanyi', Brie powerfully reinterprets Polanyi's thought for present times, developing concrete proposals for a Polanyian political response to neoliberalism, an ascendent authoritarian right and the ongoing threat of global ecological disaster. Also included are two articles by Polanyi translated into English for the first time, and Kari Polanyi Levitt's lecture at the Rosa Luxemburg Foundation, 'From the Great Transformation to the Great Financialisation'. Jung and Shamanism in Dialogue C. Michael Smith, 1997 In this highly original study, C. Michael Smith explores the affinities and distinctions between shamanism and Jungian psychology by bringing them together in dialogue. According to Smith, shamanism is considered to be a complex of practices of magico-religious character concerned primarily with psycho-spiritual and psychosomatic healing. Smith systematically examines shamanism from a Jungian perspective and

Jungian psychology from a shamanic perspective ultimately reflecting on the clinical and cultural implications of this study on psychotherapy and spirituality today Jung and Shamanism in Dialogue makes an excellent resource for psychotherapists social workers clergy and anyone interested in tapping into psycho spiritual wisdom
