Religion organize the questions and research that are the foundation of the enormous interest and controversy in science and religion today The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Philosophy of Religion Graham Oppy, 2015-04-17 Philosophy of religion has experienced a renaissance in recent times paralleling the resurgence in public debate about the place and value of religion in contemporary Western societies The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Philosophy of Religion is an outstanding reference source to the key topics problems and debates in this exciting subject Comprising over thirty chapters by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into seven parts theoretical orientations conceptions of divinity epistemology of religious belief metaphysics and religious language religion and politics religion and ethics religion and scientific scrutiny Within these sections central issues debates and problems are examined including religious experience religion and superstition realism and anti realism scientific interpretation of religious texts feminist approaches to religion religion in the public square tolerance religion and meta ethics religion and cognitive science and the meaning of life Together they offer readers an informed understanding of the current state of play in the liveliest areas of contemporary philosophy of religion The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Philosophy of Religion is essential reading for students and researchers of philosophy of religion from across the Humanities and Social Sciences Meaning and Mystery David M. Holley, 2009-11-19 Meaning and Mystery offers a challenge to the way Philosophy has traditionally approached the issue of belief in God as atheoretical problem proposing instead a form of reflection more appropriate to the practical nature of the issue Makes use of abundant illustrative material from both literature such as Les Misérables Edwin Abbott's Flatland Yann Martel's Life of Pi and Leo Tolstoy's A Confession and popular culture such as advertisements the television series Joan of Arcadia and the film Stranger Than Fiction Uses imaginative scenarios to offer explanations of central concepts Incorporates theories on human thought and behavior in exploring the formation of religious belief Written in a style that is accessible to readers with little background knowledge of philosophy American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 10:2 Mahmoud Dhaouadi, Karen Harding, Mohammad H. Kamali, Abdul Aziz, Waqar I. Ahmad and Charles Husband, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Cartesian Reflections John Cottingham, 2008-09-11 John Cottingham explores central areas of Descartes's rich and wide ranging philosophical system including his accounts of thought and language of freedom and action of our relationship to the animal domain and of human morality and the conduct of life He also examines ways in which his philosophy has been misunderstood The Cartesian mind body dualism that is so often attacked is only a part of Descartes's account of what it is to be a thinking sentient human creature and the way he makes the division between the mental and the physical is considerably more subtle and philosophically more appealing than is generally assumed Although Descartes is often considered to be one of the heralds of our modern secular worldview the new philosophy which he launched retains many links with the ideas of his predecessors not least in the all pervasive role it assigns to God something that is ignored or downplayed by many modern readers and the character of the Cartesian outlook is multifaceted sometimes anticipating Enlightenment ideas of human autonomy and independent scientific inquiry but also sometimes harmonizing with more traditional notions of human nature as created to find fulfilment in harmony with its creator

For Us and for Our Salvation Robert E. Schmitz, 2025-05-05 A renewal of pastoral theology is required to address the growing disconnect between the proclamation of the way of Jesus Christ and the lives of contemporary believers Pastoral ministers need to explore a dimension of the truth called performatory truth This dimension inspires life construction It must glean from the revelation what faith does to believers for believers and in believers the functions of faith Upon reflection on performatory truth and the functions of faith this work experiments with the propositions of the Nicene Creed to find a life constructing dimension How does belief in one God help define human relations How does the Incarnation help value the human How does Father Almighty bring believers to a Christian form of power and authority What does it mean when the Lord calls believers to take up the cross How can one imagine life in the Father in Son in the Holy Spirit in the church This reconnection of the Christian truth with contemporary life will assist preachers and teachers and inspire believers to live the Lord s way even in these strange times

Head and Heart Fraser Watts, Geoff Dumbreck, 2013-08-26 Theologians and religious figures often draw a distinction between religion of the head and religion of the heart but few stop to ask what the terms head and heart actually denote Many assume that this distinction has a scriptural basis and yet many Biblical authors used the word heart as a synonym for mind In fact there isn't a strict separation of the two concepts until the modern period as in Pascal's famous claim that the heart has its reasons that reason can not know Since then many other philosophers and theologians have made a similar distinction The fact that this distinction has been so persistent makes it an important area of study Head and Heart Perspectives from Religion and Psychology takes an interdisciplinary approach linking the thinking of theologians and philosophers with theory and research in present day psychology The tradition of using framing questions that have been developed in theology and philosophy can now be brought into dialogue with scientific approaches developed within cognitive psychology and neuroscience Though these scientific approaches have not generally used the terms head and heart they have arrived at a similar distinction in other ways There is a notable convergence upon the realization that humans have two modes of cognition at their disposal that correspond to head and heart The time is therefore ripe to bring the approaches of theology and science in to dialogue an important dialogue that has been heretofore neglected Head and Heart draws on the unique expertise in relating theology and psychology of the University of Cambridge's Psychology and Religion Research Group PRRG In addition to providing historical and theoretical perspectives the contributors to this volume will also address practical issues arising from the group's applied work in deradicalisation and religious education Contributors include Geoff Dumbreck Nicholas J S Gibson Malcolm Guite Liz Gulliford Russell Re Manning Glendon L Moriarty Sally Myers Sara Savage Carissa A Sharp Fraser Watts Harris Wiseman and Bonnie Poon Zahl
