Principles and Practices of Christian Education Robert W. Pazmino, 2002-04-29 Principles and Practices of Christian Education shows teachers how they can use two important principles that stand behind all evangelical practices to make their education program stand out from all the others in its nurture of students First evangelical Christian education recognizes the need for conversion personal and corporate transformation that reconnects people to their Creator Second evangelical Christian education strives for connection making contact with people as unique individuals who live in a particular society and who need to know more about scripture In this book Christian education students learn that the work for which they prepare is a partnership with God to transform people Their central task is worship but through it and other activities they lead others to faith commitment and transformation of communities Report Ireland. Maynooth Commission, 1855 The Teachers' Commentary on the Acts of the Apostles Francis Nathan Peloubet, 1901 The Teaching of Jesus and its Enduring Significance Franz Brentano, 2021-05-21 Here for the first time in English is Franz Brentano s The Teaching of Jesus a compendium of texts Brentano assembled for publication shortly before his death that constitute a frank public settling of accounts with the Christian religion Originally conceived by Brentano as a volume that might help others similarly led to doubt the doctrines of Christianity the book is remarkably free of bitterness or spitefulness On the contrary what makes the book of singular importance especially now is its careful attempt at taking stock of the positive and negative influence Christianity has had in history This text appeals to those researchers and scholars interested in the work of Franz Brentano and his work on the philosophy of religion in this case Christianity The School of Seers

Martyrs in Late Antiquity and Beyond Diane Fruchtmann, 2023-02-01 This book demonstrates that living martyrdom was an important spiritual aspiration in the late antique Latin west and argues that consequently attempts to define study or locate martyrdom must move away from conceptualizations that require or center on death After an introduction that traces the persistence of living martyrs as real objects of spiritual devotion and emulation across the span of Christian history and discusses why such martyrs have been overlooked the book focuses on three significant authors from the late ancient Latin west for whom martyrdom did not require death the Spanish poet Prudentius c 348 413 the senator turned ascetic Paulinus of Nola 353 431 and the influential North African bishop Augustine of Hippo 354 430 Through historically and literarily contextualized close readings of their work this book shows that each of these three authors attempted to create a new paradigm of martyrdom focused on living rather than dying for God By focusing on these living martyrs we are able to see more clearly the aspirations and agendas of those who promoted them as martyrs and how their martyrological discourse illuminates the variety of ways that martyrdom is and can be mobilized in any era to construct new community creating worldviews Living Martyrs in Late Antiquity and Beyond is an important resource for historians of Christianity scholars of religious studies and anyone interested in exploring or understanding martyrological discourse The Introduction of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Christ and His Teaching
