Response to Death Christian Riegel, 2005-02-15

Response to Death presents a literary historical perspective on mourning tracing examples of mourning in literary works from the medieval world to the present day Contributors offer a chronological examination of the concept of the work of mourning in specific literary and historical contexts beginning with an exploration of the medieval York Cycle of plays and sixteenth century French women's lyric and continuing through the Renaissance with considerations of Shakespeare the nineteenth century and into the twentieth century Foreword by Jonathan Hart Civil Religion Ronald Beiner, 2010-10-25 Civil Religion offers philosophical commentaries on more than twenty thinkers stretching from the sixteenth to the twentieth century It examines four important traditions within the history of modern political philosophy The civil religion tradition principally defined by Machiavelli Hobbes and Rousseau seeks to domesticate religion by putting it solidly in the service of politics The liberal tradition pursues an alternative strategy of domestication by seeking to put as much distance as possible between religion and politics Modern theocracy is a militant reaction against liberalism reversing the relationship of subordination asserted by civil religion Finally a fourth tradition is defined by Nietzsche and Heidegger Aspects of their thought are not just modern but hyper modern yet they manifest an often hysterical reaction against liberalism that is fundamentally shared with the theocratic tradition Together these four traditions compose a vital dialogue that carries us to the heart of political philosophy itself Religion Matters Paul Babie, Rick Sarre, 2020-03-02 This book draws together leaders in science the health sciences the humanities and the social sciences to investigate the role of religion its meaning and relevance for their area of specialization It provides a much needed fresh perspective on the way in which religion operates within the modern neo liberal world The book approaches the topic by way of a critical engagement between religion broadly defined and the individual disciplines in which each of the contributors is expert Rather than simply taking the dogmatic position that religion offers something to every possible discipline each of the chapters in this collection addresses the question is there something that religion can offer to the discipline in question That is the value of the book it takes a truly critical stance on the place of religion in contemporary society Nineteenth-Century Religion, Literature and Society Naomi Hetherington, Rebecca Styler, Angharad Eyre, Richa Dwor, Clare Stainthorp, 2021-11-09 This four volume historical resource provides new opportunities for investigating the relationship between religion literature and society in Britain and its imperial territories by making accessible a diverse selection of harder to find primary sources These include religious fiction poetry essays memoirs sermons travel writing religious ephemera unpublished notebooks and pamphlet literature Spanning the long nineteenth century c 1789 1914 the resource departs from older models of the Victorian crisis of faith in order to open up new ways of conceptualising religion A key concern of the resource is to integrate non Christian religions into our understanding and representations of religious life in this period Each volume is framed around a different meaning of the term religion Volume one on Traditions offers an overview of the different religious traditions and denominations present in Britain in this period Volume two on Mission and Reform considers the social and political importance of religious faith and practice as expressed through foreign and domestic mission and philanthropic and political movements at home and abroad Volume three turns to Religious Feeling as an important and distinct category for understanding the ways in which religion is embodied and expressed in culture Volume four on Disbelief and New Beliefs explores the transformation of the religious landscape of Britain and its imperial territories during the nineteenth century as a result of key cultural and intellectual forces The resource is aimed primarily at researchers and students working within the fields of literature and social and religious history It supplies an interpretative context for sources in the form of explanatory headnotes to each source or group of sources and volume introductions that explore overarching themes Each volume can be read independently but they work together to elucidate the complex and multi faceted nature of nineteenth century religious life

Promey, 2014-06-24 The result of a collaborative multiyear project this groundbreaking book explores the interpretive worlds that inform religious practice and derive from sensory phenomena Under the rubric of making sense the studies assembled here ask How have people used and valued sensory data How have they shaped their material and immaterial worlds to encourage or discourage certain kinds or patterns of sensory experience How have they framed the sensual capacities of images and objects to license a range of behaviors including iconoclasm censorship and accusations of blasphemy or sacrilege Exposing the dematerialization of religion embedded in secularization theory editor Sally Promey proposes a fundamental reorientation in understanding the personal social political and cultural work accomplished in religion s sensory and material practice Sensational Religion refocuses scholarly attention on the robust material entanglements often discounted by modernity s metaphysic and on their inextricable connections to human bodies behaviors affects and beliefs

Rebel Between Spirit and Law Scott Alan Kugle, 2006 This book examines the authority of saints in Islam and their ability to build communities among Muslims in North Africa It analyzes the power generated in religious communities through their allegiance to saints a power usually identified with the term Sufism In the late 15th and 16th centuries a community of Sufis in Fes Fez Morocco and other urban centers in North Africa advocated this paradigm of sainthood during a time of intense political and religious crisis Juridical sainthood a concept that fuses Islamic legal rectitude and devotional piety was the center of their reformist agenda The juridical saint was to be absorbed in legal training and religious values in ways that questioned political loyalty and dynastic legitimacy Scott A Kugle explores this tradition by focusing on the life and writings of Shaykh Ahmad Zarruq Following his exile from Fes Zarruq traveled widely over North Africa spreading his teachings and writings and attracting followers from Morocco to Mecca The life and teachings of Zarruq remain useful for Muslims They are a piece of the past that present day Muslims are rediscovering and redeploying to reconcile Islam's heritage with its very troubled post colonial present Islamic Sufism Unbound R. Rozehnal,2016-04-30 Robert Rozehnal traces the ritual practices and identity politics of a contemporary Sufi order in Pakistan the Chishti Sabris He takes multiple perspectives from the rich Urdu writings of Twentieth Century Sufi masters to the complex spiritual life of contemporary disciples and the order's growing transnational networks Medicine, Natural Philosophy and Religion in Post-Reformation Scandinavia Ole Grell,Andrew Cunningham,2016-11-03 The close relationship between religion medicine and natural philosophy in the post Reformation period has been documented and explored in a body of research since the 1990s however the direct and continued impact of Melanchthonian natural philosophy within the individual Lutheran principalities of northern Europe in general and Scandinavia in particular still has to be fully investigated and understood This volume provides insight into how and why medicine and natural philosophy in a liberal and Melanchthonian form could continue to blossom in Scandinavia despite a growing Lutheran uniformity promoted by the State Inspired by research emanating from the Cambridge Unit for the History of Medicine here a number of young scholars such as Adam Mosley Morten Fink Jensen Signe Nipper Nielsen and Martin Kjellgren are joined with more established scholars such as Andrew Cunningham Jens Glebe Møller Terhi Kiiskinen and Ole Peter Grell to create a volume which deals with not only the major issues but also the leading personalities of the period Race and Religion in American Buddhism Joseph Cheah,2011-10-28 While academic and popular studies of Buddhism have often neglected race as a factor of analysis the issues concerning race and racialization have remained not far below the surface of the wider discussion among ethnic Buddhists converts and sympathizers regarding representations of American Buddhism and adaptations of Buddhist practices to the American context In Race and Religion in American Buddhism Joseph Cheah provides a much needed contribution to the field of religious studies by addressing the under theorization of race in the study of American Buddhism Through the lens of racial formation Cheah demonstrates how adaptations of Buddhist practices by immigrants converts and sympathizers have taken place within an environment already permeated with the logic and ideology of whiteness and white supremacy In other words race and religion Buddhism are so intimately bounded together in the United States that the ideology of white supremacy informs the differing ways in which convert Buddhists and sympathizers and Burmese ethnic Buddhists have adapted Buddhist religious practices to an American context Cheah offers a complex view of how the Burmese American community must negotiate not only the religious and racial terrains of the United States but also the transnational reach of the Burmese junta Race and Religion in American Buddhism marks an important contribution to the study of American Buddhism as well as to the larger fields of U S religions and Asian American studies The Global Mystical Tradition Bruce Stephen Naschak,2023-01-09 Mysticism is an element of religion or spirituality which emphasizes direct apprehension of the divine whether the divine is understood from a theistic or non theistic perspective The author argues that such mystical experiences can be gained through the practice of specialized techniques of spiritual transformation techniques which have been passed down through the ages by Traditions of Masters or Holy Traditions These esoteric traditions are made up of masters and students who share secret doctrines and rituals and they can be found in cultures from the Upper Paleolithic Period through the present The Global Mystical Tradition studies these traditions their mystical experiences and practices from a global syncretistic perspective noting similarities and in some cases interaction between the Holy Traditions of different cultures
