Holy Land? Andrew Mayes, 2012-04-10 Holy Land draws us into the evocative landscape of the Holy Land itself Sacred yet scarred the lands of the Bible stimulate us to think about a range of issues that are both urgent and timeless In Jerusalem a veritable melting pot of cultures we meditate on the question What is home At the River Jordan where John the Baptist delivered his radical call to repentance and baptism we ask Who am I In the cave of Christ's burial and resurrection in the Holy Sepulchre we wonder How can I face the darkness Confronted by the vast desolation of the desert we cry Dare I be alone with God And negotiating the obstacle strewn Road to Emmaus we consider Am I ready for change Holy Land will benefit those preparing to undertake a physical pilgrimage to the Holy Land and those seeking a

Mayes, 2022-11-21 I will put in the wilderness the cedar the acacia the myrtle and the olive Isa 41 19 This book explores pathways to renewal through the powerful metaphor of reforesting the desert places The soul can sometimes be an arid thirsty desiccated place becoming as exhausted and denuded as land that has been ravaged and stripped of its trees God's promise is to reforest the wilderness and renew our fruitfulness This book is a guided retreat simultaneously enabling attentiveness to the soul while resonating with urgent ecological concerns The rich symbolism of different trees both in the Bible and in the Christian tradition including hymnody and poetry leads us into meditation reflection and action As land that is reforested holds the promise of new beginnings so this book heartens us with pointers towards spiritual rejuvenation Another Christ Andrew D. Mayes, 2024-08-30 This is a riveting book with bite an exploration with edginess Compelling and arresting images confront us with a fresh view of Jesus and of ourselves as we rediscover our vocation to be Another Christ for troubled times Recent research into the first century setting of the gospel and the author's years in the Holy Land cast unexpected light on both the identity of Jesus and our present calling while Francis of Assisi reveals how this can be creatively lived out We have a choice If we keep before our eyes images of Christ that are comforting soothing familiar traditional then our Christian life may turn out to be prosaic pedestrian and predictable a preservative to maintain the status quo But if we allow our discipleship today to be unsettled and inspired by images of Christ that are dynamic risky outrageous brave passionate radical then we open ourselves to new possibilities we embark on a liberating adventure an odyssey of the soul a pilgrimage a voyage into untested waters What will we choose Do we dare to take the unpredictable path And which route will respond most courageously to the needs of today's wounded world

Instruments Arndt Büssing,2019-04-23 Why do we need more questionnaires to measure aspects of spirituality religiosity when we already have so many well tried instruments in use One answer is that research in this field is growing and that new research questions continuously do arise Several of these new questions cannot be easily answered with the instruments designed for previous questions The field is expanding and consequently the research topics Meanwhile several multidimensional instruments were developed which cover existential prosocial religious and non religious forms of spirituality hope peace and trust and several more The disadvantage of these instruments is the fact that some are conceptually broad and often rather unspecific but they might be suited quite well for culturally and spiritually diverse populations when the intention is to compare such diverse groups This is the reason why more research on new instruments is needed as can be found in this Special Issue and to stimulate a critical debate about their pros and cons

The Harvest is Plentiful: When "It's Not Enough" Becomes Our Call to Action Stanley Scott Jr.,2025-06-27 In a world saturated with noise distraction and endless entertainment the voice of authentic faith often gets drowned out Yet in this cacophony of modern life there are still voices that cut through the static voices that challenge us to look beyond our comfort zones and answer the call that Jesus placed before His disciples two thousand years ago This book emerged from a sermon that refused to stay within the walls of a single Sunday morning service The message contained within these pages has been burning in my heart for months demanding to be shared beyond the confines of one congregation It s a message that speaks to the gap between the overwhelming needs in our communities and the often inadequate response of the modern church The phrase it s not enough may seem harsh or discouraging at first glance but it s meant to serve as a clarion call a wake up alarm for believers who have settled into comfortable patterns of faith that don t match the urgency of the harvest field around us This isn t a message of condemnation it s a message of activation As you read these pages you ll be challenged to examine your own life your own faith your own response to God s call You ll be asked to consider what distractions might be keeping you from fully engaging with the work God has prepared for you Most importantly you ll be invited to move from passive observation to active participation in the greatest mission on earth This book is for every believer who has ever felt that nagging sensation that there must be more to the Christian life than what they re currently experiencing It s for anyone who has looked at the pain and brokenness around them and wondered what difference they could possibly make It s for those who are tired of mediocre faith and ready for something that actually transforms lives starting with their own The harvest truly is plentiful The question is are we ready to be the laborers

Spirituality in Ministerial Formation Andrew D. Mayes,2009 In recent years theological education and training for both lay and ordained ministry have been reconceived in terms of ministerial formation But what is the origin of this paradigm and what difference does it actually make to both teachers and learners This study not only addresses these questions but also offering perspectives from the Eastern Christian traditions and from empirical research uncovers a dynamic role for prayer in the learning process It explores how different types of prayer have the potential to be a significant integrative cognitive healing empowering influence in ministerial formation and to enable a transformative process of deep learning It will prove not only to be a reference book for all practitioners in the field of theological education but also a practical workbook for teachers and students as its questions for individual or group use challenge present practice and open up new possibilities for the healing of the historic divide between theology and spirituality The book identifies elements for the development of a rich theology of ministerial formation which will enhance and energize the practice of theological education Seeking to re balance training and formation it invites a rethink of current functionalist approaches to professionalized lay and ordained ministry in terms of discovering creative and surprising functions of spirituality within the learning process The book thus has implications for the teaching of spirituality highlighting the need to articulate an integrated spirituality of education It also addresses important aspects of the Church's mission in society and the imperative of resourcing clergy and lay ministers for their engagement with the rising interest in spirituality in today's culture Book Jacket
