Canadian Warbirds of the Second World War Harold A. Skaarup, 2001 This aviation handbook is intended to provide the reader with a quick reference to identify the military aircraft flown by the Royal Canadian Air Force the Royal Canadian Navy and the Canadian Army during the Second World War The handbooks in this series include a general description and a photograph from the Canadian Forces Archives of at least one of the key variants or marks of each aircraft that has been in Canadian service or used by Canadian servicemen overseas Each aircraft is listed alphabetically by manufacturer number and type General details describing the aircraft s engines service ceiling speed armament or weapons load are included along with a brief description of the Canadian or allied squadron in which Canadian aircrews used the aircraft operationally This is the third volume in the series It describes fighters bombers and patrol aircraft flown by Canadians during the war A list of museums private aircraft collections and other locations where survivors preserved and displayed is also included The handbook is not a definitive list of all Canadian manufactured or operated aircraft but it should serve as a quick reminder of the major examples flown on duty for anyone with an interest in Canadian military aviation

Canadian Warbird Survivors 2002 Harold A Skaarup, 2001-11-29 The purpose of this handbook is to provide aviation enthusiasts with a simple checklist on where to find the surviving retired military aircraft that are preserved in Canada The majority of the Canadian Warbird Survivors are on display within a great number of well maintained aviation museums many others are displayed as gate guards near or in a number of Canadian Forces Bases and a good number are in the hands of private collectors Many are not listed in any catalogue but have been found by word of mouth or personal observation The museum staffs and volunteer organizations throughout Canada have done a particularly good job of preserving the great variety of Canadian military aircraft illustrated here Hopefully as more aircraft are recovered from their crash sites in the bush and restored traded or brought back from private owners they too will be added to the record The book lists the aircraft alphabetically by manufacturer number and type This list is also appended with a brief summary of the aircraft presently on display within the nation and a bit of its history within the Canadian Forces Canadian Warbirds books are available through the iUniverse com or the Amazon com online bookstores

Double Threat Ellin Bessner, 2019-01-24 He died so Jewry should suffer no more These words on a Canadian Jewish soldier's tombstone in Normandy inspired the author to explore the role of Canadian Jews in the war effort As PM Mackenzie King wrote in 1947 Jewish servicemen faced a double threat they were not only fighting against Fascism but for Jewish survival At the same time they encountered widespread antisemitism and the danger of being identified as Jews if captured Bessner conducted hundreds of interviews and extensive archival research to paint a complex picture of the 17 000 Canadian Jews about 10 per cent of the Jewish population in wartime Canada who chose to enlist including future Cabinet minister Barney Danson future game show host Monty Hall and comedians Wayne and Shuster Added to this fascinating account are Jews who were among the so called Zombies Canadians who were drafted but chose to serve at home the various perspectives of the Jewish community and the participation of Canadian Jewish women depth in this book C D Howe wartime Canada's absolute government czar used to say that running the country's airline was all he really wanted to do With a rich aviation heritage such as this Flying Canucks II depicts the elements and the enemy at their worst and the pioneers of Canadian aviation at their best Aces, Warriors and Wingmen Wayne Ralph,2008-09-11 A celebration and a tribute to the warriors of the air who as young men served their country with unselfish devotion Hear their words Join these young Canadians in combat AN EXCERPT FROM THE ACCOUNT OF GROUP CAPTAIN RAYNE SCHULTZ 410 SQUADRON It was heading home very fast a Junkers 188 in thin cloud well out over the North Sea We hit it badly and it was flaming two three hundred yards of flames streaming behind my navigator being a serious minded individual said Let's get in closer and take a good look at it as it is a different type of aircraft and I can report on it when we get down So I closed in which was the stupidest thing I ever did The mid upper gunner was not dead he was sitting inside of the flames The next thing I saw the gun traversing down toward us I broke as fast as I could but he put forty to forty four 13mm cannon shells into us I had pistons blown out of one engine and the constant speed unit blown out in the other We were going to bail out We jettisoned the door and the navigator was halfway out when the chap came back from the Ground Control Intercept GCI and said There is a Force 9 to 10 sea and we will never be able to rescue you So we brought that aircraft back to Bradwell Bay and I can tell you it near flew again My navigator was wounded bleeding from the face I could see the engines running red hot one was actually running on molten metal the whole thing glowing inside The air bottles were shot away and I had no brakes for landing The Mosquito was in ribbons The Merlin Gordon A. A. Wilson,2018-12-15 First ever narrative history of the famous aero engine that powered the Spitfire Hurricane Lancaster Mosquito and Mustang the aircraft that made the difference between victory and defeat at critical moments in the Second World War the Battle of Britain and the allied aerial offensive against Germany Canadian Warbird & War Prize Survivors Harold A.
