Spitting At Dragons Towards A Feminist Theology Of Sainthood:

Spitting at Dragons Elizabeth Stuart, 1996 In this work the questions of canonization and sainthood are examined from a feminist perspective The author questions the wisdom of feminist theology's decision to ignore or reject the ideas of saints as elitist or other worldly The text outlines the problem of the ways in which saints' lives have been constructed and interpreted in male dominated societies and institutions It proposes a way of reading the lives of saints especially women saints that does justice to women's own experiences and interpretations of their experience The text concludes by suggesting that saints are still needed and proposes a new theology of sainthood that sets out guidelines for gaining such saints Feminist

Cyborg Saints Carissa Smith, 2019-09-02 Saints are currently undergoing a resurrection in middle grade and young adult fiction as recent prominent novels by Socorro Acioli Julie Berry Adam Gidwitz Rachel Hartman Merrie Haskell Gene Luen Yang and others demonstrate Cyborg Saints Religion and Posthumanism in Middle Grade and Young Adult Fiction makes the radical claim that these holy medieval figures are actually the new cyborgs in that they dethrone the autonomous subject of humanist modernity While young people navigate political and personal forces as well as technologies that threaten to fragment and thingify them saints show that agency is still possible outside of the humanist construct of subjectivity The saints of these neomedievalist novels through living a life vulnerable to the other attain a distributed agency that accomplishes miracles through bodies and places and things relics icons pilgrimage sites and ultimately the hagiographic text and its reader spread across time Cyborg Saints analyzes MG and YA fiction through the triple lens of posthumanism neomedievalism and postsecularism Cyborg Saints charts new ground in joining religion and posthumanism to represent the creativity and diversity of young people's fiction

Theology in the Public Square Gavin D'Costa, 2013-04-10 This imaginative study rethinks the nature of theology and its role in universities The author sketches out a fascinating project using examples from US and UK institutions whereby theology becomes a transformative force within universities Imagines what a Christian university in which all disciplines have been theologized would look like Feeds into discussions about the religious identity of denominationally linked colleges and universities Forms part of a wider attempt to imagine a vital public role for theology that enables it to serve both the Church and the wider community

The Queer God Marcella Althaus-Reid, 2004-06-01 There are those who go to gay bars and salsa clubs with rosaries in their pockets and who make camp chapels of their living rooms Others enter churches with love letters hidden in their bags because their need for God and their need for love refuse to fit into different compartments But what goodness and righteousness can prevail if you are in love with someone whom you are ecclesiastically not supposed to love Where is God in a salsa bar The Queer God introduces a new theology from the margins of sexual deviance and economic exclusion Its chapters on Bisexual Theology Sadean holiness gay worship in Brazil and Queer sainthood mark the search for a different face of God the Queer God who challenges the oppressive powers of heterosexual orthodoxy whiteness and global capitalism Inspired by the transgressive spaces of Latin American spirituality where the experiences of slum children merge with Queer interpretations of grace and holiness The Queer God seeks to liberate God from the closet of traditional Christian thought and to embrace God's part in the lives of gays lesbians and the poor Only a theology that dares to be radical can show us the presence of God in our times The Queer God creates a concept of holiness that overcomes sexual and colonial prejudices and shows how Queer Theology is ultimately the search for God's own deliverance Using Liberation Theology and Queer Theory it exposes the sexual roots that underlie all theology and takes the search for God to new depths of social and sexual exclusion

Gay and Lesbian Theologies Elizabeth Stuart, 2017-09-08 Gay and lesbian theology has been one of the most distinctive voices to have emerged in Christian theology in the last 30 years It has placed lesbian and gay experience at the heart of the theological process Elizabeth Stuart one of the most prominent theologians in this field presents the first critical survey of gay and lesbian theology arguing that its emergence was nothing short of miraculous Gay and lesbian theologians managed to take a dominant Christian discourse which rendered them sinful sick and harmful to the common good and transform it into a theology which argued that a person's sexuality provided the point of contact between God and themselves Stuart argues that miraculous though this was gay and lesbian theology has revealed itself to be bankrupt incapable of providing universally convincing reasons for the inclusion of lesbian and gay people and their relationships in the Church and unable to deal with the defining experience of lesbian and gay communities in the late twentieth century AIDS Stuart concludes that lesbian and gay people and their opponents in the Church have too easily bought into modern constructions of sexual identity and cut themselves off from a Christian tradition which is far more queer in that it refuses to accept the stability of gender and sexual desire Stuart argues that the only way out of the current deadlock on the issue of homosexuality in the Churches is for both sides to embrace this ancient queer tradition a Christian tradition which teaches that in the end gender and sexual identities have no ultimate importance      Sex, Sin, and Our Selves Anna Fisk,2014-03-17 Sex Sin and Our Selves brings together readings in feminist theological thought and the literature of the acclaimed contemporary writers Michele Roberts and Sara Maitland Through placing theology in conversation with Roberts s and Maitland s literary engagement with issues of religion and gender this book explores themes of selfhood connection sex sin and self sacrifice In doing so it challenges a tendency of feminist theology to seek simple and idealized answers rather than honor complexity and the need to continue to ask questions In the encounters in feminist theology and contemporary women s writing Anna Fisk employs autobiographical narrative critically understood as reading these stories beside my own      Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico,1998-03-20 The Reader s Guide to Women s Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women s studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors      His Dark Materials Illuminated Millicent Lenz,Carole Scott,2005 The first critical analysis of Philip Pullman s cross age fantasy trilogy      Radical Love Patrick S. Cheng,2011-03 The first introductory textbook on the subject of queer theology Contextual theologies have developed from a number of perspectives including feminist theology black theology womanist theology Latin American liberation theology and Asian American theology and a wide variety of academic and general introductions exist to examine each one However Radical Love is the first introductory textbook on the subject of queer theology In this lucid and compelling introduction Cheng provides a historical survey of how queer theology has developed from the 1950s to today and then explicates the themes of queer theology using the ecumenical creeds as a general framework Topics include revelation God Trinity creation Jesus Christ atonement sin grace Holy Spirit church sacraments and last things as seen through the lenses of LGBT theologians      Losing the Sacred Ritual and Liturgy David Torevell,2004-11-11 This book argues that the liturgical reforms initiated by the second Vatican Council may have seriously undermined contemporary Roman Catholic worship Drawing on important work by Durkheim Bauman Foucault Turner Duffy Flanagan and Pickstock David Torevell focuses on the most crucial element of Catholic worship the experience of the sacred and examines how it has been eroded since pre modern times largely due to the marginalisation of ritual expression and its consequences A devastating critique of the loss of the sacred in worship this striking interdisciplinary study is a call for revitalisation of Roman Catholic liturgy through a reform of the reform and the reclamation of the importance of the body in ritual expression      Sexuality and the Sacred, Second Edition Marvin M. Ellison,Kelly Brown Douglas,2010-09-21 Christian discourse on sexuality spirituality and ethics has continued to evolve since this book's first edition was published in 1994. This updated and expanded anthology featuring more than thirty contemporary essays includes more theologians and ethicists of color and addresses issues such as the intersection of race racism and sexuality transgender identity same sex marriage and reproductive health and justice.

Patriarchs, Prophets and Other Villains Lisa Isherwood, 2016-04-08

Patriarchs, Prophets and Other Villains takes as a starting point the hermeneutics of suspicion. The book illustrates the way in which texts and interpretations have been manipulated for the purpose of power and control. Through careful counter readings it challenges the ways in which the female divine has been pushed back by relentless male interpretation and misrepresentation. The essays range across liberation theology and queer theory to sexual hospitality and the Song of Songs as a challenge to hetero patriarchy. The book provides an accessible resource for any student interested in the ways in which narrow readings of Scripture can become a power base for hierarchies of exclusion.

Dialectics of the Self Ian Fraser, 2021-02-02

Charles Taylor is a philosopher concerned with morality and the nature of the identity of individuals and groups in the West. This book offers an evaluation of Taylor's conception of self and its moral and political possibilities.

The Trinity and the Religions, Loe Joo Tan, 2018-09-15

Will the followers of other religions who have not heard of the gospel be saved? Since the Second Vatican Council the Catholic church has been grappling with this question culminating in a recent document Dominus Iesus in 2000. In the post-DI climate the British theologian Gavin D Costa has been described as a representative post-DI theologian of religions. And with good reason since other theologians such as Jacques Dupuis whose work along the lines of neo Rahnerianism have been curtailed by DI. D Costa's work has spanned the past three decades and is aimed at developing a theology that echoes developments within the Catholic church's efforts to grapple with the existence of other religions. In doing so he has appropriated the doctrine of the Trinity by reasoning it provides the very resources for interacting with Others and developed a form of Trinitarian inclusivism. Based on the work of patristic theologians such as Lewis Ayres and Michel Barnes and their conception of a Pro-Nicene theological matrix this book is an attempt to assess whether D Costa's utilization of trinitarian resources for contemporary concerns is faithful to the tradition. The book concludes that while there is much to commend in D Costa's system there remain some features not fully consonant with classical Trinitarianism.

Women's Ways of Worship Teresa Berger, 1999

The richness of recent research on women's worship gives witness to the scholarly interest in its contemporary practice reflection and construction. On the other hand feminist scholarship has had little impact on liturgical historiography. In Women's Ways of Worship Teresa Berger reconstructs liturgical history from the perspectives of women. She shows that the invisibility of women in the traditional liturgical narrative draws into question the credibility of that narrative especially at a time when research into women's history has unearthed much material relevant to women's liturgical lives. Berger focuses on thirteen key interpretative principles that guide the reconstruction of women at worship from a re-configuration of the canon of sources and a re-Visioning of liturgical periodization to re-interpretation of anthropological basics and of liturgical texts On the basis of these principles she analyzes liturgical dynamics in two time periods crucial to the history of women at worship the early centuries of the Christian Church and the twentieth century liturgical renewal Within the twentieth century liturgical renewal Berger focuses on two specific foci of renewal the classical liturgical movement of the first half of the century and as a case of history in the making the women s liturgical movement of the present day Women s Ways of Worship narrates both past and present liturgical developments from the perspectives of women s lives heeding such dynamics as the genderization of liturgical space women specific liturgical taboos gender specific devotional practices and the emergence of feminist liturgies An epilogue confronts the question of a future liturgy beyond gender Convinced that reconstructing the history of women at worship will offer a new Vision of the place of the women s liturgical movement within liturgical history as a whole Berger puts this movement on a continuum of women at worship which is a continuum of struggle against the historic marginalization of women in most liturgical contexts As this struggle has come to the forefront today Women s Ways of Worship provides a context for change with women themselves being agents of both the questioning and the transformation Chapters are Reconstructing Women s Ways of Worship In Search of Methodological Principles Liturgical History Re Constructed I Early Christian Women at Worship Liturgical History Re Constructed II Women in the Twentieth Century Liturgical Movement and Liturgical History in the Making The Women s Liturgical Movement Teresa Berger is associate professor of Ecumenical Theology at the Divinity School of Duke University Durham North Carolina She is the author of numerous books and contributor to a variety of journals including Worship published by The Liturgical Press

Discipleship and Imagination David Brown,2004 In this book David Brown considers the ways in which biblical narratives have been presented and changed over the centuries He then determines how these changes have impacted the understanding and practice of Christian discipleship
