Spivak Reader Selected Works Of Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak:

The Spivak Reader: Selected Works of Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, 1996 The Spivak Reader Gayatri Spivak, Gerald MacLean, 2013-10-18 Among the foremost feminist critics to have emerged to international eminence over the last fifteen years Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak has relentlessly challenged the high ground of established theoretical discourse in literary and cultural studies Although her rigorous reading of various authors has often rendered her work difficult terrain for those unfamiliar with poststructuralism this collection makes significant strides in explicating Spivak's complicated theories of reading An Analysis of Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak's Can the Subaltern Speak? Graham Riach, 2017-07-05 A critical analysis of Spivak's classic 1988 postcolonial studies essay in which she argues that a core problem for the poorest and most marginalized in society the subalterns is that they have no platform to express their concerns and no voice to affect policy debates or demand a fairer share of society's goods A key theme of Gayatri Spivak's work is agency the ability of the individual to make their own decisions While Spivak's main aim is to consider ways in which subalterns her term for the indigenous dispossessed in colonial societies were able to achieve agency this paper concentrates specifically on describing the ways in which western scholars inadvertently reproduce hegemonic structures in their work Spivak is herself a scholar and she remains acutely aware of the difficulty and dangers of presuming to speak for the subalterns she writes about As such her work can be seen as predominantly a delicate exercise in the critical thinking skill of interpretation she looks in detail at issues of meaning specifically at the real meaning of the available evidence and her paper is an attempt not only to highlight problems of definition but to clarify them What makes this one of the key works of interpretation in the Macat library is of course the underlying significance of this work Interpretation in this case is a matter of the difference between allowing subalterns to speak for themselves and of imposing a mode of speaking on them that however well intentioned can be as damaging in the postcolonial world as the agency stifling political structures of the colonial world itself By clearing away the detritus of scholarly attempts at interpretation Spivak takes a stand against a specifically intellectual form of oppression and marginalization The Post-colonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2006 Boasting new extracts from major works in the field as well as an impressive list of contributors this second edition of a bestselling Reader is an invaluable introduction to the most seminal texts in post colonial theory and criticism Critical Theory for Library and Information Science Gloria J. Leckie, Lisa M. Given, John E. Buschman, 2010-07-26 This text provides an overview of major critical theorists from across disciplines including the humanities social sciences and education that discusses the importance of these critical perspectives for the advancement of LIS research and scholarship The practical application of library and information science is based upon 75 years of critical theory and thought Therefore it is essential for students and faculty in LIS to be familiar with the work of a wide range of critical theorists The aim of Critical Theory for Library and Information Science Exploring the Social from Across the Disciplines is to provide a comprehensive introduction to the critical theorists important to the LIS audience and to give insights into how such theory can be incorporated into actual LIS research and practice This book consists of chapters on individual critical theorists ranging from Aglietta to Habermas to Spivak written by an international group of library and information science scholars Each chapter provides an overview of the theoretical stance and contributions of the theorist as well as relevant critical commentary This book will be particularly valuable as a reference text of core readings for those pursuing doctoral or masters level degrees in LIS

Contested Histories and Politics of People P. Prayer Elmo Raj, 2021-07-12 Contested Histories and Politics of People is an analytical interface to the plurivocal trajectories and influential approaches fashioned by Subaltern Studies It highlights the diverse methods and the dynamics of resistance that augmented specific ways of countering hegemonic domination Power manipulated and subjugated subaltern classes both from within through elite nationalists and outside through colonialism Bringing together the splintered movements that revolutionarily resist hegemonic state power Subaltern Studies unearths subsumed narratives and subjugated knowledges Accordingly it contributes towards a critique of neo colonial politics and powers that influence and alter history This book suggests that what emerged as a historical critical method to challenge dominant historiography hegemony and power has contributed towards the formation of a cultural history

The Afterlife of al-Andalus Christina Civantos, 2017-11-21 The first study to undertake a wide ranging comparison of invocations of al Andalus across the Arab and Hispanic worlds Around the globe concerns about interfaith relations have led to efforts to find earlier models in Muslim Iberia al Andalus This book examines how Muslim Iberia operates as an icon or symbol of identity in twentieth and twenty first century narrative drama television and film from the Arab world Spain and Argentina Christina Civantos demonstrates how cultural agents in the present ascribe importance to the past and how dominant accounts of this importance are contested Civantos s analysis reveals that alongside established narratives that use al Andalus to create exclusionary imperial identities there are alternate discourses about the legacy of al Andalus that rewrite the traditional narratives In the process these discourses critique their imperial and gendered dimensions and pursue intercultural translation

Sweet Deal, Bitter Landscape Youjin B. Chung, 2024-01-15 Sweet Deal Bitter Landscape brings us to the mid 2000s when the Tanzanian government struck a deal with a foreign investor to convert more than 20 000 hectares of long settled coastal land to establish a sugarcane plantation Ten years on the deal was abruptly abandoned Popularly deemed a case of hubristic global development critics classified this project another in a line of failed modern resource grabs Youjin B Chung argues such tidy accounts conceal myriad and profound implications not only how gender history and culture shaped the project s trajectory but also how even in its stalled state the deal upended social life on the land by setting in motion incomplete processes of development and dispossession With rich ethnographic detail and visual storytelling Sweet Deal Bitter Landscape traces the lived experiences of diverse rural women and men as they struggled for survival under a seemingly endless condition of liminality In so doing she raises critical questions about the directions and stakes of postcolonial development and nation building in Tanzania and the shifting meanings of identity and belonging for those on the margins of capitalist agrarian transformation

X—The Problem of the Negro as a Problem for Thought Nahum Dimitri Chandler, 2013-12-15 X The Problem of the Negro as a Problem for Thought offers an original account of matters African American and by implication the African diaspora in general as an object of discourse and knowledge It likewise challenges the conception of analogous objects of study across dominant ethnological disciplines e g anthropology history and sociology and the various forms of cultural ethnic and postcolonial studies With special reference to the work of W E B Du Bois Chandler shows how a concern with the Negro is central to the social and historical problematization that underwrote twentieth century explorations of what it means to exist as an historical entity referring to their antecedents in eighteenth century thought and forward into their ongoing itinerary in the twenty first century For Du Bois the problem of the color line coincided with the inception of a supposedly modern horizon The very idea of the human and its avatars the idea of race and the idea of culture emerged together with the violent hierarchical inscription of the so called African or Negro into a horizon of commonness beyond all natal premises a horizon that we can still situate with the term global In ongoing struggles with the idea of historical sovereignty we can see the working out of then new concatenations of social and historical forms of difference as both projects of categorical differentiation and the irruption of originary revisions of ways of being In a word the world is no longer and has never been one The world if there is such from the inception of something like the Negro as a problem for thought could never be only one The problem of the Negro in America is thus an exemplary instance of modern historicity in its most fundamental sense It renders legible for critical practice the radical order of an ineluctable and irreversible complication at the heart of being its appearance as both life and history as the very mark of our epoch

Human Rights and Subjectivity Elisabeth Roy-Trudel, 2024-11-14 This book draws on a range of theoretical frameworks to challenge the limited conception of subjectivity upon which human rights are based The book focuses on some of the ways in which dominant discourses are in tension with human rights fundamental claim to universality by ignoring multiple ways of being Different theoretical and methodological approaches are used to analyse this creation of exclusions These include Hannah Arendt s figure of the refugee posthumanist critiques and non Western critical theories such as Black Indigenous and decolonial approaches Often these approaches are used in isolation but together they reveal how the dominant concept of subjectivity has always needed an Other and that the human at the heart of human rights is not a universal concept The book also pursues an analysis of visual discourses in the field of international human rights with a focus on the ways in which exclusions are represented and entrenched through the visual It argues that international human rights are based on a vision centred sensorium and certain processes of reasoning that exclude emotions Finally the book considers how international human rights could embrace other forms of thinking and being in the world and recognize different sensory experiences This original perspective on the limits of human rights will appeal to legal theorists socio legal scholars and others working in politics sociology anthropology and cultural studies with an interest in contemporary approaches to social justice and critical approaches

Climate Change Fiction and Ecocultural Crisis Tatiana Konrad, 2024-09-24 Concentrating on a powerful emerging genre Tatiana Konrad's Climate Change Fiction and Ecocultural Crisis provides a survey of popular narratives that further our understanding of climate change in contemporary fiction Konrad advocates for the expansion and redefinition of the cli fi genre and argues that industrial fiction from the nineteenth century is the first example of climate change fiction Tracing the ways through which cli fi outlines a history of our modern ecocultural crisis this book demonstrates how the genre employs four major thematic clusters to achieve this narrative weather science religion and place Focusing on a diverse range of issues including fossil fuels cheap energy the intricacies of human more than human relationships and postcolonial geographies Konrad illustrates how cli fi transcends mere storytelling The genre ultimately emerges as an important means to forecast imagine and contemplate climatic events The book invites a broadening of the environmental humanities discourse asking readers not only to deepen their understanding of the current climate crisis but also to consider how cli fi culture can be viewed as an effective method to address climate change

Public Relations and Social Theory Øyvind Ihlen, Magnus Fredriksson, Betteke Van Ruler, 2009-03-30 Public Relations and Social Theory broadens the theoretical scope of public relations through its application of the works of prominent social theorists to the study of public relations The volume focuses on the work of key social theorists including Jürgen Habermas Niklas Luhmann Michel Foucault Ulrich Beck Pierre Bourdieu Anthony Giddens Robert Putnam Erving Goffman Peter L. Berger Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Bruno Latour Leon Mayhew Dorothy Smith and Max Weber Unique in its approach the collection demonstrates how the theories of these scholars come to bear on the understanding of public relations as a social activity Understanding public relations in its societal context entails a focus on such concepts as trust legitimacy understanding and reflection as well as on issues of power behavior and language Each chapter is devoted to an individual theorist providing an overview of that theorist's key concepts and contributions and exploring how these concepts can be applied to public relations as a practice Each chapter also includes a box giving a short and concise presentation of the theorist along with recommendation of key works and secondary literature Overall this volume will enhance understanding of theories and their applications in public relations expanding the breadth and depth of the theoretic foundations of public relations It will be of great interest to scholars and graduate students in public relations and strategic communication

Liberalism and Human Suffering A. Abbas, 2010-10-11 A materialist critique of the politics poetics and economics of suffering in liberalism that argues for attention to the labour of suffering of the victim in many well meaning but flawed politics of redress and imagines forms of representation solidarity and justice that better honour the history and materiality of this labour

Theory for Classics Louise Hitchcock, 2008-01-10 Theory for Classics provides a concise and clear introduction to the work of major contemporary theorists of the past century and how they can be applied to Classical studies today Love and the Politics of Care Stanislava Dikova, Wendy McMahon, Jordan Savage, 2022-11-03 This edited volume offers a contemporary rethinking of the relationship between love and care in the context of neoliberal practices of professionalization and work Each of the book's three sections interrogates a particular site of care where the affective political legal and economic dimensions of care intersect in challenging ways These sites are located within a variety of institutionally managed contexts such as the contemporary university the theatre hall the prison complex the family home the urban landscape and the care industry The geographical spread of the case studies stretches across India Vietnam Sweden Brazil South Africa the UK and the US and provides broad coverage that crosses the divide between the Global North and the Global South To address this transnational interdisciplinary field of study the collection utilises insights from across the humanities and social sciences and includes contributions from literature sociology cultural and media studies philosophy feminist theory theatre art history and education These inquiries build on a variety of conceptual tools and research methods from data analysis to psychoanalytic reading Love and the Politics of Care delivers an attentive and widely relevant examination of the politics of care and makes a compelling case for an urgent reconsideration of the methods that currently structure and regulate it Handbook of Ancient Afro-Eurasian Economies Sitta von Reden, 2023-10-24 The Handbook of Ancient Afro Eurasian Economies offers in three volumes the first comprehensive discussion of economic development in the empires of the Afro Eurasian world region to elucidate the conditions under which large quantities of goods and people moved across continents and between empires Volume 3 Frontier Zone Processes and Transimperial Exchange analyzes frontier zones as particular landscapes of encounter economic development and transimperial network formation The chapters offer problematizing approaches to frontier zone processes as part of and in between empires with the goal of better understanding how and why goods and resources moved across the Afro Eurasian region Key frontiers in mountains and steppes along coasts rivers and deserts are investigated in depth demonstrating how local landscapes politics and pathways explain network practices and participation in long distance trade The chapters seek to retrieve local knowledge ignored in popular Silk Road models and to show the potential of frontier zone research for understanding the Afro Eurasian region as a connected space Postcolonialism Cross-Examined Monika Albrecht, 2019-06-19 Taking a strikingly interdisciplinary and global approach Postcolonialism Cross Examined reflects on the current status of postcolonial studies and attempts to break through traditional boundaries creating a truly comparative and genuinely global phenomenon Drawing together the field of mainstream postcolonial studies with post Soviet postcolonial studies and studies of the late Ottoman Empire the contributors in this volume question many of the concepts and assumptions we have become accustomed to in postcolonial studies creating a fresh new version of the field The volume calls the merits of the field into question investigating how postcolonial studies may have perpetuated and normalized colonialism as an issue exclusive to Western colonial and imperial powers The volume is the first to open a dialogue between three different areas of postcolonial scholarship that previously developed independently from one another the wide field of postcolonial studies working on European colonialism the growing field of post Soviet postcolonial post imperial studies the still fledgling field of post Ottoman postcolonial post imperial studies supported by sideways glances at the multidirectional conditions of interaction in East Africa and the East and West Indies Postcolonialism Cross Examined looks at topics such as humanism nationalism multiculturalism nostalgia and the Anthropocene in order to piece together a new broader vision for postcolonial studies in the twenty first century By including territories other than those covered by the postcolonial mainstream the book strives to reframe the postcolonial as a genuinely global phenomenon and develop multidirectional postcolonial perspectives

Continental Philosophy and the Palestinian Question Zahi Zalloua, 2017-02-23 From Sartre to Levinas continental philosophers have looked to the example of the Jew as the paradigmatic object of and model for ethical inquiry Levinas for example powerfully dedicates his 1974 book Otherwise than Being to the victims of the Holocaust and turns attention to the state of philosophy after Auschwitz Such an ethics radically challenges prior notions of autonomy and comprehension two key ideas for traditional ethical theory and more generally the Greek tradition It seeks to respect the opacity of the other and avoid the dangers of hermeneutic violence But how does such an ethics of the other translate into real everyday life What is at stake in thinking the other as Jew Is the alterity of the Jew simply a counter to Greek universalism Is a rhetoric of exceptionalism with its unavoidable ontological residue at odds with shifting political realities Within this paradigm what then becomes of the Arab or Muslim the other of the Jew the other of the other so to speak This line of ethical thought in its desire to bear witness to past suffering and come to terms with subjectivity after Auschwitz arguably brackets from analysis present operations of power Would then a more sensitive historical approach expose the Palestinian as the other of the Israeli Here Zahi Zalloua offers a challenging intervention into how we configure the contemporary
