Paul Nooncree Hasluck, 1912 Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p B J Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he The present volume based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820 complements his and Archer Taylor's Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820 1880 It differs from that work and from other standard collections however in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings letters diaries histories travel books political pamphlets and the like The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace from scholars and statesmen to farmers shopkeepers sailors and hunters Mr Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out of the way publications of local journals and historical societies This body of material because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together according to Albert B Friedman What makes the work important is Whiting's authority a proverb or proverbial phrase is what BJW thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase There is no objective operative definition of any value no divining rod his tact feel experience determine what's the real thing and what is spurious Class and Colonialism in Antarctic Exploration, 1750-1920 Ben Maddison, 2015-10-06 Between 1750 and 1920 over 15 000 people visited Antarctica Despite such a large number the historiography has ignored all but a few celebrated explorers Maddison presents a study of Antarctic exploration telling the story of these forgotten facilitators he argues that Antarctic exploration can be seen as an offshoot of European colonialism The Island of Gold; Or, the Cruise of the "Black Dog." William Stephens HAYWARD, 1868 Knotting and Splicing Ropes and Cordage Paul N.
