Al-Rabghūzī, The Stories of the Prophets (2 vols.) H.E. Boeschoten, J. O'Kane, 2015-07-14 A first edition of The Stories of the Prophets written in Khwarezmian Turkish by the judge q Rabgh z and completed in 1311 was published in 1995 by a group of authors For the second edition H E Boeschoten and J O Kane have thoroughly revised both the text edition and the translation volume on the basis of additional manuscripts and reviews of the first edition The Stories of the Prophets Qi a al Anbiy is a traditional genre in Islamic literature Such a work contains the res gestae of the biblical prophets and stories about other personalities and peoples up to the birth of the Prophet Mu ammed Exceptionally Rabgh z's Stories also contains a sizable account of the life of Mu ammed and his family The work is a fundamental source both for Turkic linguistics and for Islamic Studies The Jewish Apocalyptic Tradition and the Shaping of New Testament Thought Benjamin E.

Reynolds, Loren T. Stuckenbruck, 2017-04-01 The contemporary study of Jewish apocalypticism today recognizes the wealth and diversity of ancient traditions concerned with the unveiling of heavenly matters understood to involve revealed wisdom the revealed resolution of time and revealed cosmology in marked contrast to an earlier focus on eschatology as such The shift in focus has had a more direct impact on the study of ancient pseudepigraphic literature however than in New Testament studies where the narrower focus on eschatological expectation remains dominant In this Companion an international team of scholars draws out the implications of the newest scholarship for the variety of New Testament writings Each entry presses the boundaries of current discussion regarding the nature of apocalypticism in application to a particular New Testament author The cumulative effect is to reveal as never before early Christianity its Christology cosmology and eschatology as expressions of tendencies in Second Temple Judaism

Monographs in Tang Official Historiography

Daniel Patrick Morgan, Damien Chaussende, 2019-09-19 This book examines the role of medieval authors in writing the history of ancient science. It features essays that explore the content structure and ideas behind technical writings on medieval Chinese state history. In particular, it looks at the Ten Treatises of the current History of Sui which provide insights into the writing on the history of such fields as astronomy, astrology, omenology, economics, law, geography, metrology, and library science. Three treatises are known to have been written by Li Chunfeng, one of the most important mathematicians, astronomers, and astrologers in Chinese history. The book not only opens a new window on the figure of Li Chunfeng by exploring what his writings as a historian of science tell us about him as a scientist and vice versa, it also discusses how and on what basis the individual treatises were written. The essays address such themes as: 1. the recycling of sources and the question of reliability and objectivity in premodern history writing; 2. the tug of war between conservatism and innovation; 3. the imposition of the author's voice, worldview, and personal and professional history in writing a history of a field of technical expertise in a state history; 4. the degree to which modern historians are compelled to speak to their own milieu and ideological beliefs.

Proclus Lucas Siorvanes, Researcher Research Unit for the Sociology of Development, Nicoli Nattrass, 1996-01-01 Proclus 410-485 was the last great Greek philosopher. In this study, Proclus expert Lucas Siorvantes sets out to strip away the complexities surrounding this traditionally difficult philosopher with the intention of providing an accessible introduction to his work. Based on extensive study of the primary sources, he takes the reader through Proclus' metaphysics and epistemology, introducing the results of original research as well as explaining the more difficult passages. Siorvantes surveys the philosophical climate of Late Antiquity, dominated by Aristotle and Plato, and points out the direct influence Proclus had on the subsequent work of Kepler and Copernicus.

Theological Interpretation of Culture in Post-Communist Context

Ivana Noble, 2016-12-05 Twenty years after the fall of Communism in Central and East Europe is an occasion to reevaluate the cultural and theological contribution from that region to the secularization/post secularization debate. Czech theologian Ivana

Noble develops a Trinitarian theology through a close dialogue with literature music and film which formed not only alternatives to totalitarian ideologies but also followed the loss and reappearance of belief in God Noble explains that by listening to the artists the churches and theologians can deal with questions about the nature of the world memory and ultimate fulfilment in a more nuanced way Then as partakers in the search undertaken by their secular and post secular contemporaries theologians can penetrate a new depth of meaning sending out shoots from the stump of Christian symbolism Drawing on the rich cultures of Central and East Europe and both Western and Eastern theological traditions this book presents a theological reading of contemporary culture which is important not just for post Communist countries but for all who are engaged in the debate on the boundaries between theology politics and arts
