Spies Bombs The Path Of Bliss:

Spies, Bombs & the Path of Bliss Tom Molomby, 1986 The Darkest Sides of Politics, I Jeffrey M. Bale, 2017-09-04

This book examines a wide array of phenomena that arguably constitute the most noxious extreme terrifying murderous secretive authoritarian and or anti democratic aspects of national and international politics Scholars should not ignore these dark sides of politics however unpleasant they may be since they influence the world in a multitude of harmful ways The first volume in this two volume collection focuses on the history of underground neo fascist networks in the post World War II era neo fascist paramilitary and terrorist groups operating in Europe and Latin America in the 1960s and 1970s and the manipulation of those and other terrorist organizations by the security forces of various states both authoritarian and democratic A range of global case studies are included all of which focus on the lesser known activities of certain secular extremist milieus This collection should prove to be essential reading for students and researchers interested in understanding seemingly arcane but nonetheless important dimensions of recent historical and contemporary politics

Who Bombed the Hilton? Rachel Landers, 2016-04-01 I unpick and put in chronological order thousands of pieces of paper lay out the facts as they arrived the first time unadorned uninterpreted flying in from dozens of sources and every corner of the world What really went on Were the police corrupt Did the conspiracy theorists believe what they wanted to believe Who did bomb the Hilton On 13 February 1978 a bomb exploded outside the Hilton Hotel in George Street Sydney Two garbage collectors and a police officer were killed Often called the first act of terrorist murder on Australian soil the crime is still unsolved Award winning filmmaker and historian Rachel Landers wrestles with the evidence to unravel this complex cold case in forensic detail exposing corruption conspiracy theories and political intrigue and a prime suspect Rachel Landers Who Bombed the Hilton is a terrifying tale written with sparkling good humour and panache Landers takes a tatty fractured saga of the horrific terrorist attack in the heart of Sydney and backed by remarkable research she brings it to life She makes of it a testament to the victims and the investigators as well as a warning to us in our own age of terror As we struggle with terrorism and with the danger of damaging our democracy by our measures to counter it we do well to remember this story of the one who got away Anna Funder Global Governance and the Quest for Justice - Volume

IV Roger Brownsword, 2005-01-10 This book one in the four volume set Global Governance and the Quest for Justice focuses on human rights in the context of globalisation together with the principle of respect for human rights and human dignity viewed as one of the foundational commitments of a legitimate scheme of global governance The first part of the book deals with the ways in which globalisation impacts on established commitments to respect human rights When human rights are set against or alongside potentially competing priorities such as security or economy how well do they fare Does it make any difference whether human rights commitments are expressed in dedicated free standing instruments or incorporated as side constraints or collaterally in larger multi functional instruments In this light does it make sense to view a trade centred community such as the EU as a prospective regional model for human rights The second part of the book debates the coherence of a global order committed to respect for human rights and human dignity as one of its founding principles If globalisation aspires to export and spread respect for human rights the thrust of the papers in this volume is that it could do better that legitimate global governance demands that it does a great deal better and that lawyers face a considerable challenge in developing a coherent jurisprudence of fundamental values as the basis for a just global order Critical Debates on Counter-Terrorism Judicial Review Fergal F. Davis, Fiona de Londras, 2014-10-02 An examination of the debates regarding whether judicial review is an effective and appropriate way to regulate counter terrorism measures

Tomorrow Belongs to Us Nigel Copsey, Matthew Worley, 2017-12-14 This book traces the varied development of the far right in Britain from the formation of the National Front in 1967 to the present day Experts draw on a range of disciplinary and methodological perspectives to provide a rich and detailed account of the evolution of the various strands of the contemporary far right over the course of the last fifty years The book examines a broad range of subjects including Holocaust denial neo Nazi groupuscularity transnational activities ideology cultural engagement homosexuality gender and activist mobilisation It also includes a detailed literature review This book is essential reading for students of fascism racism and contemporary British cultural and political history Critical Criminology Russell Hogg, Kerry Carrington, 2013-01-11 Exploring the key issues and future prospects facing critical criminology this book brings together leading authorities in the field from the UK Australasia and the USA Trends in the Judiciary David Lowe, Dilip K. Das, 2015-02-06 The term judicial opinion can be a misnomer as rarely are judges true feelings on legal issues and the work they do made available to the public Judges are constrained when writing decisions to follow the law and leave personal commentary aside Through a series of revealing interviews this book gathers empirical data from judges and justices from different legal systems to provide a scintillating look at how they view their jobs and cope with difficult legal matters Interviews are conducted according to strict guidelines with a standardized format for consistency Each chapter begins by describing the region and its style of judicial governance This is followed by an interview with a judge or justice in the particular jurisdiction They discuss their careers personal judicial philosophies the problems and successes they've experienced and how theory influences practice in their jurisdiction Many also discuss transnational relations and several chapters include glossaries that explain unfamiliar terms and acronyms Each chapter concludes with the interviewer's assessment and observations This structure allows readers to easily compare the views of judges and to see the similarities the differences and the uniqueness of the different legal models and systems Trends in the Judiciary Interviews with Judges Across the Globe Volume Two is the seventh publication in the Interviews with Global Leaders in Policing Courts and Prisons series The broad based coverage of varying viewpoints in this text encourages a great breadth of understanding of global justice Radical Sydney Terence H. Irving, Terry Irving, Rowan J. Cahill, 2010 Sydney a beautiful international city with impressive buildings harbour side walkways public gardens cafes restaurants theatres and hotels This is the way Sydney is represented to its citizens and to the rest of the world But there has always been another Sydney not viewed so fondly by the city's rulers a radical part of Sydney The working class suburbs to the south and west of the city were large and explosive places of marginalised ideas bohemian neighbourhoods dissident politics and contentious action Through a series of snapshots Radical Sydney traces its development from The Rocks in the 1830s to the inner suburbs of the 1980s It includes a range of incidents people and places from freeing protestors in the anti conscription movement resident action movements in Kings Cross anarchists in Glebe to Gay Rights marches on Oxford Street and Black Power in Redfern

Trends in Legal Advocacy Jane Goodman-Delahunty, Dilip K. Das, 2017-01-06 A new installment of the series of Interviews with Global Leaders in Policing Courts and Prisons this book expands upon the criminal justice coverage of earlier volumes offering the voices of 14 lawyers from 13 diverse locales including countries in Africa North America South America Europe and the Asia Pacific region This book is intended for students and others focusing on law and legal studies policing psychology and law criminology justice studies public policy and for all those interested in the front lines of legal change around the world Featuring versatile chapters perfect for individual use or as part of a collection this volume offers a personal approach to the legal world for students and experienced professionals

Mixed Messages: Materiality, Textuality, Missions J. Scott, G. Griffiths, 2005-05-05 This collection of essays looks at missions their complicity in European colonialism and their postcolonial aftermath It examines the spread of Christianity ranging over the anthropological textual historical and geographical dimensions of mission enterprises with topics as diverse as the influence of mission printing and record keeping on traditional life in Africa to the role of missions in changing styles of dress in India Also uniquely the collection includes essays analyzing the role of proselytizing in Islam Hinduism and Buddhism as well as American liberal democratic capitalism The volume is interdisciplinary focusing on textual and material aspects of missions Like Griffiths earlier ground breaking books in postcolonial studies and Scott's well known interdisciplinary work on missions and postcolonial literatures this collection will be fascinating to scholars in postcolonial cultural and mission studies and be useful as a teaching tool as well Mixed Messages was listed among the 15 best books for 2005 in the Jan 2006 issue of The International Bulletin of Mission Studies

Law in Perspective Michael Head, Scott Mann, 2005 Encourages critical responsible and creative thinking about law as a system of ideas and as a social institution It explores the relationships between law logic and science examines the socio economic role of law and asks what role the legal system plays in alleviating or exacerbating contemporary social problems such as crime and punishment terrorism refugees and tort law reform
