

"Griffith knows golf well. More important, his writing is so vivid that even a nongolfer will be swept up for this breathless ride." —New York Times Book Review

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a large white golf ball sitting on a red tee. The ball is positioned in the center, and its surface is covered in dimples. Above the ball, a white egret is in flight, its wings spread and its long neck extended. The sky is a clear, bright blue. At the bottom of the image, there is a dark, silhouetted area representing grass or a golf course.
