Who's in the Game? Terri Toles Patkin, 2020-12-14 Some board games like Candy Land Chutes Ladders Clue Guess Who The Game of Life Monopoly Operation and Payday have popularity spanning generations But over time updates to games have created significantly different messages about personal identity and evolving social values Games offer representations of gender sexuality race ethnicity religion age ability and social class that reflect the status quo and respond to social change Using popular mass market games this rhetorical assessment explores board design game implements tokens markers 3 D elements and playing instructions This book argues the existence of board games as markers of an ever changing sociocultural framework exploring the nature of play and how games embody and extend societal themes and values

Maxwell's Demon and the Golden Apple Randall L. Schweller, 2014-05-01 Mixing myth entropy and Angry Birds Randall Schweller brings a novel perspective to international studies Just what exactly will follow the American century This is the question Randall L Schweller explores in his provocative assessment of international politics in the twenty first century Schweller considers the future of world politics correlating our reliance on technology and our multitasking distracted disorganized lives with a fragmenting world order He combines the Greek myth of the Golden Apple of Discord which explains the start of the Trojan War with a look at the second law of thermodynamics or entropy In the coming age Schweller writes disorder will reign supreme as the world succumbs to entropy an irreversible process of disorganization that governs the direction of all physical changes taking place in the universe Interweaving his theory of global disorder with issues on the world stage coupled with a disquisition on board games and the cell phone app Angry Birds Schweller's thesis yields astonishing insights Maxwell's Demon and the Golden Apple will appeal to leaders of multinational corporations and government programs as well as instructors of undergraduate courses in international relations
