Gross,2015-01-12 As insurgencies rage a burning question remains how should insurgents fight technologically superior state armies Commentators rarely ask this question because the catchphrase we fight by the rules but they don t is nearly axiomatic But truly are all forms of guerrilla warfare equally reprehensible Can we think cogently about just guerrilla warfare May guerrilla tactics such as laying improvised explosive devices IEDs assassinating informers using human shields seizing prisoners of war conducting cyber strikes against civilians manipulating the media looting resources or using nonviolence to provoke violence prove acceptable under the changing norms of contemporary warfare The short answer is yes but modern guerrilla warfare requires a great deal of qualification explanation and argumentation before it joins the repertoire of acceptable military behavior Not all insurgents fight justly but guerrilla tactics and strategies are also not always the heinous practices
