Spinners Gift:

Yarn Spinners Dymphna Cusack, Florence James, Miles Franklin, 2001 Love life writing and friendship are the intimate subjects of letters between three intelligent witty women who shared a passionate commitment to Australian literature These carefully selected letters tell a story that reads like a novel Their correspondence from the late 1920s to the mid 1950s reveals their public battles as well as their private ones Their personal conflicts are a microcosm of Australian society's struggles over the period

Sea Spinners Lu Hersey, 2024-12-14 Sirena is a sea spinner whose job is to keep her village in harmony with Ocean the spirit of the sea In return she is gifted sticky black fibres produced by ancient sea clams which she turns into gold thread using a secret process as old as time Everyone in the village has a magical protection charm embroidered from the golden thread that links them to Ocean But when a boat filled with armed men arrives in the harbour village life is turned upside down These men have come for one reason only to demand an entire cloth made from sea gold for their king Sirena knows this is impossible the shells can't produce that much fibre But if she doesn't do as the men ask they won't hesitate to kill every villager and raze the village to the ground Is there a way she can give these men what they want before they destroy everything and everyone she loves At heart Sea Spinners is the story of the origin of the golden fleece and the powerful young woman who weaves it

The Spinners Eden Phillpotts, 1918 The Spinners Eden Phillpotts, 2019-12-12 In Eden Phillpotts novel The Spinners readers are transported to the picturesque realm of rural England where the artistry of life intertwines with the elemental forces of nature This narrative unfolds with a rich tapestry of lyrical prose that captures the essence of the Devon countryside intricately depicting the lives of its inhabitants as they navigate the complexities of love ambition and the pressing weight of tradition Phillpotts keen observations and vivid imagery reflect the literary context of early 20th century realism drawing parallels to contemporaneous movements concerned with human experience and naturalism Eden Phillpotts a prolific writer and member of the English literary community was profoundly influenced by his Devon roots utilizing the serene yet tumultuous landscape as a backdrop for his exploration of human character His diverse career as a playwright novelist and poet informs the depth and authenticity of his prose showcasing his ability to weave profound psychological insight with an appreciation for the physical world's beauty This personal connection to place and experience enriches the narrative providing an intimate portrayal of his protagonists struggles The Spinners is highly recommended for readers seeking a contemplative exploration of human relationships against the enchanting backdrop of nature Its rich character development and emotional resonance make it an essential read for enthusiasts of English literary heritage and those who find solace in the intertwining of life and landscape

Arion's Lyre Benjamin Acosta-Hughes, 2010-01-04 Arion's Lyre examines how Hellenistic poetic culture adapted reinterpreted and transformed Archaic Greek lyric through a complex process of textual cultural and creative reception Looking at the ways in which the poetry of Sappho Alcaeus Ibycus Anacreon and Simonides was preserved edited and read by Hellenistic scholars and poets the book shows that Archaic poets often look very different in the new social cultural and political setting of Hellenistic Alexandria For example the Alexandrian Sappho evolves from the singer of Archaic Lesbos but has distinct associations and contexts from Ptolemaic politics and Macedonian queens to the new phenomenon of the poetry book and an Alexandrian scholarship intent on preservation and codification A study of Hellenistic poetic culture and an interpretation of some of the

Archaic poets it so lovingly preserved Arion's Lyre is also an examination of how one poetic culture reads another and how modern readings of ancient poetry are filtered and shaped by earlier readings
