and leadership to illustrate the processes that enhance sustain or detract from the female condition This book will be a critical resource for academics development experts and policy analysts Bodies of Knowledge Efua Prah,Susan Levine,2021-12-01 Spanning the countries of South Africa Swaziland and Ghana this collection of work brings into focus child and youth experience together as a collage of anthropology creative writing poetry and the fine arts Woven together by questions related to the political economy of child and youth well being identity formation and the multiple layers through which children articulate their health narrative Bodies of Knowledge considers living in and coping with chronic illness spirit possession and death The growth in Critical Health Humanities and the Arts globally suggests the desire for blended efforts to draw in a wider breadth of knowledge that cuts across the divided worlds of critical social science and the arts This book set in an African context offers myriad possibilities for cross disciplinary synergies as learning sites It is a critical contribution to the field of children and childhood studies The Trauma of Racism Alisha Moreland-Capuia,2021-05-31 This book provides in depth analysis of the historical philosophical anthropological political and neurobiological reinforcements of fear and the role of fear on fear interactions in the construction and maintenance of systems This text will help systems appreciate the profound pervasive and deleterious role fear has played in the establishment of laws policies and practices and explore what systems can do to reduce fear and prioritize safety and healing Right now we are dealing with hard truths human suffering runs deep and is universal trauma is ubiquitous and widespread racism is real and has profound psychological physical political social and economic implications and the world is hurting and needs healing Many are curious about where and when healing will commence who will facilitate it and what it will look and feel like Healing comes in this order safety truth and then reconciliation When we know better we can or should certainly do better This book offers a framework for how to effectively begin to deconstruct systemic fear prioritize safety reduce needless suffering and move toward optimal healing and sustained change Ethnologia Europaea Vol. 34:2 Gösta Arvastson,Tim Butler,2004 Ethnologia Europaea has set itself the task of breaking down not only the barriers which divide research into Europe from general ethnology but also the barriers between the various national schools within the continent With this manifesto Ethnologia Europaea was started in 1969 Since then it has acquired a central position in the international co operation between ethnologists in the various European countries in the East as well as in the West It is however a journal of topical interest not only for ethnologists but also for anthropologists social historians and others studying the social and cultural forms of everyday life in recent and historical European societies Multicultures and Cities Gösta Arvastson,Tim Butler,2006 In the planning of city development it is important that different groups should be able to live in peaceful coexistence This is how the concept multicultural came about During the 1970s multiculturalism was developed into a model of political democracy a strategy for society s rapid change The term multiculturalism suggests that contemporary urban cultures somehow co exist in a condition of mutual respect and possible equality The new multiculturalism seems very different from the migration that took place in the 1960s and 1970s The essays in this collection address the general themes of ethnicity and contemporary European urbanism in many different ways examining a wide variety of cities and city pairings The common bond in these writings is the impact that a contemporary merging of ethnicity and culture is having on the new urbanity that is now widely accepted as driving the new Europe The effect is far greater than might be predicted from the relative social powerlessness of many of the bearers of these cultures At the same time existing urban processes continue to ensure the marginality of these groups
