Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel,United States Board on Books for Young People,2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography organized geographically by world region and country describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries is a valuable resource for librarians teachers and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children s literature It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People The first Carl M Tomlinson s Children s Books from Other Countries 1998 is a compendium of international children s literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996 Susan Stan s The World Through Children s

Books 2002 was the second and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000 Crossing Boundaries includes international children's books published between 2000 and 2004 as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity Religious Diversity and Children's Literature Connie R. Green, Sandra Brenneman Oldendorf, 2011-05-01 This book is an invaluable resource for enabling teachers religious educators and families to learn about religious diversity themselves and to teach children about both their own religion as well as the beliefs of others The traditions featured include indigenous beliefs throughout the world Native American spirituality Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity Orthodoxy Catholicism and Protestantism Islam Sikhism and other beliefs such as Bah Unitarian Universalism Humanism and Atheism Each chapter highlights a specific religion or spiritual tradition with a brief discussion about major beliefs misconceptions sacred texts and holy days or celebrations This summary of each tradition is followed by extensive annotated recommendations for children's and adolescent literature as well as suggested teaching strategies The recommended literature includes informational books traditional religious stories and fiction with religious themes Teachers religious educators and family members will find the literature from these genres to be invaluable tools for bridging the religious experience of the child with that of the global society in which they live

The Best in Children's Books University of Chicago. Center for Children's Books, 1986-08 Designed to aid adults parents teachers librarians in selecting from the best of recent children's literature this guide provides 1 400 reviews of books published between 1979 and 1984 This volume carries on the tradition established by Zena Sutherland's two earlier collections covering the periods from 1966 to 1972 and 1973 to 1978 Her 1973 edition of The Best in Children's Books was cited by the American School Board Journal as one of the outstanding books of the year in education Celebrating Cuentos Jamie Campbell Naidoo, 2010-11-18 More effectively meet the diverse literacy needs of the growing Latino population by learning how to evaluate and select quality Latino children's literature Latinos are the fastest growing and largest ethnic minority in the United States The number of Latino children is at a historic high As a result librarians and teachers in the United States must know how to meet the informational cultural and traditional literacy needs of this student demographic group An ideal way to overcome this challenge is by providing culturally accurate and authentic children's literature that represents the diversity of the Latino cultures Much more than simply a topical bibliography this book details both historical and current practices in educating Latino children explains why having quality Latino children's literature in classrooms and libraries is necessary for the ethnic identity development of Latino children and offers a historical overview of Latino children's literature in America Web resources of interest to educators working with Latino children are also included The Way of Jesus Christ Jürgen Moltmann, 1995-08-21 The Way of Jesus Christ discusses the following topics 1 The symbol of the way embodies the aspect of process and brings out christology's alignment towards its goal This symbol can comprehend Christ's way from his birth in the Spirit and his baptism in the Spirit to his self surrender on Golgotha It also makes it possible to understand the path of Christ as the way leading from his resurrection to his parousia the way he takes in the Spirit to Israel to the nations and into the breadth and depth of the cosmos 2 The symbol of the way makes us aware that every human christology is historically conditioned and limited Every human christology is a christology of the way not yet a christology of the home country a christology of faith not yet a christology of sight So christology is no more than the beginning of eschatology and eschatology as the Christian faith understands it is always the consummation of christology 3 Finally but not least important every way is an invitation A way is something to be followed The way of Jesus Christ is not merely a christological category It is an ethical category too Anyone who enters upon Christ's way will discover who Jesus really is and anyone who really believes in Jesus and the Christ of God will follow him along the way he himself took Christology and christopraxis find one another in the full and completed knowledge of Christ This christology links dogmatics and ethics in closer detail than in the previous volumes

A Hispanic Heritage Isabel Schon, 1988 A Spirit of Dialogue Christopher N. Okonkwo, 2008 A groundbreaking study A Spirit of Dialogue examines through extensive interdisciplinary research theory and close reading the intricate reconstructions extensions and resonances of the West African myth of spirit children the Born to Die in contemporary African American neo slave narratives Arguing that the myth called Ogba je in Igbo language and b k in Yoruba has had over thirty years of uncharted presence in African American literature Okonkwo advances a compelling case absent in extant scholarship He traces Ogba je the Born to Die's appearance in African American texts to a convergence of factors They include but are not limited to the impact of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart the 1960s emergence of the contemporary neo slave narrative the 1960s and 1970s black consciousness Black Power movement and the cultural agenda gendered politics and centripetal philosophy of the Black Arts movement's nationalist aesthetic African American identity questions of the post civil rights and the multicultural eras and the thematic shifts as well as the African diaspora orientation of African American fiction of the post nationalist aesthetic period A Spirit of Dialogue focuses on the sometimes neglected and understudied works of four canonical African American writers Octavia E Butler's Wild Seed and Mind of My Mind Tananarive Due's The Between John Edgar Wideman's The Cattle Killing and Toni Morrison's Sula and Beloved Okonkwo demonstrates persuasively how the mythic spirit child informs the content and form of these novels offering Butler Due Wideman and Morrison a non occidental code by which to engage collectively with the various issues integral to the history experience of African descended people The paradigm functions then as the nexus of a life affirmative dialogue among the six novels as well as between them and other works of African religious and literary imagination particularly Things Fall Apart and Ben Okri's The Famished Road
