Losing Our Heads Regina Janes,2005-08 Losing Our Heads explores in both artistic and cultural contexts the role of the chopped off head The Jaguar Within Rebecca R. Stone,2012-09-21 An important new way of viewing the prehistoric art of the Americas The Jaguar Within demonstrates that understanding a work of art's connection with shamanic trance can lead to an appreciation of it as an extremely creative solution to the inherent challenge of giving material form to nonmaterial realities and states of being Shamanism the practice of entering a trance state to experience visions of a reality beyond the ordinary and to gain esoteric knowledge has been an important part of life for indigenous societies throughout the Americas from prehistoric times until the present Much has been written about shamanism in both scholarly and popular literature but few authors have linked it to another significant visual realm art In this pioneering study Rebecca R Stone considers how deep familiarity with and profound respect for the extra ordinary visionary experiences of shamanism profoundly affected the artistic output of indigenous cultures in Central and South America before the European invasions of the sixteenth century Using ethnographic accounts of shamanic trance experiences Stone defines a core set of trance vision characteristics including enhanced senses ego dissolution bodily distortions flying spinning and undulating sensations synaesthesia and physical transformation from the human self into animal and other states of being Stone then traces these visionary characteristics in ancient artworks from Costa Rica and Peru She makes a convincing case that these works especially those of the Moche depict shamans in a trance state or else convey the perceptual experience of visions by creating deliberately chaotic and distorted conglomerations of partial inverted and incoherent images

Nourishment for the Spiritual Pilgrimage Vernon T. Jones, 2017-02-16 In the morning while it was still very dark he got up and went out to a deserted place and there he prayed Mark 1:35 Jesus taught by his words and actions He went by himself to pray when he was tired when faced with upcoming trying events or when he just wanted to be alone in the presence of his Lord He gave us guidance about what to pray how to pray and why to pray and was very familiar with the Hebrew Scriptures Thus if we want to become Jesus disciple we should follow his model and invest time and emotional energy into prayer Bible study and reflection Nourishment For The Spiritual Pilgrimage provides an aid for those who want to participate in the spiritual pilgrimage of becoming a lifelong
