Ladies' Home Companion, 1926 No Destination Satish Kumar, 2014-11-06 The fascinating life story of Satish Kumar, monk, peace activist, pilgrim and ecological campaigner. When he was only nine years old, Satish Kumar renounced the world and joined the wandering brotherhood of Jain monks. Dissuaded from this path by an inner voice, at the age of eighteen he became a campaigner for land reform, working to turn Gandhi's vision of a renewed India into reality. Fired by the example of Bertrand Russell, he undertook a peace pilgrimage walking from India to America without any money, through mountains, deserts, storms and snow. It was an adventure during which he was thrown into jail in France, faced a loaded gun in America and delivered packets of peace tea to the leaders of the four nuclear powers. He settled in England, taking on the editorship of Resurgence magazine and becoming the guiding light behind a number of ecological, spiritual and educational ventures, including Schumacher College. This edition of Satish Kumar's inspirational autobiography commemorates the foundation of Schumacher College with new chapters about the college and bringing Satish's story up to date. Following Indian tradition, in his fiftieth year he undertook another pilgrimage, again without any money, he walked to the holy places of Britain: Glastonbury, Lindisfarne and Iona. Written with a penetrating simplicity, No Destination is an exhilarating account of an extraordinary life.

Everyday Youth Cultures in the Gulf Peninsula Emanuela Buscemi, Ildiko Kaposi, 2020-11-29 Focusing on the struggles of youth in the Arabian Gulf to find their place in their encounters with modernity. Everyday Youth Cultures in the Gulf Peninsula explores how global forces are reshaping everyday cultural experiences in authoritarian societies. A deeper understanding of Gulf youth emerges from reading about the everyday lives and struggles, opportunities and contributions of youth who in the process of developing their personal identities are also incrementally transforming their societies and cultures. Based on ethnographic fieldwork in Kuwait, Oman, Saudi Arabia, the UAE and Qatar, the chapters bring fresh insight into Gulf youth microcultures from the ground and invite dialogue by engaging young local and foreign academics in the discussion. In light of the general difficulties of accessing Gulf societies, the book's nuanced, richly detailed depictions of everyday life can be of interest to academic research in Middle East studies, youth sociology, political science and anthropology, as well as to business and governmental decision making.

A Conspiracy of Love, Second Edition Kurt Struckmeyer, 2024-12-10

Before there were worshipers of Jesus, there were followers of Jesus. Before there were organized churches with creeds and doctrines, there were small communities of love, equality and sharing dedicated to the practice of Jesus' teachings and committed to a wholly new way of living. Today, the churches of the Global North are in decline, and younger generations no longer seek meaning there. Traditional church Christianity is gradually giving way to some new way of faithful living. From a Nazi prison cell, German pastor Dietrich Bonhoeffer imagined a future religionless Christianity consisting of contemplative prayer and righteous action in the secular world. A Conspiracy of Love presents the contours of such a faith based on the Way of Jesus. It calls us to become troublemakers, revolutionaries, seekers of change and agents of transformation, engaged in conspiracies of love to establish justice and peace in our postmodern world. It offers many different people: those who remain in the church, those who have left, and those who have never ventured near with a life of faith that is meaningful, intelligent and passionate.
