Spirit Filled Trauma:

The Spirit-filled Trauma Robert Lee Hamblin, 1974 Trauma and the Spirit John Mullaney, 2005-12-21 The earth has a hole in its ozone The atmosphere is not protecting the earth from the penetrating and harmful ultraviolet rays Things are heating up and nature is hurting It abounds with problems Abnormal and changing weather patterns along with violent storms are commonplace The planet is rocking with earthquakes We are committing planetary suicide with deforestation and pollution and mother earth is letting us know This same condition exists in the spiritual dimension There is a direct correlation between the physical and the spiritual What is happening on earth is merely a reflection of the condition of the soul of mankind For what happens in the physical originates from the spiritual In the beginning was the Word The soul of mankind is being assaulted by the forces and pressures of contemporary life There are all kinds of spiritual problems such as fear depression and anxieties Change can be traumatizing and we are living in traumatic times It seems that the soul of mankind could be changing Understanding the nature of trauma would seem prudent Trauma and Coping Mechanisms among Assemblies of God World Missionaries Valerie A. Rance, 2021-12-21 Trauma from the fall of Adam and Eve forward impacts human lives in overpowering ways A review of the lives of biblical personalities and missionaries reveals shared traumatic experiences In addition to the stress of cultural adjustment missionaries often live in contexts of violence political unrest economic instability natural disasters and relational conflict The examined biblical personalities faced similar issues yet a majority coped with trauma in ways that led to well being The proposed biblical theory of well being assists missionaries to move deeper in their trust of God by utilizing the coping skills of the biblical personalities including asking God for help lifting up their praise and worship to God standing on a sense of call working with God lamenting venting to God in healthy ways embracing a theology of suffering and accepting assistance from friends and family The adherence to the constructs of this theory protects missionaries from the ravages of psychological trauma by avoiding negative coping and developing positive coping skills that lead to trusting in the only One who gives hope in seemingly hopeless situations

Werdel,2023-10-24 The Paradox of Trauma and Growth in Pastoral and Spiritual Care Night Blooming introduces and bridges the gap between the psychological and spiritual perspectives and responses in trauma work illuminating the complexity of the human phenomenon of growth though suffering that is too easily misunderstood in the context of pastoral and spiritual care Through the hopeful metaphor of night bloomers rare plants that grow because of light but bloom in the darkness it is suggested that while psychological trauma is inherently negative and suffering creates a spiritual inner night moving through it may reveal a new complex reality of the human experience not previously understood We may see ourselves others or the world in a way that is stronger wiser deeper or more brilliant than we had known before The book presents the goal of pastoral and spiritual work is not to extinguish darkness Nor is it to solely focus on the light The work is to learn how to stay awake through the night without glorifying it Such a task is far easier when we believe there might be a rare and uniquely beautiful bloom to stay awake for and that witnessing such a bloom could have great consequences for living a meaningful life Inviting the Spirit of Play to Transform Trauma Monica C.
