Hawaiian Tales of Heroes and Champions Vivian L. Thompson,1986-06-01 Once in Old Hawaii in the days when anything was possible supernatural kupua roamed the islands challenging kings and chiefs tricking men women and boys The Hawaiian people would tell and retell tales of kupua exploits and of the men who challenged them Some of the tall tales included in this volume are of shape shifters like Shark Man of Ewa who could change from man to shark from shark to rat from rat to a bunch of bananas Others are of kupua with extraordinary powers like Kana who could stretch himself as tall as a palm tree as slender as a bamboo as thin as a morning glory vine as fine as a spider web And there are men with rare and special weapons such as Ka ui lani whose talking spear could pick the winner of a cock fight before the birds were even in the ring As in all tales told by word of mouth change and exaggeration crept in and perhaps this is how the kupua tale developed through exaggeration That they have survived and continue to entertain in present day written form is an indication of their universal appeal been heard and answered You will have an assignment a purpose to fulfill But first you must complete your training So my question was what training do I have to do You will have to give God something to work with because God loves a champion
