The Undead Child in Popular Culture Craig Martin, Debbie Olson, 2024-08-07 In this study of representations of children and childhood a global team of authors explores the theme of undeadness as it applies to cultural constructions of the child Moving beyond conventional depictions of the undead in popular culture as living dead monsters of horror and mad science that transgress the borders between life and death rejuvenation and decay the authors present undeadness as a broader concept that explores how people objects customs and ideas deemed lost or consigned to the past might endure in the present The chapters examine nostalgic texts that explore past incarnations of childhood mementos of childhood zombie children spectral children images and artefacts of deceased children as well as states of arrested development and the inability or refusal to embrace adulthood Expanding undeadness beyond the realm of horror and extending its meaning conceptually while acknowledging its roots in the genre the book explores attempts at countering the transitory nature of childhoods This unique and insightful volume will interest scholars and students working on popular culture and cultural studies media studies film and television studies childhood studies gender studies and philosophy

Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home Dr Peter Hughes Jachimiak, 2014-07-28 Using an innovative auto ethnographic approach to investigate the otherness of the places that make up the childhood home and its neighbourhood in relation to memory derived and memory imbued cultural geographies Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home is concerned with childhood spaces and children s perspectives of those spaces and consequentially with the personalised locations that make up the childhood family home and its immediate surroundings such as the garden the street etc Whilst this book is primarily structured by the author s memories of living in his own Welsh childhood home during the 1970s that is the auto ethnographic framework it is as much about living anywhere amid the remembered cultural remnants of the past as it is immersing oneself in cultural geographies of the here and now As a result Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home is part of the ongoing pursuit by cultural geographers to provide a personal exploration of the pluralities of shared landscapes whereby such an engagement with space and place aid our construction of cognitive maps of meaning that in turn manifest themselves as both individual and collective cultural experiences Furthermore touching upon our co habiting of ghost topologies Remembering the Cultural Geographies of a Childhood Home also encourages a critical exploration of children s spirituality amid the haunted cultural and geographical slave narrative the 1960s and 1970s black consciousness Black Power movement and the cultural agenda gendered politics and centripetal philosophy of the Black Arts movement s nationalist aesthetic African American identity questions of the post civil rights and the multicultural eras and the thematic shifts as well as the African diaspora orientation of African American fiction of the post nationalist aesthetic period A Spirit of Dialogue focuses on the sometimes neglected and understudied works of four canonical African American writers Octavia E Butler s Wild Seed and Mind of My Mind Tananarive Due s The Between John Edgar Wideman s The Cattle Killing and Toni Morrison s Sula and Beloved Okonkwo demonstrates persuasively how the mythic spirit child informs the content and form of these novels offering Butler Due Wideman and Morrison a non occidental code by which to engage collectively with the various issues integral to the history experience of African descended people The paradigm functions then as the nexus of a life affirmative dialogue among the six novels as well as between them and other works of African religious and literary imagination particularly Things Fall Apart and Ben Okri s The Famished Road

many religious groups in which women are both leaders and the majority of participants How are these women's religions different from those dominated by men What can we learn from them about the special ways in which women experience their unique reality In this fascinating and pathbreaking work the first comparative study of women's religions Susan Starr Sered seeks answers to these compelling questions Looking for common threads linking groups as diverse as the ancestral cults of the Black Caribs of Belize Korean shamanism Christian Science and the Feminist Spirituality movement Sered finds that motherhood and motherly concerns play a vital role in these female dominated groups Nurturing and concern for others are at the center as are healing arts and ways of dealing with illness and the death of children Religion not only enables women to find sacred meaning in their daily lives from the preparation of food to caring for their families but also offers intense and personal relationships with deities and spirits often through ecstatic possession trance as well as opportunities to celebrate and mourn with other women By examining the shared experiences of women across great cultural divides Priestess Mother Sacred Sister offers a new understanding of the role gender plays in determining how individuals grapple with the ultimate questions of existence In the process it not only highlights the profound differences between men and women but the equally important ways in which we are all alike
