Gellner, Sondra L. Hausner, Chiara Letizia, 2020-01-01 The socio political landscape of Nepal has been rocked by dramatic and far reaching changes in the past thirty years Following a ten year Maoist revolution and civil war the country has transitioned from a monarchy to a republic

The former Hindu kingdom has declared its commitment to secularism without coming to any agreement on what secularism means or should mean in the Nepalese context. What happens to religion under conditions of such rapid social and political change? How do the changes in public festivals reflect and/or create new group identities? Is the gap between the urban and the rural narrowing? How is the state dealing with Nepal's multicultural and multi-religious society? How are Nepalis understanding, resisting and adapting ideas of secularism? In order to answer these important questions, this volume brings together eleven case studies by an international team of anthropologists and ethno-historians of Nepal on such diverse topics as secularism, individualism, shamanism, animal sacrifice, the role of state functionaries in festivals, clashes and synergies between Maoism and Buddhism, and conversion to Christianity. In an Afterword, renowned political theorist Rajeev Bhargava presents a comparative analysis of Nepal's experiences and asks whether the country is finding its own solution to the conundrum of secularism.

Landscape, Ritual and Identity among the Hyolmo of Nepal Davide Torri, 2020-03-20

This book analyses the social, political and religious life of the Hyolmo people of Nepal. Highlighting patterns of change and adaptation, it addresses the Shamanic-Buddhist interface that exists in the animated landscape of the Himalayas. Opening with an analysis of the ethnic revival of Nepal, the book first considers the Himalayan religious landscape and its people. Specific attention is then given to Helambu, home of the Hyolmo people within the framework of Tibetan Buddhism. The discussion then turns to the persisting shamanic tradition of the region and the ritual dynamics of Hyolmo culture. The book concludes by considering broader questions of Hyolmo identity in the Nepalese context, as well as reflecting on the interconnection of landscape, ritual and identity. Offering a unique insight into a fascinating Himalayan culture and its formation, this book will be of great interest to scholars of indigenous peoples and religion, across religious studies, Buddhist studies, cultural anthropology and South Asian studies.

This two-volume reference is the first international survey of shamanistic beliefs from prehistory to the present day. In nearly 200 detailed, readable entries, leading ethnographers, psychologists, archaeologists, historians and scholars of religion and folk literature explain the general principles of shamanism as well as the details of widely varied practices. What is it like to be a shaman? Entries describe region by region the traits such as sicknesses and dreams that mark a person as a shaman, as well as the training undertaken by initiates. They detail the costumes, music, rituals, artifacts and drugs that shamans use to achieve altered states of consciousness, communicate with spirits, travel in the spirit world and retrieve souls.
