Spiritual Connections The Journey Of Discipleship And Christian Values:

Spiritual Connections Brian P. Hall, 2006-08-01 In Spiritual Connections The Journey of Discipleship and Christian Values psychologist priest Brian P Hall shares his own discernment of God's will in order to instruct others about their own personal discernment of Jesus' call to discipleship. In easily read though highly focused form he instructs the reader on practical skills basic to making faith, hope and love vital. Here is a map of the landscape of discipleship as mediated by the values which energize our lives. The thoughtful reader will come away with a deeper sense of his or her own values, how these reflect and express one's personal relationship with Jesus, and from an empirical research point of view how elegantly these values make sense of our being called forth into all that God intends us to become. James B Ashbrook author of Minding the Soul Pastoral Counseling As Remembering. Dr Brian P Hall is Professor Emeritus of Pastoral Counseling at Santa Clara University and an ordained Episcopal priest. He is also chairman of Values Technology, an organization committed to training religious and corporate leaders in values theory and its application in order to bring about changes that result in a more caring, interdependent society worldwide.

Prison Ministry Dennis W. Pierce, 2014-01-02 Show the incarcerated how to find forgiveness in unforgiving surroundings. As the prison population in the United States increases by more than 1,000 inmates each week, prison ministry programs must have a working blueprint for dealing with the shame, humiliation, hate, and loneliness of incarceration at both the adult correctional and juvenile detention/probation levels. Prison Ministry: Hope Behind the Wall demonstrates how a ministry can adapt Latin American Liberation theology to address oppression and bring prisoners into the community of Christ. Author Dennis Pierce, former chaplain at the Joliet Correctional Center in Illinois where the Fox Network's 2005 Prison Break series is filmed, presents a functioning approach to forgiveness and reconciliation combining pastoral counseling, Christian education, Bible studies, and worship to help inmates develop self-esteem and an overall feeling of self-worth through compassion and empathy. Prison Ministry: Hope Behind the Wall provides an alternative resource on our prison system for chaplains, pastors, priests, and students working in theology, ethics, or counseling. Instead of the usual descriptive narratives of inmates' lives or discussions of statistical approaches, this unique book combines a theological model with a viable programmatic approach to confront the oppression of incarceration and reverse its effects. The book looks at the vital issues facing juveniles in the criminal justice system: the transition from county jail to a correctional facility, victimization, rejection, under stimulation, homosexual rape, and examines the creation of non-threatening niches to address coping structures needed to move toward forgiveness and reconciliation. Prison Ministry: Hope Behind the Wall examines meeting the incarcerated, defining prison's emotional ethos, dealing with human breakdowns, oppression in maximum security, prison components of empowerment needed for prison ministry. Prison Ministry: Hope Behind the Wall also includes case studies of four inmates, an extensive bibliography, a glossary of prison terms, sample Bible studies, and sermon topics. The book is invaluable for anyone dealing with incarcerated youth and young adults in civilian or and factors discussed in missiology are reshaping the meaning of mission Christian mission today is searching for new directions to approach the postmodern postcolonial and ecumenical paradigms This book argues that mission is the process of embodying the content and praxis of the gospel not the transmission of knowledge that keeps an established structure and culture alive often justified by a specific ecclesiological model Thus mission initiates a transformative process of faith which leads to personal and social transformation This work brings into dialogue Stephen Bevans's notion of mission as prophetic dialogue and Paulo Freire's concept of conscientization The aim is not to discover a method to do mission but to rescue the process that leads to transformation allowing one to encounter the other where they are while respecting the uniqueness of every person culture church and society Prophetic dialogue enriched by conscientization and vice versa can open new perspectives within missiology and provide a new approach to mission praxis This approach is then analyzed through the experiential and transformative elements of the Verbum Dei charism applied in ministry demonstrating the effectiveness of prophetic dialogue and conscientization in the Verbum Dei Missionary Fraternity mission praxis Unlocking
