Spiritual Direction In The Early Christian East:

Spiritual Direction in the Early Christian East Irénée Hausherr, 1990 In a day when psychological counseling sometimes passes as spiritual direction this book reminds us that early Christians like Eastern Christians still today were convinced that only someone with long and deep experience in prayer and discipline can dare to lead others along the way to God

Spiritual Direction in the Early Christian East Irénée Hausherr, 1990      The Encyclopededia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch, Geoffrey William Bromiley, 1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth

Encyclopedia of Early Christianity Everett Ferguson, 2013-10-08 First published in 1997 What's new in the Second Edition Some 250 new entries twenty five percent more than in the first edition plus twenty five new expert contributors Bibliographies are greatly expanded and updated throughout More focus on biblical books and philosophical schools their influence on early Christianity and their use by patristic writers More information about the Jewish and pagan environment of early Christianity Greatly enlarged coverage of the eastern expansion of the faith throughout Asia including persons and literature More extensive treatment of saints monasticism worship practices and modern scholars Greater emphasis on social history and more theme articles More illustrations maps and plans Additional articles on geographical regions Expanded chronological table Also includes maps

Educating People of Faith John H. Van Engen, 2004 A much needed addition to the emerging literature on the formative power of religious practices Educating People of Faith creates a vivid portrait of the lived practices that shaped the faith of Jews and Christians in synagogues and churches from antiquity up to the seventeenth century This significant book is the work of Jewish Roman Catholic Orthodox and Protestant scholars who wished to discover and describe how Jews and Christians through history have been formed in religious ways of thinking and acting Rather than focusing solely on either intellectual or social life the authors all use the concept of practices as they attend to the embodied contextual character of religious formation Their studies of religious figures community life and traditional practices such as preaching sacraments and catechesis are colorful detailed and revealing The authors are also careful to cover the nature of religious education across all social levels from the textual formation of highly literate rabbis and monks engaged in Scripture study to the local formation of illiterate medieval Christians for whom the veneration of saints shrines street performances of religious dramas and public preaching by wandering preachers were profoundly formative Educating People of Faith will benefit scholars and teachers desiring a fuller perspective on how lived practices have historically formed people in religious faith It will also be useful to practical theologians and pastors who wish to make the resources of the past available to practitioners in the present Contributors John C Cavadini Anne L Clark Lawrence S Cunningham Joseph Goering Robert Goldenberg Stanley Samuel Harakas Robert M Kingdon Blake Leyerle Michael A Signer Philip M Soergel David C Steinmetz John Van Engen Lee Palmer Wandel Robert Louis Wilken Elliot R Wolfson

Brother-Making in Late Antiquity and Byzantium

Claudia Rapp, 2016-01-13 Among medieval Christian societies Byzantium is unique in preserving an ecclesiastical ritual of adelphopoiesis which pronounces two men not related by birth as brothers for life. It has its origin as a spiritual blessing in the monastic world of late antiquity and it becomes a popular social networking strategy among lay people from the ninth century onwards even finding application in recent times. Located at the intersection of religion and society brother making exemplifies how social practice can become ritualized and subsequently subjected to attempts of ecclesiastical and legal control. Controversially adelphopoiesis was at the center of a modern debate about the existence of same sex unions in medieval Europe. This book the first ever comprehensive history of this unique feature of Byzantine life argues persuasively that the ecclesiastical ritual to bless a relationship between two men bears no resemblance to marriage. Wide ranging in its use of sources from a complete census of the manuscripts containing the ritual of adelphopoiesis to the literature and archaeology of early monasticism and from the works of hagiographers historiographers and legal experts in Byzantium to comparative material in the Latin West and the Slavic world Brother Making in Late Antiquity and Byzantium examines the fascinating religious and social features of the ritual shedding light on little known aspects of Byzantine society. Five Models of Spiritual Direction in the Early Church George E.

Demacopoulos, 2007-11-15 In late antiquity the rising number of ascetics who joined the priesthood faced a pastoral dilemma. Should they follow a traditional demonstrably administrative approach to pastoral care emphasizing doctrinal instruction the care of the poor and the celebration of the sacraments Or should they bring to the parish the ascetic models of spiritual direction characterized by a more personal spiritual father spiritual disciple relationship Five Models of Spiritual Direction in the Early Church explores the struggles of five clerics Athanasius Gregory Nazianzen Augustine of Hippo John Cassian and Pope Gregory I to reconcile their ascetic idealism with the reality of pastoral responsibility. Through a close reading of Greek and Latin texts George E Demacopoulos explores each pastor's criteria for ordination his supervision of subordinate clergy and his methods of spiritual direction. He argues that the evolution in spiritual direction that occurred during this period reflected and informed broader developments in religious practices. Demacopoulos describes the way in which these authors shaped the medieval pastoral traditions of the East and the West. Each of the five struggled to balance the tension between his ascetic idealism and the realities of the lay church. Each offered distinct and at times very different solutions to that tension. The diversity among their models of spiritual direction demonstrates both the complexity of the problem and the variable nature of early Christianity. Scholars and students of late antiquity the history of Christianity and historical theology will find a great deal of interest in Five Models of Spiritual Direction in the Early Church. The book will also appeal to those who are actively engaged in Christian ministry. Orthodoxy and Orthopraxis Douglas R. Cullum, J. Richard

College Rochester NY      Repentance in Late Antiquity Alexis Torrance, 2013 This study provides a fresh perspective on the concept of repentance in early Christianity Alexis Torrance focuses on writings by several ascetic theologians of the fifth to seventh centuries and also examines texts from Scripture early Christian treatises and homilies apocalyptic material and canonical literature      A Handbook of Theology Dr. Daniel L. Akin, David S. Dockery, Nathan A. Finn, Christopher W. Morgan, 2023-04-01 In A Handbook of Theology editors Daniel Akin David Dockery and Nathan Finn select nearly fifty contributors in the Baptist and evangelical heritage to lay a biblically informed foundation of a Christian theology for students pastors and church leaders This volume surveys six parts of theology foundations Part 1 types of theology Part 2 history and geography Part 3 Christian doctrine Part 4 the Christian life Part 5 and theology and culture Part 6 Each author centers their theological topics in the Scriptures while also being Trinitarian Christ centered Spirit enabled and mission focused The Theology for the People of God series is edited by David S Dockery Nathan A Finn and Christopher W Morgan

The Orthodox Understanding of Salvation Christopher Veniamin, 2023-07-20 The Orthodox Understanding of Salvation brings together some of Dr Veniamin s talks and articles hitherto available in relatively little known theological journals and periodicals which pertain to the fundamental question of the purpose of human existence to Salvation as understood in the age old and unbroken tradition of the Orthodox Christian Faith the faith of the Patriarchs Prophets Apostles Martyrs and Saints of our Lord God and Saviour Jesus Christ Dr Christopher Veniamin is a spiritual child of St Sophrony the Athonite 1896 1993 a graduate of the Universities of Thessalonica and Oxford has served as Professor of Patristics at St Tikhon s Seminary 1994 2023 and as Dean and COO of The Antiochian House of Studies 2015 2020 He is also the author of The Orthodox Understanding of Salvation Theosis in Scripture and Tradition and The Transfiguration of Christ in Greek Patristic Literature From Irenaeus of Lyons to Gregory Palamas With Addendum The Transfiguration of Christ in the Spiritual Homilies of Macarius the Egyptian His translation Saint Gregory Palamas The Homilies for which he wrote a prodigious number of scholia is arguably the greatest single volume commentary on the Bible in Patristic literature      About the Beginning of the Hermeneutics of the Self Michel Foucault, 2015-12-29 In 1980 Michel Foucault began a vast project of research on the relationship between subjectivity and truth an examination of conscience confession and truth telling that would become a crucial feature of his life long work on the relationship between knowledge power and the self The lectures published here offer one of the clearest pathways into this project contrasting Greco Roman techniques of the self with those of early Christian monastic culture in order to uncover in the latter the historical origin of many of the features that still characterize the modern subject They are accompanied by a public discussion and debate as well as by an interview with Michael Bess all of which took place at the University of California Berkeley where Foucault delivered an earlier and slightly different version of these lectures Foucault analyzes the practices of self examination and confession in Greco Roman antiquity and in the first centuries of Christianity in order to highlight a radical transformation from the ancient Delphic principle of know thyself to the monastic precept of confess all of your thoughts to your spiritual guide His aim in doing so is to retrace the genealogy of the modern subject which is inextricably tied to the emergence of the hermeneutics of the self the necessity to explore one's own thoughts and feelings and to confess them to a spiritual director in early Christianity According to Foucault since some features of this Christian hermeneutics of the subject still determine our contemporary gnoseologic self then the genealogy of the modern subject is both an ethical and a political enterprise aiming to show that the self is nothing but the historical correlate of a series of technologies built into our history Thus from Foucault's perspective our main problem today is not to discover what the self is but to try to analyze and change these technologies in order to change its form Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault delivered a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that until recently remained almost unknown These lectures which focus on the role of avowal or confession in the determination of truth and justice provide the missing link between Foucault's early work on madness delinquency and sexuality and his later explorations of subjectivity in Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the twentieth century Foucault traces the early use of truth telling in ancient Greece and follows it through to practices of self examination in monastic times By the nineteenth century the avowal of wrongdoing was no longer sufficient to satisfy the call for justice there remained the question of who the criminal was and what formative factors contributed to his wrong doing The call for psychiatric expertise marked the birth of the discipline of psychiatry in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as well as its widespread recognition as the foundation of criminology and modern criminal justice Published here for the first time the 1981 lectures have been superbly translated by Stephen W Sawyer and expertly edited and extensively annotated by Fabienne Brion and Bernard E Harcourt They are accompanied by two contemporaneous interviews with Foucault in which he elaborates on a number of the key themes An essential companion to Discipline and Punish Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling will take its place as one of the most significant works of Foucault to appear in decades and will be necessary reading for all those interested in his thought Door of the

Wilderness: The Greek, Coptic, and Copto-Arabic Sayings of St. Antony of Egypt Elizabeth Agaiy, Tim Vivian, 2021-11-22 Saint Antony of Egypt c 251-356 often called the father of monasticism has numerous representations the Antony of the Life of Antony and the Letters but also the Antony of around 120 sayings or apophthegmata This volume presents fresh English translations of the Greek and Coptic sayings as well as the first English translation of the Copto-Arabic sayings that are based on unpublished manuscripts The volume thus opens the door to a richer image of Saint Antony's many identities across various languages and traditions The Sayings and Stories of the Desert Fathers and Mothers, 2021-03-15 The Sayings and Stories of the Desert Fathers and Mothers offers a new translation of the Greek alphabetical Apophthegmata Patrum The Sayings of the Desert Fathers For the first time in an English translation this volume provides extensive background and contextual notes significant variant readings in the alphabetical manuscripts and textual differences vis vis the systematic and anonymous Apophthegmata reference notes to both quotations from Scriptures and the many allusions to Scripture in the sayings and stories In addition there is an extensive glossary that offers information and further resources on people places and significant monastic vocabulary Perfect for students and enthusiasts of the desert tradition

The One and the Three Chrysostom Koutlounmousianos,2015-07-30 The One and the Three explores parallels between Byzantine and early Irish monastic traditions finding in both a markedly trinitarian theology founded on God's contemplation and ascetic experience Chrysostom Koutlounmousianos refutes modern theological theses that affect ecclesiology and contrasts current schools of theological thought with patristic theology and anthropology in order to approach the meaning and reality of unity and otherness within the Triadic Monad and the cosmos He explores such topics as the connection between nature and person the esoteric dimension of the Self the relation and dialectic of impersonal institutions and personal charisma and perennial monastic virtues as ways to unity in diversity

Becoming a New Self Moshe Sluhovsky,2017-10-12 In Becoming a New Self Moshe Sluhovsky examines the diffusion of spiritual practices among lay Catholics in early modern Europe By offering a close examination of early modern Catholic penitential and meditative techniques Sluhovsky makes the case that these practices promoted the idea of achieving a new self through the knowing of oneself Practices such as the examination of conscience general confession and spiritual exercises which until the 1400s had been restricted to monastic elites breached the walls of monasteries in the period that followed Thanks in large part to Franciscans and Jesuits lay urban elites both men and women gained access to spiritual practices whose goal was to enhance belief and create new selves Using Michel Foucault's writing on the hermeneutics of the self and the French philosopher's intuition that the early modern period was a moment of transition in the configurations of the self Sluhovsky offers a broad panorama of spiritual and devotional techniques of self formation and subjectivation

The Disciple's Handbook Fr. David L. Hall,2020-02-05 Twenty years ago God led me to the writings of the church fathers and then on a journey that changed my life I discovered the amazing spiritual depth throughout all the eras of the church and began to realize that I was settling for scraps when God had prepared a banquet This handbook was written as an aid to Christians from all traditions to help them hit the ground running to discover even greater depth and passion in their walk with Christ

Fifteenth-Century Carthusian Reform: The World of Nicholas Kempf Martin,2021-11-01 Fifteenth Century Carthusian Reform argues that monastic theology offers a medieval Catholic paradigm distinct from the scholastic theology that has been the conventional source for medieval oriented interpretations of Renaissance and Reformation It is based on thorough study of the manuscript record Nicholas Kempf ca 1415-1497 taught at the University of Vienna before becoming the head of Carthusian monasteries in rural Austria and Slovenia Faced with calls for reform in church and society he placed his confidence in the patristic Christian idea of reform the reform of the image of God in the human person This contemplative monastic idea of reform depended on authoritative structures especially the monastic rule and rational yet

divinely inspired discernment by a spiritual director What seemed like simpleminded submission to monastic structures was actually a way to avoid relying on human effort for salvation By returning to one's true self the image of God one opened oneself up for genuine social relationships To activist reformers whether adherents of medieval scholasticism Renaissance humanism or modern Enlightenment this monastic idea of reform has seemed escapist backward looking and womanish Monks accepted these labels but read them as signs of hidden strength This book attempts to read through monastic lenses

Mystagogy Alexander Golitzin, 2014-01-09 Mystagogy: A Monastic Reading of Dionysius Areopagita proposes an interpretation of the Pseudo Dionysian corpus in light of the liturgical and ascetic tradition that defined the author and his audience Characterized by both striking originality and remarkable fidelity to the patristic and late neoplatonic traditions the Dionysian corpus is a coherent and unified structure whose core and pivot is the treatise known as the Ecclesiastical Hierarchy Given Pseudo Dionysius' fundamental continuity with earlier Christian theology and spirituality it is not surprising that the church and in particular the ascetic community recognized that this theological synthesis articulated its own fundamental experience and aspirations Alexander Golitzin is professor emeritus of patristics at Marquette University and a bishop in the Orthodox Church He specializes in the origins of Eastern Christian ascetical and mystical tradition He is the author of Et introibo ad altare Dei: The Mystagogy of Dionysius Areopagita (Patriarchal Institute St Symeon the New Theologian on the Mystical Life: The Ethical Discourses 3 vols St Vladimir's Seminary Press and New Light from the Holy Mountain St Tikhon's Seminary Press as well as several studies collected in The Theophaneia School: Jewish Roots of Christian Mysticism ed Andrei Orlov and Basil Lurie (Gorgias)
