classic study and allow it to change yours      Introduction to Biblical Interpretation (Foundations for Spirit-Filled Christianity) Jacqueline Grey, Paul W. Lewis, 2024-09-24 This introduction to biblical interpretation expands the interpretive task to encompass both comprehension of the Bible's content and active participation in God's redemptive plan. The authors help readers engage with the beauty of God's Word and read it holistically for their intellectual and spiritual growth. They address the nature of interpretation, emphasize the Holy Spirit's role in the production, interpretation, and application of the Bible as a communication of the triune God, and explore the Bible's genres and historical contexts through the lens of God's redemptive story. They also provide principles and accessible guidelines for biblical interpretation in global contexts, including a simple outline for beginning students to follow as they start interpreting and applying Scripture. Above all, the authors emphasize the transformative nature of reading Scripture. This series reflects the changing face of global Christianity. Series volumes highlight themes of interest to Pentecostal/Charismatic students; however, the books are respectful and inclusive of a variety of church traditions. Series editors are Jerry Ireland, Paul W. Lewis, and Frank D. Macchia.

Spiritual Life and the Word of God Emanuel Swedenborg, 2015-07-18 The most thorough and enlightening book ever written on the subject of the Ten Commandments. Spiritual life is a simple spiritual Christianity at the core of the teachings in the revelations of Emanuel Swedenborg from extracts of his larger work Apocalypse Explained. This work sums up the majority of the core of his teachings that is easy for anyone to understand, follow, and apply to one's life. Spiritual life is acquired solely by a life according to the commandments in the Word. These commandments are given in summary in the Decalogue, namely: Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet the goods of others. These commandments are the commandments that are to be done for when a man does these, his works are good, and his life is spiritual, and for the reason that so far as a man shuns evils and hates them, so far he wills and loves goods. The opening of the spiritual sense of the Word did come through a man who could not only receive the doctrines of spiritual life with the understanding but publish the same to the world by means of the printed page. Such a man was Emanuel Swedenborg. When he abandoned all other work to write the books which record and explain that which marks an epoch in both the natural and spiritual worlds, he avoided the use of his titles that had been given him for outward service to mankind and styled himself simply the servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. He devoted his life and money to bringing out his books in Latin, the language then in general use throughout the world. He placed copies in public libraries and gave some to his friends but never proselyted or tried to found a church. The church to him was the Lord's kingdom among men, and to it he left his work, a universal legacy. The truth received by men through him claims attention only because it is the truth, and to ignore it is as impossible as to ignore the laws of physics. It is through such a source that the Bible has now become an open book of instruction in spiritual life instead of an antiquated history. It is through such a work the results of which are accessible to all who would know them that every soul may have an invulnerable and enduring faith that the Word of God is divine truth, and
