Listening to God in Times of Choice Gordon T. Smith, 2009-09-20 All Christians yearn to live at the center of God s will But how to discern his will is an art that eludes many of us And the advice we get often conflicts Some tell us to look for a divine blueprint the one perfect plan for our lives that we need to find We are encouraged to search the Scriptures and hunt for signs trying to uncover the map of our lives that God has drawn Others have rejected the blueprint school of guidance for the wisdom school With minds renewed by the teaching of Scripture we are to develop the wisdom necessary to make wise choices We are told not to expect that there is just one answer to God s will for every decision we face Several may be possible The difficulty with both approaches writes Gordon Smith is that they minimize the presence and voice of God in times of choice Instead he argues for a third way He suggests that we develop discernment as a spiritual discipline By stressing the personal aspects of growing in our relationship with God we can understand his will not just in times of crisis but throughout our daily lives This book provides no magic formulas no recipes for guaranteed success just a lot of insight gleaned from centuries of lived Christian experience that will guide and encourage you in the art of discerning God s will Pentecostalism in Context

Wonsuk Ma,Robert P. Menzies,2008-01-04 Pentecostalism in Context is a collection of essays produced by Pentecostal scholars from North America Europe and Asia The essays produced in their various geographical and cultural contexts reflect the rich diversity that characterizes the Pentecostal movement Biblical theological and missiological issues relevant to the Pentecostal movement are treated The book thus represents a valuable resource for those seeking to understand better the key intellectual currents within this dynamic and influential movement The essays are offered in honor of William Menzies a leading Pentecostal scholar and Chancellor of Asia Pacific Theological Seminary Baguio City Philippines Professional

Care and Vocation Timothy W. Wineberg,2008-01-01 This book integrates the traditional understanding of a profession a calling to selfless service for the public good through the pursuit of a learned art with that of vocation work that offers a deep sense of personal fulfilment meaning and identity Professions are moral endeavours since they require vulnerable individuals to trust in the competence and integrity of someone who professes to care for them Currently most versions of professional ethics narrowly focus upon standards of conduct or upon ethical dilemmas Yet these are rarely compelling enough to change us they are not morally formative This volume takes a different tack to doing ethics It explicitly targets the moral development of educators This is crucial because as we develop our sensibilities of perception and qualities of character we can better interpret practice situations and respond fittingly Moreover this approach to ethics seeks to reconceptualize our professional obligation to embody it in more adequate metaphors and to revitalize its relational dimension In this view our task as educators is to seek out those relational metaphors images and narratives of practice which are profound enough to shape our self perceptions and to fund our moral formation This book explores five ethical spheres sacrifice community craft tradition and moral imagination and five respective pedagogical images which illuminate the nature of professional care servant moral friend mentor covenantor and moral companion When critically engaged and appropriated these rich metaphorical images provide clarity order and meaning to our perceptions and powerful imperatives for our own moral development How Long O Lord? Marine Tobin,2003-05-25 How Long O Lord The prophet s ancient cry for justice sounds as plaintively and passionately today as it ever has In this penetrating and provocative collection of essays Maurine and Robert Tobin have brought together a group of peacemakers Christian Jewish and Muslim whose religious convictions compel them towards a common aim a just peace for Israel Palestine Anyone looking for easy answers to one of the most complicated political and religious struggles on the globe will not find them here Instead the voices of these women and men challenge and confront many commonly held assumptions They disturb and unsettle comforting illusions of order and security and they unmask and name powers and principalities for what they are perpetrators of injustice and evil Those who pray with their Bibles in one hand and the newspaper in the other will find this book an invaluable aid in active prayer and engagement
