implications for the social integration of ethnic and religious minority communities Impressive in its scholarly analysis of a vibrant and challenging aspect of human societies the third edition will appeal strongly to students taking courses in the sociology of religion and religious studies as well as to everyone interested in the place of religion in the contemporary world

Religions of Modernity Stef Aupers, Dick Houtman, 2010-07-07 Religions of Modernity challenges the social scientific orthodoxy that once unleashed the modern forces of individualism science and technology inevitably erode the sacred and evoke the profane The book's chapters some by established scholars others by junior researchers document instead in rich empirical detail how modernity relocates the sacred to the deeper layers of the self and the domain of digital technology Rather than destroying the sacred tout court then the cultural logic of modernization spawns its own religious meanings unacknowledged spiritualities and magical enchantments The classical theoretical accounts of modernity by Max Weber Emile Durkheim and others it is argued in the introductory chapter already hinted that there's a future for such religions of modernity Contributors Stef Aupers Kelly Besecke Kirsten Marie Bovbjerg Siobhan Chandler Olav Hammer Dick Houtman Murray Lee Carly Machado Karen Perna Adam Possamai Linda Woodhead and Dorien Zandbergen

Religion beyond its Private Role in Modern Society Wim Hofstee, A. van der Kooij, 2013-09-12 The volume Religion beyond its Private Role in Modern Society aims at contributing to the debate on the distinction between public and private spheres with regard to the role of religion in modern societies This issue which is inherent to many conceptions regarding social order modernity freedom of conscience and the changing role and function of religion is discussed not only from a social scientific but also from a historical and philosophical point of view The articles dwell on several aspects of the role of religion in different societies in modern times and the overall theme is explored from the perspective of various religious traditions and groups both institutional and non institutional It turns out that the distinction made is difficult to maintain Contributors include Bart Labuschagne Linda Woodhead Niek Brunsveld Dick Douwes Mohammed Ghaly Heleen Murre van den Berg David Novak Alexandros Sakellariou Matthew Tennant Bruno Verbeek Ernestine G E van der Wall William Arfman Stef Aupers Jeroen Boekhoven Meerten B ter Borg and Kees de Groot

Christianity as Distinct Practices Jan-Olav Henriksen, 2019-01-10 Jan Olav Henriksen reconstructs and analyzes Christianity as a cluster of practices that manifest a distinct historically and contextually shaped mode of being in the world Henriksen suggests that these practices imply a complicated relationship between the tradition in which they originate the community that emerges from and is constituted by that tradition and the individuals who appropriate the tradition that these communities mediate through their practices Thus to think of Christianity simply in terms of belief is misleading and represents an underdetermination of its distinct character Henriksen further argues this relationship needs to be described primarily as practices aimed at orientation and transformation His analysis points to Christianity's similarity to other religions in regard to the functional or pragmatic dimensions it displays Examining facets such as prayer the use of scripture preaching and doctrine Henriksen emphasizes that the element that makes a practice distinctively Christian is how it relates to and is informed by the Jesus story

Transformation by Integration Perry Schmidt-Leukel, 2009 A number of people experience their own spiritual lives as being inspired by more than one religious tradition This title looks at a number of issues involved what it means theologically to move beyond tolerance towards a genuine appreciation of other religions and how multi religious identity can be assessed theologically

Contemporary Spiritualities Stefania Palmisano, Nicola Pannofino, 2020-11-01 Contemporary alternative spirituality as studied by sociologists is usually seen as a recent phenomenon dating from the 1960s and 1970s However when viewed from a longer term perspective this form of religious expression is actually seen to reintroduce concepts that recur throughout Western cultural history This book argues therefore that spirituality in the 21st Century actually shares many of the same characteristics as Classical Mediaeval Renaissance and Modern spiritualities It is neither entirely new nor is it clearly alternative to more established religions The book is divided into two parts The first sets out the context in which contemporary alternative spirituality has formed charting its development as an academic term and a social phenomenon The second part looks at how these two elements have developed in countries that are historically Catholic focussing on specific examples in contemporary Italy spiritualities based on the sacralisation of nature those concerned with health and wellbeing and those which are fascinated by mystery Catholic majority countries are particularly interesting in this instance as the Catholic Church has a unique cultural hegemony with which to compare alternative spiritual practices It concludes that spirituality if framed in a longer historical perspective is a way of acting and seeing the world which was built and continues to be built upon complex relations with various contradictory sources of authority such as religion magic thinking secularism rationalism various spheres of lay culture This is a bold take on the spirituality milieu and as such will be of great interest to scholars of Religious Studies working on the sociology of religion contemporary spirituality and the rise of the spiritual but not religious

The Gospel in the Western Context Gert-Jan Roest, 2018-10-02 In The Gospel in the Western Context Gert Jan Roest focuses on discerning a Western contextual gospel an endeavour that is very relevant to the current state of Christianity in the postmodern and post Christendom West After giving an in depth analysis and synthesis of how Hendrikus Berkhof and Colin Gunton read the Western context and contextualize their Christology he develops a gospel centred model for reading the context Meanwhile he makes a creative and much needed attempt to connect the two disciplines of systematic theology and missiology and convincingly shows that both disciplines cannot only enrich one another but also can give church practitioners insight and wisdom for their tasks
