Spiritualism In New Zealand:

Religions of the World J. Gordon Melton, Martin Baumann, 2010-09-21 This masterful six volume encyclopedia provides comprehensive global coverage of religion emphasizing larger religious communities without neglecting the world's smaller religious outposts Religions of the World Second Edition A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Beliefs and Practices is an extraordinary work bringing together the scholarship of some 225 experts from around the globe The encyclopedia's six volumes offer entries on every country of the world with particular emphasis on the larger nations as well as Indonesia and the Latin American countries that are traditionally given little attention in English language reference works Entries include profiles on religion in the world's smallest countries the Vatican and San Marino profiles on religion in recently established or disputed countries Kosovo and Nagorno Karabakh as well as profiles on religion in some of the world's most remote places Antarctica and Easter Island Religions of the World is unique in that it is based in religion on the ground tracing the development of each of the 16 major world religious traditions through its institutional expressions in the modern world its major geographical sites and its major celebrations Unlike other works the encyclopedia also covers the world of religious unbelief as expressed in atheism humanism and other traditions Nineteenth century miracles; or, Spirits and their work in every country of the earth Emma Hardinge Britten, 1883 Nineteenth century miracles E.H. Britten, 1884 Nineteenth century miracles or Spirits and their work in every country of the earth A complete historical compendium of the great movement known as modern spiritualism Islands of the Dawn Robert S. Ellwood, 1993-04-01 UFO cults the Order of the Golden Dawn Spiritualism and Theosophy are among the cults of the 19th and 20th centuries described by Ellwood religion U of Southern California He also delves into why such alternative religions tend to flourish in places settled by the British An appendix discusses The Spirit of Colin McCahon Zoe Alderton, 2015-02-27 The Spirit of Colin McCahon provides a vivid historical contextualisation of New Zealand's premier modern artist clearly explaining his esoteric religious themes and symbols Via a framework of visual rhetoric this book explores the social factors that formed McCahon's religious and environmental beliefs and justifications as to why his audience often missed the intended point of spiritual his discourse or chose to ignore it The Spirit of Colin McCahon tracks the intricate process by which the artist's body of work turned from optimism to misery and explains the many communicative techniques he employed in order to arrest suspicion towards his Christian prophecy More broadly The Spirit of Colin McCahon outlines a model of analysis for the intersection of art and religion and the place of images as rhetorical devices within Antipodean culture The emerging field of religion and visual culture is important not only to students of New Zealand art history but also to a growing field of appreciation for the communicative power of images This book provides a helpful model for examining art and literature as social and religious tools and advances the importance of visual rhetoric within studies of art and social expression New Zealand Medievalism Anna Czarnewus, Janet M. Wilson, 2024-04-30 This volume maps the phenomenon of medievalism in Aotearoa

initially as an import by the early white settler society and as a form of nation building that would reinforce Britishness and ancestral belonging This colonial narrative underpins the volume s focus on the imperial relationship in chapters on the academic study of the Middle Ages on medievalism in film and music in manuscript and book collections and colonial stained glass and architecture Through the alternative 21st century frameworks of a global Middle Ages and Aotearoa s bicultural nationalism the volume also introduces Maori understandings of the ancestral past that parallel the European epoch and at the opposite end of the spectrum the phenomenon of global right wing medievalism as evidenced in the Alt right extremism underpinning the Christchurch mosque attack of 2019 The 11 chapters trace the transcultural moves and networks that comprise the shift from the 20th century study of the Middle Ages as an historical period to manifestations of medievalism as the reception and interpretation of the medieval past in postmedieval times Collectively these are viewed as indications of the changing public perception about the meaning and practice of the European heritage from the colonial to contemporary era The volume will appeal to educationists scholars and students interested in the academic history of the Middle Ages in New Zealand enthusiasts of film music and performance of the medieval members of the public interested in Aotearoa s history and popular culture and all who enjoy the colourful reinventions of medievalism Shadow Worlds Andrew

Wood,2023-07-13 A vigorous strand of interest in the occult the spooky and the mysterious has been part of New Zealand s history since 1840 Shadow Worlds takes a lively look at communicating with spirits secret ritualistic societies the supernatural the New Age everything from The Golden Dawn and Rosicrucianism to Spiritualism witchcraft and Radiant Living and introduces the reader to a cast of fascinating characters who were generally true believers and sometimes con artists It s a fresh and novel take on the history of a small colonial society that was not quite as ploddingly conformist as we may have imagined The Spiritual Magazine ,1864 Changing Cultures of Ageing and Spirituality Elizabeth

MacKinlay,Ann Harrington,2023-09-12 This book addresses important issues of ageing and spirituality and reflects on the impact of culture on both constructs The papers are contemporary in that they include excerpts of cultural impact on spirituality from New Zealand Singapore India United Kingdom Australia and the United States This book marks almost 20 years of international conferences on ageing and spirituality that commenced in January 2000 It opens the conversation to all who were part of this journey of ageing including older people practitioners in ageing and aged care researchers and those who reflect on the process of growing older Chapters feature diverse perspectives highlighting the need for inclusivity in conversations that surround ageing and recognize how development of cultures is influenced by the society where they emerge and by minority groups within larger society Chapters also note the occurrence of subcultures of ageing and aged care The conference was held shortly before the onset of the COVID 19 pandemic with the chapters being written often during times of lockdown Their content reflects the importance of spirituality in times of isolation and can show ways of reaching out to vulnerable older people of various faiths and cultures whatever their situations Changing Cultures of Ageing and Spirituality will be a key resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Theology Divinity and Religious Studies Gerontology Sociology Psychology Mental Health and Nursing The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Religion Spirituality Aging The Theosophist ,1889 New Zealand Country Study Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP, Inc,2012-03-03 New Zealand Country Study Guide Strategic Information and Developments Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments Religions of New Zealanders Peter Donovan,1996 A factual across the board introduction to the many faiths and spiritual paths in Aotearoa New Zealand Light ,1928 New Zealand Foreign Policy and Government Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP USA,2005 Foreign policy domestic policy political system and parties government and administrative structure international activity and more Updated annually The Latter-Day Saints' Millennial Star ,1887 Theorising Religion John Walliss,2017-10-24 Religion is controversial and challenging Whilst religious forces are powerful in numerous societies they have little or no significance for wide swaths of public or private life in other places The task of theoretical work in the sociology of religion is therefore to make sense of this apparently paradoxical situation in which religion is simultaneously significant and insignificant The chapters of Part One consider the classical roots of ideas about religion that dominated sociological ways of thinking about it for most of the twentieth century Each chapter offers sound reasons for continuing to find theoretical inspiration and challenge in the sociological classics whilst also seeking ways of enhancing and extending their relevance to religion today Part Two contains chapters that open up fresh perspectives on aspects of modern post modern and ultra modern religion without necessarily ignoring the classical legacy The chapters of Part Three chart new directions for the sociological analysis of religion by fundamentally re thinking its theoretical basis by extending its disciplinary boundaries and by examining previously overlooked topics New Zealand Bookworld ,1977

New Zealand's Reply to Pessimism Allan Louis Benson,1906 Scientology James R. Lewis,2009-03-11 Scientology is arguably the most persistently controversial of all contemporary New Religious Movements James R Lewis has assembled an unusually comprehensive anthology incorporating a wide range of different approaches In this book a group of well known scholars of New Religious Movements offers an extensive and evenhanded overview and analysis of all of these aspects of Scientology including the controversies to which it continues to give rise Human Nature James Burns,2022-02-24 Reprint of the original first published in 1872
