Flying against Fate S. P. MacKenzie, 2017-08-04 During World War II Allied casualty rates in the air were high Of the roughly 125 000 who served as aircrew with Bomber Command 59 423 were killed or missing and presumed killed a fatality rate of 45 5% With odds like that it would be no surprise if there were as few atheists in cockpits as there were in foxholes and indeed many airmen faced their dangerous missions with beliefs and rituals ranging from the traditional to the outlandish Military historian S P MacKenzie considers this phenomenon in Flying against Fate a pioneering study of the important role that superstition played in combat flier morale among the Allies in World War II Mining a wealth of documents as well as a trove of published and unpublished memoirs and diaries MacKenzie examines the myriad forms combat fliers superstitions assumed from jinxes to premonitions Most commonly airmen carried amulets or talismans lucky boots or a stuffed toy a coin whose year numbers added up to thirteen counterintuitively a boomerang Some performed rituals or avoided other acts e g having a photo taken before a flight Whatever seemed to work was worth sticking with and a heightened risk often meant an upsurge in superstitious thought and behavior MacKenzie delves into behavior analysis studies to help explain the psychology behind much of the behavior he documents not slighting the large cohort of crew members and commanders who demurred He also looks into the ways in which superstitious behavior was tolerated or even encouraged by those in command who saw it as a means of buttressing morale The first in depth exploration of just how varied and deeply felt superstitious beliefs were to tens of thousands of combat fliers Flying against Fate expands our understanding of a major aspect of the psychology of war in the air and of World War II Hell Hawks! Robert F. Dorr, Thomas D. Jones, 2010-05-01 Hell Hawks sets a new standard for histories of the tactical anti war in Europe Veteran authors Bob Dorr and Tom Jones combine masterfully crafted veteran interviews with the broader picture of the air war fought by the Thunderbolt men You gain a new appreciation of just how tough their deadly task was and the courage needed to fly close air support against the Nazi fighters and flak This outstanding book raises the bar on aviation history as it brings alive the true story of an aerial band of brothers Colonel Walter J Boyne National Aviation Hall of Famer former director of the National Air Space Museum and best selling author Hell Hawks is the story of the band of young American fighter pilots and their gritty close quarters fight against Hitlers vaunted military The Hell Hawks were the men and machines of the 365th Fighter Group Beginning just prior to D Day June 6 1944 the groups young pilots most were barely twenty years old and fresh from flight training in the United States flew in close support of Eisenhowers ground forces as they advanced across France and into Germany They flew the rugged heavily armed P 47 Thunderbolt aka the Jug Living in tents amid the cold mud of their front line airfields the 365ths daily routine had much in common with that of the G I s they supported Their war only stopped with the Nazi surrender on May 8 1945 During their year in combat the Hell Hawks paid a heavy price to win the victory Sixty nine pilots and airmen died in the fight across the continent The Groups 1 241 combat missions the daily

Profoundly moved by the stories of wartime casualties as a child Dilip Sarkar has since spent a lifetime reconstructing the lives of many of the fallen and is passionate about recording and sharing this very personal hidden history In Spitfire Down he explores the stories of thirteen pilots who failed to return all killed either in action or flying accidents while a fourteenth Flying Officer Buck Casson was brought down by a German ace over France and captured There is for example the virtually unknown story of The Baby of the RAF Sergeant Geoffrey Painting Posted to fly Spitfires with 118 Squadron at RAF Ibsley in Hampshire Painting was hit by flak during an attack on enemy shipping off Cherbourg on 30 September 1941 Still listed as missing at just 17 he is believed to have been the youngest RAF pilot killed during the Second World War The author has reconstructed Painting s short life with help from his family and forensically deconstructed that last flight with the help of the now late Wing Commander Peter Howard Williams DFC who was flying with the teenage pilot that day The author also explores the heart rending story of an American trainee fighter pilot Pilot Officer Jim Bob Lee whose Spitfire collided with a Wellington bomber over Gloucestershire resulting in the loss of all airmen involved Two Canadian pilots perished on Pen y Fan the highest peak in South Wales The multi national effort that defeated Hitler is further emphasised in fact through the stories of both Wing Commander Piotr Laguna and Flying Officer Franek Surma But perhaps most tragic of all is how lightning struck Joan Welch twice her first fianc e Flight Lieutenant Lester Sanders DFC was killed test flying Spitfires in 1942 and her second Pilot Officer Ian Smith was killed flying in Palestine in 1945 Using correspondence diaries and other personal papers of the pilots concerned the author has reconstructed their all too brief lives and provided a lasting and profusely illustrated
