Pageants, Parlors, and Pretty Women Blain Roberts, 2014-03-17 From the South s pageant queens to the importance of beauty parlors to African American communities it is easy to see the ways beauty is enmeshed in southern culture But as Blain Roberts shows in this incisive work the pursuit of beauty in the South was linked to the tumultuous racial divides of the region where the Jim Crow era cosmetics industry came of age selling the idea of makeup that emphasized whiteness and where in the 1950s and 1960s black owned beauty shops served as crucial sites of resistance for civil rights activists In these times of strained relations in the South beauty became a signifier of power and affluence while it reinforced racial strife Roberts examines a range of beauty products practices and rituals cosmetics hairdressing clothing and beauty contests in settings that range from tobacco farms of the Great Depression to 1950s and 1960s college campuses In so doing she uncovers the role of female beauty in the economic and cultural modernization of the South By showing how battles over beauty came to a head during the civil rights movement Roberts sheds new light on the tactics southerners used to resist and achieve desegregation

Modernism at the Beach Hannah Freed-Thall, 2023-03-07 Winner 2024 MSA Book Prize Modernist Studies Association At the beach bodies converge with the elements and strange treasures come to light Departing from the conventional association of modernism with the city this book makes a case for the coastal zone as a surprisingly generative setting for twentieth century literature and art An unruly and elusive confluence of human and more than human forces the seashore is also a space of performance a stage for loosely scripted improvisatory forms of embodiment and togetherness The beach Hannah Freed Thall argues was to the modernist imagination what mountains were to Romanticism a space not merely of anthropogenic conquest but of vital elemental and creaturely connection With an eye to the peripheries of capitalist leisure Freed Thall recasts familiar seaside practices including tide pooling beachcombing gambling and sunbathing as radical experiments in perception and sociability Close readings of works by Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf Claude McKay Samuel Beckett Rachel Carson and Gordon Matta Clark among others explore the modernist beach as a queer refuge a precarious commons a scene of collective exhaustion and endurance and a visionary threshold at the end of the world Interweaving environmental humanities queer and feminist theory and cultural history Modernism at the Beach offers new ways of understanding twentieth century literature and its relation to ecological thought
