The Splendour of Truth Shines Catholic Church. Pope (1978-2005 : John Paul II),1993 Renewing the Evangelical Mission Richard Lints,2013-05-26 The culture story of evangelicalism during the second half of the twentieth century has been well told It is important now to think about the theological mission of the church in an ever increasing post Christian and post partisan context What is the theologian s calling at the beginning of the third millennium How do global realities impact the mission of evangelical theology What sense can be made of the unity of evangelical theology in light of its many diverse voices Contributors Os Guinness Michael S Horton Richard Lints Bruce McCormack Mark Noll J I Packer Gary Parrett Rodney Peterson Cornelius Plantinga Tite Tienou Kevin J Vanhoozer Adonis Vidu and Miroslav Volf The Splendor of Truth Catholic Church. Pope (1978-2005 : John Paul II),Pope John Paul II,1993 The Splendor Of Truth is addressed by the Supreme Pontiff Pope John Paul II to all the Bishops of the Catholic Church The context contains the fundamental questions of the church s moral teaching The Heart Has Its Reasons Beata Toth,2016-05-26 The Heart Has Its Reasons explores a hitherto neglected area of theological anthropology the unity of human emotion and reason embodied in the Biblical concept of the heart While the theological contours of human rationality have long been clearly drawn and presented as the exclusive seat of the image of God affectivity has been relegated to a secondary position With the reintegration of the body into recent philosophical and theological discourses a number of questions have arisen if the image also resides in the body how does this change one s view of the theological significance of human affect In what way is our likeness to God realised in the whole of what we are Can one overcome the traditional dissociation between intellect and affect by a renewed theory of love In conversation with patristic and medieval authors like Irenaeus Tertullian Gregory of Nyssa Maximus and Thomas Aquinas and in dialogue with more recent interlocutors such as Blaise Pascal Ricoeur Marion Milbank and John Paul II Beata Toth pursues a novel theological vision of the essential unity of our humanity Angel Power Janice T. Connell,2015-03-18 There are many angels maybe as many as the stars in the sky And every single one of these precious beings offers the world unique blessings ANGEL POWER describes the special tasks and responsibilities of each of the Nine Choirs of Angels The Seraphim Cherubim and Thrones are angels of goodness love and wisdom The Angels of Dominion are angels of leadership From the Virtue Angels flow miracles of healing comfort and peace The Power Angels are special warriors against evil and defenders of goodness The Principalities Archangels and Angels administer our planet By illuminating each Choir s special powers the author enables us more easily to draw upon its particular radiant light Weaving her own personal angel experiences together with angel prayers and with true angel stories she has been told the author teaches us to open ourselves to angelic guidance support and protection Her book spreads before us a dazzling and profoundly reassuring prospect of angel power at work a vision so beautiful and potent that those who experience it feel they know heaven on earth

Una Veritas Claudio Pierantoni,2022-02-17 This work proposes a new proof of the existence of God based on a development of elements found in Patristic and Scholastic philosophical tradition in particular of St Augustine St Anselm and St Thomas Aquinas Traditionally the existence of God has been seen in relation to the essence of Truth its unchanging and eternal essence is used as a proof of the eternal existence of a personal God The strategy of our demonstration is to investigate the concept of Truth from the perspective of a definition which can be called inclusive it proposes to formulate complementary to formal purely abstract definitions of Truth also a definition that includes the real personal elements that are necessarily implied in the abstract definition It shows the necessity of including in it in the first place the primary Real Being God which is also the primary Intellect and related to it our finite human intellect not necessary in itself but of course essential to our very nature Claudio Pierantoni is Professor of Medieval Philosophy at the University of Chile Universidad de Chile and Professor of Latin Literature at the Universidad de los Andes Chile He was former Professor of Church History and Patrology at the Faculty of Theology of the Catholic Pontifical University of Chile Pontificia Universidad Cat lica de Chile

Understanding the 'Imago Dei' Fr Dominic Robinson, 2013-06-28 As theologians across confessional divides try to say something significant about human dignity in our contemporary society there is fresh interest in the ancient Christian doctrine that the human being is created in the imago Dei Theology is grounding responsibility for others and for the world around us in this common vision that the human being's infinite horizon lies in a divine calling and destiny Robinson examines the imago Dei debate through three giants of twentieth century theology Karl Barth Hans Urs von Balthasar and Jürgen Moltmann This is placed against a survey of the principle developments and distinctions relating to the doctrine in the history of Christian thought which in itself will be valuable for all students of Theology A fresh analysis of ecumenical contributions places the development of the doctrine in the context of the ongoing process of ecumenical dialogue on the dignity of the human person with special reference to this theme in the first encyclical of Pope Benedict XVI Deus Caritas Est Whilst imago Dei is the focus of this book Robinson invites the reader to see its relevance to theology as a whole on a specifically ecumenical canvas and relates directly to more general areas of theological anthropology grace salvation and the relationship between God and the world
