Schwandner-Sievers, Bernd Jürgen Fischer, 2002 The contributors to this study critically deconstruct Albanian myths and offer insights into Albanian history and politics They conclude with contemporary Albanian critiques of the origins and functions of Albanian politics and ideologies Performing Nostalgia: Migration Culture and Creativity in South Albania Eckehard Pistrick, 2017-07-05 Migration studies is an area of increasing significance in musicology as in other disciplines How do migrants express and imagine themselves through musical practice How does music help them to construct social imaginaries and to cope with longings and belongings In this study of migration music in postsocialist Albania Eckehard Pistrick identifies links between sound space emotionality and mobility in performance provides new insights into the controversial relationship between sound and migration and sheds light on the cultural effects of migration processes Central to Pistrick's approach is the essential role of emotionality for musical creativity which is highlighted throughout the volume pain and longing are discussed not as a traumatising end point but as a driving force for human action and as a source for cultural creativity In addition the study provides a fascinating overview about the current state of a rarely documented vocal tradition in Europe that is a part of the mosaic of Mediterranean singing traditions It refers to the challenges imposed onto this practice by heritage politics the dynamics of retraditionalisation and musical globalisation In this sense the book constitutes an important study to the dynamics of postsocialism as seen from a musicological perspective Words on Cassette, 1999 Bowker Editorial Staff, Staff Bowker R R, Bowker, 1999-02 Music and Gender Tullia Magrini, 2003-06-15
Although scholars have long been aware of the crucial roles that gender plays in music and vice versa the contributors to this volume are among the first to systematically examine the interactions between the two This book is also the first to explore the diverse yet often strikingly similar musics of the areas bordering the Mediterranean from comparative anthropological perspectives From Spanish flamenco to Algerian ra Greek rebetika to Turkish pop music Sephardi and Berber songs to Egyptian belly dancers the contributors cover an exceedingly wide range of geographic and musical territories Individual essays examine musical behavior as representation assertion and sometimes transgression of gender identities compare men s and women s roles in specific musical practices and their historical evolution and explore how music and gender relate to such issues as ethnicity nationality and religion Anyone studying the musics or cultures of the Mediterranean or more generally the relations between gender and the arts will welcome this book Contributors Caroline Bithell Joaquina Labajo
