The Typology of Asian Englishes Lisa Lim, Nikolas Gisborne, 2011-10-05 When considering the structure of New Englishes which have evolved in multilingual mostly post colonial contexts of Asia thus Asian Englishes the significant factors to be considered are 1 the varieties of the English lexifier that entered the local context 2 the nature of transmission of English to the local population and 3 the local i e substrate languages of the community in which the New English emerges This third factor is the focus of the five papers in this volume they investigate the structure of Asian varieties of English by exploring the relationship between the typological profile of substrate languages in the specific linguistic ecology and the grammatical features of the emerging contact variety of English The contributions to this volume were originally published in English World Wide 30 2 2009 The Major Languages of East and South-East Asia Bernard Comrie, 2022-02-16 Based on Bernard Comrie's much praised The World's Major Languages this is a key guide to an important language family The areas covered include Chinese Japanese and Sino-Tibetan languages Naval Training Bulletin , 1969
