The Broken Mirror China After Tiananmen:

The Broken Mirror George Hicks, 1991 The Broken Mirror George L. Hicks, 1990-01-01 China After Mao Frank Dikötter, 2022-09-29 _____ A SPECTATOR AND NEW STATESMAN BOOK OF THE YEAR A revolutionary book Sunday Times A pulsating account that makes clear how important it is to look beneath the surface when it comes to any period or region in history but above all to China Peter Frankopan TLS Essential reading for anyone who wants to know what has shaped today's China and what the Chinese Communist Party's choices mean for the rest of the world New Statesman Books of the Year Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2023 _____ From the Samuel Johnson Prize winning author of Mao's Great Famine a timely and compelling account of China in the wake of Chairman Mao In China After Mao award winning historian Frank Dikötter explores how the People's Republic of China was transformed from a backwater economy in the 1970s into the world superpower of today His account is the first to be based on hundreds of previously unseen archival documents from the secret minutes of top party meetings to confidential bank reports Unfolding with great narrative sweep this riveting richly detailed chronicle recasts our understanding of an era that both the regime and foreign admirers celebrate as an economic miracle In charting four decades of so called Reform and Opening Up and China's emergence as a world power Dikötter tells a fascinating tale of contradictions and illusions of shadow banking anti corruption drives and extreme state wealth standing alongside everyday poverty He examines China's approach to the 2008 financial crash the country's increasing hostility towards perceived Western interference and its development into a thoroughly entrenched dictatorship one equipped with a sprawling security apparatus and the most sophisticated surveillance system in the world Ultimately the book concludes the communist party's goal was never to join the democratic sphere but to resist it and then defeat it Praise for Frank Dikötter and the People's Trilogy Harrowing and brilliant Ben Macintyre The historian of China Spectator One of the few books that anyone who wants to understand the twentieth century simply must read New Statesman The seminal English language work on the subject Sunday Times Gripping and masterful Simon Sebag Montefiore

Human Rights and the Borders of Suffering Anne Brown, M. Anne Brown, 2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book argues for greater openness in the ways we approach human rights and international rights promotion and in so doing brings some new understanding to old debates Starting with the realities of abuse rather than the liberal architecture of rights it casts human rights as a language for probing the political dimensions of suffering Seen in this context the predominant Western models of rights generate a substantial but also problematic and not always emancipatory array of practices These models are far from answering the questions about the nature of political community that are raised by the systemic infliction of suffering Rather than a simple message from us to them then rights promotion is a long and difficult conversation about the relationship between political organisations and suffering Three case studies are explored the Tiananmen Square massacre East Timor's violent modern history and the circumstances of indigenous Australians The purpose of these discussions is not to elaborate on a new theory of rights but to work towards rights practices that are more responsive to the spectrum of injury that we inflict and endure The book is a valuable and innovative contribution to rights debates for students of international politics political theory and conflict resolution as well as for those engaged in the pursuit of human rights An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence
