Glover,2009-03-12 As Kwai Chang moved through the arid desert of the American West I would move through the equally desolate ghettos of Brooklyn and we would each search he for his family and I for my father The middle of three sisters Pamela is a quiet thoughtful girl with a huge hole in her life the space her father used to fill before her mother kicked him out Occasionally Pamela conjures up Kwai Chang David Carradine s character from the Western action series Kung Fu to give her spiritual guidance and advice she would normally turn to her parents for But with her father gone her mother has fallen into a pit of confusion and mental disarray So it is up to Pamela and her sisters Nona and Theresa to run the household When their money runs out the family must leave their beloved East New York house and move to the projects It is a change that will alter their lives forever and even wise Kwai Chang cannot alter their destiny But as Pamela discovers Everyone searches The real challenge is in the finding and the keeping In this powerful literary debut vividly set in the 1970s Bonnie Glover has written a marvelous story about a young black woman struggling to define her identity and make her family whole By
