Impossible Images Shelley Hornstein, Laura Levitt, Laurence J. Silberstein, 2003-10 Impossible Images brings together a distinguished group of contributors including artists photographers cultural critics and historians to analyze the ways in which the Holocaust has been represented in and through paintings architecture photographs museums and monuments Exploring frequently neglected aspects of contemporary art after the Holocaust the volume demonstrates how visual culture informs Jewish memory and makes clear that art matters in contemporary Jewish studies Accepting that knowledge is culturally constructed Impossible Images makes explicit the ways in which context matters It shows how the places where an artist works shape what is produced in what ways the space in which a work of art is exhibited and how it is named influences what is seen or not seen and how calling attention to certain details in a visual work such as a gesture a color or an icon can change the meaning assigned to the work as a whole Written accessibly for a general readership and those interested in art and art history the volume also includes 20 color plates from leading artists Alice Lok Cahana Judy Chicago Debbie Teicholz and Mindy Weisel

Art and Death Chris Townsend, 2008-07-29 This highly sensitive and beautifully written book looks closely at the way contemporary Western artists negotiate death both as personal experience and in the wider community Townsend discusses but moves beyond the spectacle of death in work by artists such as Damien Hirst to see how mortality in particular the experience of other people's death brings us face to face with profound ethical and even political issues He looks at personal responses to death in the work of artists as varied as Francis Bacon Tracey Emin and Derek Jarman whose film Blue is discussed here in depth Exploring the last body of work by the the Kentucky based photographer Ralph Eugene Meatyard and Jewish American installation artist Shimon Attie's powerful memorial work for the community of Aberfan Townsend considers death in light of the injunction to love thy neighbour

Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph's appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Seaching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies At Memory's Edge James Edward Young,2000-01-01 How should Germany commemorate the mass murder of Jews once committed in its name In 1997 James E Young was invited to join a German commission appointed to find an appropriate design for a national memorial in Berlin to the European Jews killed in World War II As the only foreigner and only Jew on the panel Young gained a unique perspective on Germany's fraught efforts to memorialize the Holocaust In this book he tells for the first time the inside story of Germany's national Holocaust memorial and his own role in it In exploring Germany's memorial crisis Young also asks the more general question of how a generation of contemporary artists can remember an event like the Holocaust which it never knew directly Young examines the works of a number of vanguard artists in America and Europe including Art Spiegelman Shimon Attie David Levinthal and Rachel Whiteread all born after the Holocaust but indelibly shaped by its memory as passed down through memoirs film photographs and museums In the context of the moral and aesthetic questions raised by these avant garde projects Young offers fascinating insights into the controversy surrounding Berlin's newly opened Jewish museum designed by Daniel Libeskind as well as Germany's soon to be built national Holocaust memorial designed by Peter Eisenman Illustrated with striking images in color and black and white At Memory's Edge is the first book in any language to chronicle these projects and to show how we remember the Holocaust in the after images of its history

Holocaust Images and Picturing Catastrophe Angi Buettner,2016-12-05 Holocaust Images and Picturing Catastrophe explores the phenomenon of Holocaust transfer analysing the widespread practice of using the Holocaust and its imagery for the representation and recording of other historical events in various media sites It investigates the use of Holocaust imagery in political and legal discourses in critical thinking and philosophy as well as in popular culture to provide a fresh theorisation of the manner in which the Holocaust comes loose from its historical context and is applied to events and campaigns in the contemporary public sphere Richly illustrated with concrete examples including prominent international animal rights activism the Israeli Palestinian conflict and the genocide in Rwanda this book traces the visual rhetoric of Holocaust imagery and its application to events other than the genocide of Jewish people With its discussion of the wide range of issues arising with this form of Holocaust transfer the generalization of the Holocaust as a metaphor in representations of catastrophe as well as in other cultural locations Holocaust Images and Picturing Catastrophe will appeal to those working in the fields of holocaust studies cultural and visual culture studies sociology and media studies Memory Effects Dora Apel,2002 Dora Apel analyzes the ways in which artists born after the Holocaust whom she calls secondary witnesses represent a history they did not experience first hand She demonstrates that contemporary artists confront these atrocities in order to bear witness not to the Holocaust directly but to its memory effects and to the implications of those effects for the present and future Drawing on projects that employ a variety of unorthodox artistic strategies the author provides a unique understanding of contemporary representations of the Holocaust She demonstrates how these artists frame the past within the conditions of the present the subversive use of documentary and the archive the effects of the Jewish genocide on issues of difference and identity and the use of representation as a form of resistance to historical closure

Camerawork ,1999      Yasukuni Shrine Akiko Takenaka,2015-07-31 This is the first extensive English language study of Yasukuni Shrine as a war memorial It explores the controversial shrine s role in waging war promoting peace honoring the dead and in particular building Japan s modern national identity It traces Yasukuni s history from its conceptualization in the final years of the Tokugawa period and Japan s wars of imperialism to the present Author Akiko Takenaka departs from existing scholarship on Yasukuni by considering various themes important to the study of war and its legacies through a chronological and thematic survey of the shrine emphasizing the spatial practices that took place both at the shrine and at regional sites associated with it over the last 150 years Rather than treat Yasukuni as a single unchanging ideological entity she takes into account the social and political milieu maps out gradual transformations in both its events and rituals and explicates the ideas that the shrine symbolizes Takenaka illuminates the ways the shrine s spaces were used during wartime most notably in her reconstructions based on primary sources of visits by war bereaved military families to the shrine during the Asia Pacific War She also traces important episodes in Yasukuni s postwar history including the filing of lawsuits against the shrine and recent attempts to reinvent it for the twenty first century Through a careful analysis of the shrine s history over one and a half centuries her work views the making and unmaking of a modern militaristic Japan through the lens of Yasukuni Shrine Yasukuni Shrine History Memory and Japan s Unending Postwar is a skilled and innovative examination of modern and contemporary Japan s engagement with the critical issues of war empire and memory It will be of particular interest to readers of Japanese history and culture as well as those who follow current affairs and foreign relations in East Asia Its discussion of spatial practices in the life of monuments and the political use of images media and museum exhibits will find a welcome audience among those engaged in memory visual culture and media studies      History as Image,
