Social Context And Proclamation A Socio Cognitive Study In Proclaiming The Gospel Cross Culturally:

Social Context and Proclamation David Filbeck,1985-01-01 Sharing Jesus Holistically with the Buddhist World David S. Lim,Steve Spaulding,2005 This book contains the works of a group of Evangelical mission reflective practitioners who are committed to developing ways to evangelize the Buddhist peoples of the world As various forms of Buddhism gain popularity this network tries to disclose creative approaches to reach them with the gospel communicated in culturally sensitive ways and with transformational impact The five major dimensions of a holistic witness among Buddhist peoples discussed in this book are experiential dialogue intellectual dialogue biblical exposition cultural sensitivity and economic development We invite readers to gain access to the first volume Sharing Jesus in the Buddhist World which consists of nine papers that provide the framework and some concrete models of cultural sensitive contextualized witness to peoples of Buddhist faith It will serve as a rich resource for those concerned with the issues raised in this book

Evangelicals in Mexico Dinorah B. Méndez,Dinorah Mendez,2008 Hymns as a potential tool of theological contextualisation have never been fully explored This study looks at this function of hymnody in relation to Mexican culture A sample of hymnody used by evangelicals of different traditions was selected to examine its theology and to compare which kind of hymns or songs were more reliable and appropriate to communicate the evangelical faith in the Mexican context

Preparing Missionaries for Intercultural Communication: Lyman E. Reed,Arthur F. Glasser,1985-06-01 Missionaries while being prepared in the Bible often receive little training in understanding the world in which we live and some experience great hardship out in the field as a result The purpose of this book is to enable cross cultural missionaries to be more adequately prepared for the task of intelligent communication The authors set forth the major areas which are important in training the missionary to communicate with other cultures After-Mission, Beyond Evangelicalism Najib George Awad,2020-11-04 After Mission touches on on three questions The first question is about self perception and identity formation strategies and the various views that we have on the Protestants relation to their Arab Muslim Middle Eastern context This will furnish the basis for the ensuing parts as it will provide the study with coherent and analytical readings of the cultural situation and intellectual views of the Arab Eastern Protestants in their Sitz im Leben from the perspective of the hermeneutic tripod of identity othering relationality The second question about the theological dimension asks what kind of a theological discourse do the Protestants need to develop and how do they need to re form their own theological heritage in such a manner that will allow them to heal the historical enmity and suspicion towards them from the Eastern Orthodox Christian community in the region How should they re think their traditional view on theological subjects common to them and the Eastern Christian tradition Traditional Protestant attitudes towards Eastern Christianity which have been viewed through the lens of evangelicalism and mission have failed to grant the Protestants an influential and truly indigenous presence in the region and have led to them being constantly accused of being a foreign transplant and alien entity In the light of this it is clear that going beyond missiology and traditional evangelicalism demands re thinking certain mutually shared but contentious theological subjects from a new perspective with the focus on more constructive attempts to build fellowship through dialogue Finally the third question touches on the Protestants future in the Arab Muslim Middle East by viewing this inquiry from a broader perspective that is related to all the Middle Eastern Christian communities presence and role in the Muslim majority context It will discuss questions about the kind of presence and role that Christians Protestants included should hope to play in order to guarantee survival and a continuing presence in the region The question of identity formation and the managing of difference without trapping it in the mud of otherizing and self otherizing will also be tackled so that the theological dimension is integrated with the broader multifaceted contextual one

Telling God's Stories with Power Paul F. Koehler, 2010-06-01 Biblical Storytelling in Oral Cultures This is a complete and practical introduction to storying especially for people who want to learn about using biblical storytelling in cross cultural contexts and who want to train others to become storytellers It includes many fascinating accounts of the responses of tribal people to the first proclamation of the gospel through storytelling The result of years of research and field testing Telling God's Stories with Power is a product of the author's own journey as he confronted the challenges of teaching the Bible in parts of the world where people are unaccustomed to a Western style of learning Full of innovative and groundbreaking insights this study is packed with ideas explanations and constructive suggestions stated in clear and simple language Throughout the book there are extensive examples from the storytellers own experiences Tracing the movement of the biblical stories across multiple generations of tellers and listeners storytelling is found to be superior for knowledge transfer and for bypassing resistance to the gospel in oral contexts thus presenting clear evidence of the effectiveness of biblical narrative among oral learners

Urban Ministry Manuel Ortiz, Harvie M. Conn, 2025-06-06 No 3 in the Academy of Parish Clergy Top Ten Books of the Year The city presents serious challenges that cry out for answers poverty racism human exploitation and government corruption How can the church move ahead in the midst of these demands with the gospel of hope Here in one comprehensive volume Harvie Conn and Manuel Ortiz two noted scholars and proven practitioners of urban ministry address the vital work of the church in the city Their dual goal to understand the city and God's work in it Through four great waves of development Conn and Ortiz trace the history of the city around the world Then they tackle the critical issue of a biblical basis for urban mission How does the Bible view the city Are we closer to God in the country than the city Does the Bible have an anti urban bias These questions are given a thorough analysis that unveils God's urban mandate as reflected in both Old and New Testaments From this foundation the authors unpack the multifaceted nature of the city as place as process as center as power and as a place of change and stability They move us beyond fragmented stereotypes to a new way of seeing that is holistic enough for a fully biblical ministry to develop In addition Conn and Ortiz lay out what the social sciences have to offer urban mission including ethnographic and demographic studies and they focus on the particular issues and needs of urban leadership including a plan for developing and mentoring leaders while equipping the laity for ministry in the city This is the essential text for bringing God's kingdom to the city through the people of God Missions amidst Pagodas Peter

Thein Nyunt, 2014-05-14 For almost 200 years Protestant missionaries have endeavoured to communicate the gospel to Burmese Buddhists in Myanmar However Christianity among this people group is still regarded as a potted plant with former Buddhists being separated from both their community and culture In this publication Peter Thein Nyunt a former Buddhist monk examines past and current approaches of the Protestant church among Burmese Buddhists Based on his findings the author develops a contextual missiological strategy with a relevant christological message and ecclesiological structure

The Muslim Majority Robin Hadaway, 2021-09-15 More than 70 percent of Muslims worldwide practice folk Islam a syncretistic mix of theologically orthodox Islam and traditional religious beliefs and practices The Muslim Majority is unlike many published works on evangelism to Muslims which argue for either apologetic or contextualized bridge approaches These approaches are often ineffective in reaching adherents of popular Islam Instead author and missiologist Robin

Hadaway outlines a contextual approach that addresses the unique perspective of popular Islam Hadaway explains the differences between folk Islam and orthodox Islam and explores best practices for reaching the vast majority of Muslims with the gospel of Jesus Christ Missiology, 1991 An international review

RELIGIOUS SYNCRETISM IN AFRICAN CHRISTIANITY ISIAHA OLUWAJEMIRIYE OLATOYAN, 2024-04-18 Christianity among the African people whether on the soil of Africa or in diaspora is perceived and defined differently by different people For instance among African traditional religious people and Muslims Christianity is a foreign religion that must not be allowed to thrive in Africa To several Africans who profess Jesus Christianity is good but it is not adequate and effective enough to handle all human needs Still among some Western Christians and missionaries African Christianity is superficial and lacks total commitment to Christ Of course the Africans are a cultural people with profound religious inclinations Their traditional religion ATR has tremendously shaped their worldviews and socioeconomic and political activities Consequently when traditional Africans are converted to Christianity they do not break ties with their traditional religions completely The examination of relevant biblical texts on syncretism however reveals that God condemns the worship of many gods and places a curse on anyone who offers sacrifices to carved images and bows to them in worship Therefore this work investigates the root cause of religious syncretism among African people In the attempt to find answers to why the average African Christian finds it difficult if not impossible to abandon his/her traditional religious belief systems completely to embrace Christianity the author concludes that unless the issues surrounding the African forgotten and secret covenants are exposed and decisively addressed in the light of biblical teaching syncretism will continue to be a stigma on the fabric of African Christianity Therefore to overcome the threats of syncretism in African Christianity there is a need to establish a sound theological and missiological framework that can address the problems associated with the African worldviews and belief systems This task must be carried out under the searchlight of Scriptures Elenchus of Biblica, 1990
