B. Chaudhuri, 2008      The Agrarian Structure Of Bangladesh F. Tomasson Jannuzi, James T Peach, 2019-07-11 The relationship between the agrarian structure of Bangladesh and its problems of rural development is established in this study based on four years 1975-79 of field research The authors suggest that the concentration of land in the hands of a rural elite is the principal impediment to the participation of weaker sections of the peasantry in economic progress Tracing the failure of local attempts to change Bangladesh's agrarian structure by legislative means they outline a modified program for rural development that is linked to agrarian reform Agrarian reform Drs Jannuzi and Peach argue is the prerequisite for a rural development strategy that provides for both economic growth and improved income distribution thus approaches to rural development in Bangladesh that place reliance on new agricultural technology without first changing the institutions that determine people's relationships to the land are not viable The authors' policy recommendations grounded in new data on the relative proportions of owners of land sharecroppers and the landless are supplemented by a theoretical analysis of the institution of sharecropping and detailed field work methodology      Energy Law and Regulation in Brazil José Augusto Fontoura Costa, Marilda Rosado de Sá Ribeiro, Ely Caetano Xavier Junior, Vivian Daniele Rocha Gabriel, 2018-03-22 The book presents contributions from Brazilian experts on the regulation of different energy sources Focusing on describing and discussing the fundamental issues related to the legal regulation of each of the sources that compose Brazil's energy matrix it also analyzes economic and strategic aspects and identifies the main current problems related to the exploration for and
