Social Impact Assessment In Small Communities:

Social Impact Assessment in Small Communities Roy Tyler Bowles, Joanne Valiant Cook, 1981 Review of literature describing the effects of large scale resource development on small communities

Social Care Practice in Rural Communities Brian Cheers, Ros Darracott, Bob Lonne, 2007 This book addresses the challenge of providing good social care to the more than 6 million people who live in rural Australia some in very remote locations It emphasises the importance of a developmental approach which stresses proper planning evidence based policy and the influence which practitioners can have The first part of the book explains the processes for developing implementing and evaluating policies and social plans including achieving impact through networking formal consultations community development and lobbying Part two of the book looks at types of social care and the challenges each present The types of social care include community embedded specialised statutory and visiting The authors devote specific attention to Indigenous communities and through case studies provide examples of social care programs in action The authors have more than 40 years combined experience in rural social work and community development

Social Impact Assessment And Monitoring Michael J Carley, Eduardo Bustelo, 2019-05-28 This systematic critical review of more than 600 recent publications in social impact assessment SIA and related fields is based on the authors belief that SIA is more than an analytical technique it is also a logical and timely response to our ever growing need for more and better information to facilitate decision making in an increasingly c

New Directions in Social Impact Assessment Frank Vanclay, Ana Maria Esteves, 2011-01-01 This book should be read by anyone commissioning impact assessments who wants to build their understanding of the more progressive and innovative end of the topic A job well done in the eyes of stakeholders and regulators requires proper social analysis Jon Samuel Head of Social Performance Anglo American The list of authors reads like a who's who in SIA Academics and practitioners are equally represented among the authors The book provides a good mix of broad theoretical concepts and specific practical topics

Martin Haefele Manager Environmental Impact Assessment at Mackenzie Valley Environmental Impact Review Board Yellowknife Northwest Territories Canada This book gives a very broad overview of where Social Impact Assessment is coming from where it is now and where it could go from an impact assessment tool to an impact management tool It provides a realistic insight in both the achievements and the struggles of Social Impact Assessment A recommended read for both those interested in Social Impact Assessment and those in related domains where social issues are gaining increasing importance such as Environmental Assessment and Sustainability Appraisal Rob Verheem Deputy Director Netherlands Commission for Environmental Assessment This important new book outlines current developments in thinking in the field of Social Impact Assessment SIA It advances the theory and practice of SIA and argues that a dramatic shift is required in the way socioeconomic studies and community participation is undertaken The book emphasizes that much more than the act of predicting impacts in a regulatory context SIA needs to be the process of managing the social aspects of development and that there needs to be a holistic and integrated approach to impact assessment It stresses that greater attention needs to be given to ensuring that the goals of development are attained and enhanced This significant addition to the literature will be an invaluable reference for academics consultants and practitioners Social Impact Analysis Laurence R.

Goldman,2020-08-20 This book addresses the nature purpose and processes associated with social impact analysis Because resource development projects occur in human as well as ecological environments stakeholders landowners companies and governments are compelled to ensure that the benefits of any project are maximized while the negative risks are minimized Achieving such objectives means implementing programs which monitor and evaluate the ongoing effects of a project on the social and cultural lives of the impacted populace This book aims to provide a teaching and training resource for students social scientists anthropologists sociologists human geographers environmentalists engineers etc and indigenous personnel and operators who are tasked with community affairs programs in those countries where resource development projects are implemented The constituent chapters provide how to guides and frameworks that are generously illustrated with case studies drawn variously from North America and the Asia Pacific region Topics addressed include Legal Frameworks and Compliance Procedures Social Mapping Environmental Reports Social and Economic Impact Studies Social Monitoring Techniques Project Development Statistical Packages and Report Production This book is unique in so far as it seeks to prioritize application over theory Moreover it is the first training resource that is sensitive to non western indigenes need to assimilate and apply skills engendered by Western countries Methods of Environmental and Social Impact Assessment

Social Analysis John Selby,Lambert N. Wenner,1984

Social Impact Analysis And Development Planning In The Third World William Derman,Scott Whiteford,2019-06-26 Although national governments and international agencies have committed vast sums of money to development many projects have not only failed to improve the lives of the poor but in some cases have created additional social and economic problems Such failures can often be traced to an inadequate understanding of the socio cultural reality of the people most directly affected and to a lack of their participation in project planning implementation and evaluation In this collection of essays scholars and practitioners from diverse disciplines examine many of the perplexing social issues of development planning from the perspective of social impact analysis Drawing on national regional and local case studies the authors demonstrate why sociocultural factors are seldom adequately understood and discuss how they can be effectively incorporated into the planning process

Can Small Urban Communities Survive? Branka Berce-Bratko,2018-01-17 This title was first published in 2001 Throughout the post war period there has been much activity in the conservation and renewal of old town centres throughout Europe A considerable body of knowledge has been built up on the technical side of rehabilitation over a period of 40 years but little attention has been paid to related societal and cultural aspects More often than not this results in a degree of failure in the rehabilitation process This is an exploration of how the planning and design of urban areas might be improved by the incorporation of cultural analysis within the town planning process European practice in residential rehabilitation and conservation is renewed in order to gauge what progress has been made with particular emphasis on solutions and remedies associated with cultural ethnicity and minority issues Social Impact Assessment Reidar Kvam, 2018-06-01 This note provides an overview of good practice standards in Social Impact Assessment SIA It has been prepared by the Inter American Development Bank IDB to provide guidance to practitioners and decision makers By applying the approach presented in this note it is expected that the quality consistency and operational relevance of SIAs will improve SIA facilitates the systematic integration of social issues in the planning and implementation of projects It improves the quality and sustainability of projects supports and strengthens national requirements and enhances project acceptance and local ownership The SIA helps to identify and manage potential adverse social impacts a project may cause or contribute to and to maximize benefits to local communities and other groups Rural Communities in the Inland Northwest Charles C. Harris, 2000 Coping With Rapid Growth In Rural Communities Bruce A. Weber, 2019-03-04 This book integrates the most current research findings on the economic demographic fiscal and social consequences of rapid growth in rural communities and offers strategies that can be used to mitigate the often disruptive impact of that growth While working extensively with government officials and citizens in rural communities Drs Weber and Howell became aware of the need for a compilation and synthesis of the research on rural growth they subsequently invited scholars working in selected topic areas to contribute to that effort The resulting papers were refined during a meeting sponsored by the Western Rural Development Center edited and brought together in this volume Incorporating 1980 census data the book outlines the spectrum of changes associated with rapid growth in rural areas presents specific options for managing rapid growth and suggests a model that communities can use for impact assessment and for monitoring the effectiveness of various management strategies The International Handbook of Social Impact Assessment H. A. Becker, Frank Vanclay, 2003-01-01 This book provides a valuable addition to the Social Impact Assessment SIA literature While the volume addresses several good examples of how to case studies it also firmly addresses the importance of the need for firm conceptual and theoretical guidelines for SIA practice the volume is an excellent contribution to the SIA literature and I highly recommend it to both practitioner and researcher alike Geoff Syme Australasian Journal of Environmental Management An innovative collection which takes social impact assessment to the frontiers of environmental and social policy and citizen awareness Unusually this collection includes both sophisticated quantitative tools and equally important chapters on participation stakeholder involvement and environmental mediation A most valuable source book Michael Redclift King's College London UK Social Impact Assessment SIA is the process of analysing and managing the intended and unintended consequences on the human environment of planned interventions policies programmes plans projects so as to bring about a more sustainable and equitable biophysical and human environment This important Handbook presents an indispensable overview of the range of new methods and of the conceptual advances in SIA Recent increased attention to social considerations has led to substantial development in the techniques useful to and the thinking in SIA A distinguished group of contributors provides an up to date and comprehensive account of the cutting edge in SIA development This Handbook outlines a new understanding and definition of SIA and as such will be an invaluable reference tool for both practitioners and scholars at different levels working in the fields of SIA and environmental studies including both impact assessment and management The Social Impact Assessment in Integrated Rural Development Projects Gloria Azul
