Approaches and Processes of Social Science Research Tshabangu, Icarbord, Ba', Stefano, Madondo, Silas Memory, 2020-12-18 For the social sciences the approach and processes in research are quite different The type of evidence that social scientists can collect is often very dependent on the method that has been used to gather the data The type of findings that can be discussed are often not straightforward at all and no easy comparison can be made with the natural sciences although this is not impossible The methodology in the social sciences has the same role as technology and lab techniques in the natural sciences as these need to be developed rapidly to account for the increasing complexity of the natural objects to be studied The methodologies in the social sciences need to go through an intense period of critique reflection and reformulation to consider the complexity of social issues under investigation Therefore the area of social sciences research and methodologies should continually be studied to advance the field Approaches and Processes of Social Science Research presents new research methodologies in the social science field and aims at providing a broad introduction to the methodology of social research in its main theoretical foundations as well as in its practical applications Readers will develop a critical thinking attitude about social problems which in turn will sharpen their analytic approach to research This book includes four main parts philosophical perspectives strategies for conducting research common approaches for handling and collecting data and critical aspects of research writing throughout the process While highlighting topics such as critical theory in research ethical issues research processes data analysis and more this book is ideal for researchers in the social sciences and practitioners stakeholders academicians and students interested in deepening their understanding of the ideas and the practices of social science research The Thinking Professional Sue

Psychopathology and Social Prejudice Derek Hook, Gillian Eagle, 2002 This volume offers an innovative set of critical examinations of the field of psychopathology It investigates the social formation of psychopathology across different cultural discursive and political contexts and draws upon theory from two traditional domains of psychology social and abnormal psychology The diverse topics covered include xenophobia anorexia nervosa witch hunting post traumatic stress homosexuality race categorization and crosscultural issues The various topics work in concert to unseat the notion of psychopathology as comprising decontextualized individualized essentialist categories of organic illness Rethinking

State Theory Mark J Smith, Mark J. Smith, 2013-10-11 In the last two decades objects of analysis such as the state have increasingly been seen as uncertain and contested theoretical concepts Mark J Smith presents a counter argument that highlights how existing theoretical approaches can provide useful tools for understanding contemporary political developments Re-imagining the Research Process Mats Alvesson, Jorgen Sandberg, 2021-09-01 This book offers a unique solution to the shortage of more imaginative and engaging research by re imagining the core elements of the research process In contrast to existing methods which mainly focus on standard ingredients in the research process the metaphorical approach taken here offers a more varied and comprehensive platform for producing novel influential and relevant research The set of guiding principles suggested in the book provides researchers with the resources to break away from existing conventions and templates for conducting and writing research Re-imagining the Research Process Conventional and Alternative Metaphors is suitable for upper undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers interested in challenging traditional views of the research process Mats Alvesson holds a chair in the Business Administration department at Lund University in Sweden and is also a part time professor at University of Queensland Business School Australia and at Cass Business School UK Jorgen Sandberg is Professor at UQ Business School University of Queensland Australia and Distinguished Research Environment Professor in Organization Studies at the Warwick Business School UK A Feminist
