Social Stratification In Polynesia:

Social Stratification in Polynesia Marshall David Sahlins,1958 Social Stratification in Polynesia Marshall Sahlins,1893 Social Stratification in Polynesia Marshall David Sahlins,1958 Social Stratification in Polynesia Abraham Irving Melden,1958 Culture Contact in the Pacific Max Quanchi,Ron W. Adams,1993-03-22 The authors have brought together a collection of works from specialists in Pacific History from across Australia and throughout the Pacific The individual contributions were specifically written to meet the needs of senior history courses in Australia Max Quanchi and Ron Adams are well known educationists who have specialised in the pacific They have extensively travelled and studied in the Pacific and have spent many years teaching history to secondary and tertiary students The result is an authoritative text for all senior History and Australian Studies students who need to understand the Pacific region American Ethnological Soc. Social Stratification in Polynesia Marshall David Sahlins,1958 Handbook of Sociological Theory Jonathan H. Turner,2006-05-17 Sociology is experiencing what can only be described as hyperdifferentiation of theories there are now many approaches competing for attention in the intellectual arena From this perspective we should see a weeding out of theories to a small number but this is not likely to occur because each of the many theoretical perspectives has a resource base of adherents As a result theories in sociology do not compete head on with each other as much as they coexist This seminal reference work was brought together with an eye to capturing the diversity of theoretical activity in sociology specifically the forefront of theory Contributors describe what they themselves are doing right now rather than what others have done in the past The goal of this volume is to allow prominent theorists working in a variety of traditions who wouldn't usually come together to review their work The chapters in this volume represent a mix of theoretical orientations and strategies but these theories are diverse and represent the prominent theoretical discussions in sociology today Some areas included are Section I Theoretical Methodologies and Strategies Section II The Cultural Turn in Sociological Theorizing Section III Theorizing Interaction Processes Section IV Theorizing from the Systemic and Macrolevel Section V New Directions in Evolutionary Theorizing Section VI Theorizing on Power Conflict and Change Section VII Theorizing from Assumptions of Rationality This handbook will be of interest to those wanting a broad spectrum and overview of late 20th early 21st century sociological theory Social Stratification in Polynesia Hetty Nooy-Palm,1973 Social Stratification in Polynesia Marshall Sahlins,1954 Islands of Inquiry Geoffrey Richard Clark,Sue O'Connor,Bryan Foss Leach,2008-06-01 Many of the papers in this volume present new and innovative research into the processes of maritime colonisation processes that affect archaeological contexts from islands to continents Others shift focus from process to the archaeology of maritime places from the Bering to the Torres Straits providing highly detailed discussions of how living by and with the sea is woven into all elements of human life from subsistence to trade and to ritual Of equal importance are more abstract discussions of islands as natural places refashioned by human occupation either through the introduction of new organisms or new systems of production and consumption These transformation stories gain further texture and variety through close examinations of some of the more significant consequences of colonisation and migration particularly the creation of new cultural identities A final set of papers explores the ways in which the techniques of archaeological sciences have provided insights into the fauna of the islands and the human history of such places Provided by publisher

The Transition to Statehood in the New World Robert R. Kautz, 1981 This 1982 collection of eight original anthropological essays provides an exciting synthesis of theory and practice in one of the key issues of contemporary cultural evolutionary thought The contributors ask why complex highly stratified societies emerged at several locations in the New World at the same point in prehistory Focusing primarily on the initial centers of civilization in Mesoamerica and the Andean region they consider the sociopolitical environmental and ideological factors in state formation The essays discuss the prehistoric conditions and processes that simulated the development of the first state level societies in Mesoamerica and Peru and explore the difficulties archaeologists must face in their direct analysis of physical remains In general the contributors recognize a growing need for better archaeological solutions to the question of state origin and for more sensitivity to the problems as well as to the possibilities of ethnographic analogy

The Creation of Inequality Kent Flannery, Joyce Marcus, 2012-05-15 Flannery and Marcus demonstrate that the rise of inequality was not simply the result of population increase food surplus or the accumulation of valuables but resulted from conscious manipulation of the unique social logic that lies at the core of every human group Reversing the social logic can reverse inequality they argue without violence

The Forgotten Centuries Charles M. Hudson, Carmen Chaves Tesser, 1994 The Forgotten Centuries draws together seventeen essays in which historians archaeologists and anthropologists attempt for the first time to account for approximately two centuries that are virtually missing from the history of a large portion of the American South Using the chronicles of the Spanish soldiers and adventurers the contributors survey the emergence and character of the chiefdoms of the Southeast In addition they offer new scholarly interpretations of the expeditions of Lucas Vasquez de Ayllon from 1521 to 1526 Panfilo de Narvaez in 1528 and most particularly Hernando de Soto in 1539 43 as well as several expeditions conducted between 1597 and 1628 The essays in this volume address three other connected topics Describing some of the major chiefdoms Apalachee the Oconee Province Cofitachequi and Coosa the essays undertake to lay bare the social principles by which they operated They also explore the major forces of structural change that were to transform the chiefdoms disease and depopulation the Spanish mission system and the English deerskin and slave trades And finally they examine how these forces shaped the history of several subsequent southeastern Indian societies including the Apalachees Powhatans Creeks and Choctaws These societies the so called native societies of the Old South were in fact new ones formed in the crucible fired by the economic expansion of the early modern world

Texts and Contexts Doug Munro, Brij V. Lal, 2005-11-30 Texts and Contexts is concerned with the development of Pacific Islands history as a specialization in its own right Specifically this volume examines the foundational

texts that pioneered and consolidated the new subdiscipline and served as the building blocks and stepping stone for further developments in the field Thirty five texts all of which represent defining points in the development of Pacific Islands historiography are examined Much more than retrospective appraisals of the foundational texts the individual chapters consider a text or complimentary texts within the context of the time of writing and gauge what ongoing influence they exerted In some cases they suggest how a particular text has been superseded by subsequent work that breaks new conceptual ground in the ongoing process of revisionism Contributors Chris Ballard on Gavin Souter Ivan Brady on Greg Denning I C Campbell on Norma McArthur Bronwen Douglas and Doug Munro on H E Maude and Dorothy Shineberg Michael Goldsmith on Marshall Sahlins David Hanlon on Francis X Hezel K R Howe on Andrew Sharp and David Lewis Brij V Lal on K L Gillion and Peter Corris Hugh Laracy on Niel Gunson and Ta unga Lamont Lindstrom on Peter Worsley and Peter Lawrence Doug Munro on Douglas L Oliver R P Gilson J W Davidson and K R Howe Vincent O Malley on Keith Sinclair and Alan Ward Jon Osorio on Ralph Kuykendall and Gavan Daws Tom Ryan on Bernard Smith Jane Samson on W P Morrell and Deryck Scarr Francis West on Francis West and Gavan Daws Glyndwr Williams on O H K Spate A Dictionary of Archaeology Ian Shaw,Robert Jameson,2008-04-15 This dictionary provides those studying or working in archaeology with a complete reference to the field On the Road of the Winds Patrick Vinton Kirch,2017-11-07 The Pacific Ocean covers one third of the earth s surface and encompasses many thousands of islands that are home to numerous human societies and cultures Among these indigenous Oceanic cultures are the intrepid Polynesian double hulled canoe navigators the atoll dwellers of Micronesia the statue carvers of remote Easter Island and the famed traders of Melanesia Decades of archaeological excavations combined with allied research in historical linguistics biological anthropology and comparative ethnography have revealed much new information about the long term history of these societies and cultures On the Road of the Winds synthesizes the grand sweep of human history in the Pacific Islands beginning with the movement of early people out from Asia more than 40 000 years ago and tracing the development of myriad indigenous cultures up to the time of European contact in the sixteenth to eighteenth centuries This updated edition enhanced with many new illustrations and an extensive bibliography synthesizes the latest archaeological linguistic and biological discoveries that reveal the vastness of ancient history in the Pacific Islands Colonization and Development in New Zealand between 1769 and 1900 Ian Pool,2015-09-03 This book details the interactions between the Seeds of Rangiatea New Zealand s Maori people of Polynesian origin and Europe from 1769 to 1900 It provides a case study of the way Imperial era contact and colonization negatively affected naturally evolving demographic epidemiologic transitions and imposed economic conditions that thwarted development by precursor peoples wherever European expansion occurred In doing so it questions the applicability of conventional models for analyses of colonial histories of population health and of development The book focuses on and synthesizes the most critical parts of the story the health and population trends and the economic and social development of

Maori It adopts demographic methodologies most typically used in developing countries which allow the mapping of broad changes in Maori society particularly their survival as a people The book raises general theoretical questions about how populations react to the introduction of diseases to which they have no natural immunity Another more general theoretical issue is what happens when one society's development processes are superseded by those of some more powerful force whether an imperial power or a modern day agency which has ingrained ideas about objectives and strategies for development Finally it explores how health and development interact The Maori experience of contact and colonization lasting from 1769 to circa 1900 narrated here is an all too familiar story for many other territories and populations Natives and former colonists This book provides a case study with wider ramifications for theory in colonial history development studies demography anthropology and other fields

Historical Archaeology of Early Modern Colonialism in Asia-Pacific Maria Cruz Berrocal, Cheng-hwa Tsang, 2017-12-19 The essential source for scholarly reassessment of the Asia Pacific region's diverse and significant archaeology and history James P Delgado coauthor of The Maritime Landscape of the Isthmus of Panama Underpins a nuanced picture of Asia Pacific that shows how the activities of the Chinese and Japanese in East Asia the spread of Islam from South Asia and the efforts of the Iberians and especially the Spanish from southern Europe ushered in a world of complex interaction and rapid and often profound change in local regional and wider cultural patterns Ian Lilley editor of Archaeology of Oceania Australia and the Pacific Islands The history of Asia Pacific since 1500 has traditionally been told with Europe as the main player ushering in a globalized capitalist world But these volumes help decentralize that global history revealing that preexisting trade networks and local authorities influenced the region before and long after Europeans arrived In the volume The Southwest Pacific and Oceanian Regions case studies from Alofi Vanuatu the Marianas Hawaii Guam and Taiwan compare the development of colonialism across different islands Contributors discuss human settlement before the arrival of Dutch French British and Spanish explorers tracing major exchange routes that were active as early as the tenth century They highlight rarely examined sixteenth and seventeenth century encounters between indigenous populations and Europeans and draw attention to how cross cultural interaction impacted the local peoples of Oceania The volume The Asia Pacific Region looks at colonialism in the Philippines China Japan and Vietnam emphasizing the robust trans regional networks that existed before European contact Southeast Asia had long been influenced by Buddhist Hindu and Muslim traders in ways that helped build the region's ethnic and political divisions Essays show the complexity and significance of maritime trade during European colonization by investigating galleon wrecks in Manila Japan's porcelain exports and Spanish coins discovered off China's coast Packed with archaeological and historical evidence from both land and underwater sites impressive in geographical scope and featuring perspectives of scholars from many different countries and traditions these volumes illuminate the often misunderstood nature of early colonialism in Asia Pacific

Captain Cook Frank McLynn, 2011-06-07 This thoroughly researched and sharply opinionated biography presents a nuanced portrait of the renowned 18th century navigator The Wall Street Journal The age of discovery was at its peak in the eighteenth century with bold adventurers charting the furthest reaches of the globe Foremost among these explorers was Captain James Cook of the British Royal Navy Recent writers have viewed Cook through the lens of colonial exploitation regarding him as a villain While they raise important issues many of these critical accounts overlook his major contributions to science navigation and cartography In Captain Cook Frank McLynn re creates the voyages that took the famous navigator from his native England to the outer reaches of the Pacific Ocean Although Cook died in a senseless avoidable conflict with the people of Hawaii McLynn illustrates that to the men with whom he served Cook was master of the seas and nothing less than a titan McLynn reveals Cook s place in history as a brave and brilliant yet tragically flawed man Where the Waves Fall K.R.

Howe,2023-05-03 Where the Waves Fall 1984 centres the stories of the Pacific Islanders and how they were affected by European explorers and colonisers in this unique account of human settlement and cultural interchange in the Pacific islands It follows the fortunes of the seafarers who discovered island after island in the world s largest ocean traces the development of their civilisations and examines in depth the interaction between them and the newcomers European explorers traders beachcombers missionaries merchants who from the sixteenth century came in an increasing series of waves The book s framework enables the author to throw new light on hitherto isolated events Novel suggestions are advanced as to why some islands became kingdoms in the earlier years of European contact and why others did not and of how and why missionaries were accepted on some islands but not on others Nor does Professor Howe shrink from provocative and at times controversial arguments concerning the ambitions and strategies of island leaders and indeed the overall nature and extent of the initiatives taken by the islanders
