Survivor-Centred Justice Ingrid Roestenburg-Morgan, Tim Murithi, 2025-02-04 This volume interrogates global perspectives and issues that constitute and characterize survivor centred justice exploring both conceptual and theoretical issues surrounding the definition of a survivor practical considerations of what constitutes a survivor centred approach to justice and available avenues of justice for survivors of mass atrocities In the first part of the book survivor centred justice is explored at the level of the International Criminal Court ICC The second part evaluates developments taking place at the local and domestic levels where traditional customary or local justice mechanisms find affinity with survivors in their quest for justice The third part focuses on advocacy based approaches being utilized specifically by non governmental organizations NGOs multilateral and regional institutions such as the United Nations and African Union in support of survivors In the final part of the book future prospects for survivors in the promotion of peacebuilding and atrocity prevention are discussed The discussions in this volume will be of particular value and importance to international and transitional justice scholars including legal and development practitioners interested in survivor centred approaches to mass atrocity crimes Most importantly it aims to be of value to survivors survivor communities and survivor centred networks

Grain Transportation Situation, 1987 Victims' Rights and Advocacy at the International Criminal Court T. Markus Funk, 2015-03-16 Victims Rights and Advocacy at the International Criminal Court introduces readers to the most significant restorative feature of the ICC s procedure direct victim participation in war crime trials Under this new model the ICC has given victims a voice to speak out against their abusers T Markus Funk presents the first comprehensive guidance on this innovative dynamic analyzing not just the procedural rules that apply but also the practical problems in advocating for victims before the ICC Performed Culture in Chinese Language Education Guangyan Chen, 2020-06-22 Performed Culture in Chinese Language Education A Culture Based Approach for U S Collegiate Contexts elaborates on a cultural awareness oriented cultural performance based and cross cultural communication focused foreign language pedagogical paradigm Performed Culture Approach in the context of U S collegiate Chinese language education Guangyan Chen draws on the data collected through questionnaires comparisons between this pedagogy and mainstream pedagogical frameworks and analyses of curricular development lesson plans and classroom discourses Chen promotes the performed culture approach by delineating the theoretical framework of this pedagogy reporting studies that empirically support cultural primacy in Chinese language education and illustrating this pedagogy through analyses of a curricular structure a lesson plan and classroom discourses Chen shows how this pedagogy addresses the gaps between the social need for global citizens and the insufficient integration of culture into foreign language education The performed culture approach also addresses the overall drop in U S collegiate foreign language enrollment as this pedagogy connects foreign language programs to university missions and social needs Third Place Learning Glyn M. Rimmington, Mara Alagic, 2008-06-01 The hybridity and dynamism of today s interconnected interdependent and culturally diverse world poses challenges and opportunities for learning and communication This book introduces an approach to facilitate global learning opportunities while facing these challenges The approach is based on the cage painting metaphor for dialogic co construction of meaning and understanding of multiple perspectives Resolving disorienting dilemmas or preconceptions requires a dialectic flow of thinking since the root of the problem may lay deep in person s beliefs and values Such experiences might be transformative in their nature causing change in person s perspective better understanding the culture of themselves and other people reflective and mindful inquiry into one s worldview the third place processes Misunderstandings are more prevalent when using technology global reach between people from distant locations different cultures To prepare people for these challenges we offer a Web 2 0 based instructional design blueprint Dependent on the context and content of the planned activities the cage painting and global learning processes may be facilitated simultaneously or sequentially The approach presented in this book has attracted interest of educators in different disciplines as well as human resources leaders concerned with key characteristics of today s global business workers intercultural global communication and collaboration The ideas emerged from six years of studying ways in which we and our colleagues from 25 other countries integrated global learning into classrooms in a range of discipline areas In this book we explore the competences needed to communicate interculturally and avoid the effects of preconceptions on our communication and collaboration We review metaphors commonly used in intercultural communication and then introduce a new metaphor called Cage Painting The process of Cage Painting requires certain conditions during intercultural communication whether it is face to face or via global reach using technology The transformative processes that we undergo as we confront cultural disorienting dilemmas smiling being a simple example of one are named the Third Place

The Participation of Victims in International Criminal Proceedings Alessandra Cuppini, 2022-09-30 This book argues that the expressivist justice model provides a meaningful foundation for the participation of victims in international criminal proceedings Traditional criminal justice theories have tended to marginalise the role afforded to victims while informing the criminal procedures utilised by international criminal courts As a result giving content to shaping and enhancing victims participatory rights have been some of the most debated issues in international criminal justice This book contributes to this debate by advancing expressivism which has the capacity to create a historical narrative of gross human rights violations as a core of international criminal justice able to provide a worthwhile basis for the participation of victims in proceedings and clarifying the scope and content of their participatory rights The work provides an in depth discussion on issues related to victims participatory rights from the perspective of international human rights law victimology and the philosophical foundation of international criminal justice The book will be a valuable resource for researchers academics and policymakers working in the areas of international criminal justice international human rights law transitional justice and conflict studies

Post-Conflict Rebuilding and International Law Ray

Murphy,2017-03-02 This volume presents the research analysis of a range of scholars and experts on post conflict peacebuilding and international law from a variety of perspectives and missions The selected essays show that peacebuilding like the concept of peacekeeping is not specifically provided for in the UN Charter They also demonstrate that the record of peacebuilding like that of peacekeeping is varied and while both concepts are intrinsically linked neither lends itself to precise definition The essays consider the historical approaches to peacebuilding such as the role played by the UN in the Congo in the early 1960s and the work of the United States and its allies in rebuilding Germany and Japan in the aftermath of World War II Finally essays consider the major challenge for contemporary peacebuilding operations to make international administrations accountable and to ensure the involvement of the international community in helping rebuild communities and prevent the resurgence of violence      Interculturality, Interaction and Language Learning Jane

Woodin,2018-05-23 This book opens up new lines of debate in language learning and intercultural communication through an investigation of tandem language learning a method of language learning based on mutual language exchange between native speakers and learners of each other s language in connection with intercultural learning and identity construction Through an empirical study of face to face tandem conversations Jane Woodin provides compelling evidence for the re definition of the tandem partnership beyond the traditional native speaker non native speaker NS NNS paradigm By analyzing conversation shapes learner identification of self and other and interactants own focus on culture this book reveals how interactants themselves address the complexities of language learning ownership and meaning The book also questions the prevalence of models of intercultural competence which describe the competence of the individual with little recognition of the role of the relationship or interaction Woodin considers the broader applicability of the tandem framework of autonomy and reciprocity and suggests new directions for further research on tandem learning      Unlawful Attacks in

Combat Situations Héctor Olásolo,2008 Death and destruction are unavoidable effects of war and combat situations The fact that people have been killed or injured or property has been destroyed should not encourage anyone to rush to the conclusion that war crimes have been committed On the contrary before reaching such a conclusion it is necessary to carefully analyze the conduct of the person causing death injury or damage in order to ascertain whether such conduct is consistent with international humanitarian law Technology law and public opinion on what is acceptable has greatly evolved since World War II The issue of civilian damage caused in combat operations has become an important topic in public opinion since Operation Desert Storm in 1991 Public pressure to limit incidental civilian damage has notably increased following the NATO aerial campaign in Kosovo in 1999 and the subsequent conflicts in Afghanistan in 2001 Iraq in 2003 and Lebanon 2006 Unlawful Attacks in Combat Situations focuses on the manner in which unlawful attacks launched during the conduct of hostilities have been dealt with in the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court the international treaty which to date deals most comprehensively with war crimes committed in international and non international armed conflicts and in the case law of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia the first international judicial body that has investigated and prosecuted crimes committed during the conduct of hostilities since World War II      Elections, Violence and Transitional Justice in Africa Elias Opongo, Tim Murithi, 2022-05-29 Elections in Africa are competitive in nature and can be manipulated by incumbents to extend and entrench their rule through changes to constitutions intimidation of opponents excess use of police force and in some cases assassinations of dissident voices Ethnic cleavages are also exploited by contestants to incite and mobilize unsuspecting masses to pursue their electoral ambitions which can lead to political instability In many African countries violence before during and after elections has become a regrettable norm rather than the exception The function of transitional justice is to address the legacy of human rights atrocities political violence and societal harm resulting from prior misrule or violent conflicts with a view to establishing fair democratic and inclusive societies This book interrogates the potential intersection between transitional justice and electoral processes Specifically it examines the hypothesis that transitional justice interventions that strive to address historical injustices perpetrated by violence conflict and entrenched by socio political impunity can initiate preventive measures against electoral violence through redress accountability and institutional reforms The contributors to this volume have engaged with country case studies from across Africa while examining the intersection between transitional justice and electoral processes Hence this is a timely volume that highlights the uninterrogated nexus between elections violence and transitional justice in Africa
