Social Impact Assessment Becker, Henk, Henk Becker University of Utrecht, Netherlands., 2014-01-02 This book is intended for introductory courses in SIA within sociology social policy human geography and political science at postgraduate level Specialist postgraduate and professional courses in policy orientated social research and in social and general impact assessment Social Impact Assessment H. A. Becker, 1997 Based on the author's own experience of impact assessment as a component of policy oriented research this book provides a practical introduction to the methodology of social impact assessment The coverage is comprehensive well balanced and up to date with a systematic approach to the effective use of techniques designed to sharpen public policy formulation The book features case study and exercise material and also incorporates useful summaries at the end of each chapter making it ideal for teaching purposes Social impact assessment will also be an invaluable professional resource for social and environmental scientists for policy makers and consultants and for those running management seminars on strategic learning scenario planning and action research It is also intended as a textbook for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students of social and environmental science management and policy studies Social Impact Assessment Henk A. Becker, 1997 The International Handbook of Social Impact Assessment H. A. Becker, Frank Vanclay, 2003-01-01 This book provides a valuable addition to the Social Impact Assessment SIA literature While the volume addresses several good examples of how to case studies it also firmly addresses the importance of the need for firm conceptual and theoretical guidelines for SIA practice the volume is an excellent contribution to the SIA literature and I highly recommend it to both practitioner and researcher alike Geoff Syme Australasian Journal of Environmental Management An innovative collection which takes social impact assessment to the frontiers of environmental and social policy and citizen awareness Unusually this collection includes both sophisticated quantitative tools and equally important chapters on participation stakeholder involvement and environmental mediation A most valuable source book Michael Redclift King's College London UK Social Impact Assessment SIA is the process of analysing and managing the intended and unintended consequences on the human environment of planned interventions policies programmes plans projects so as to bring about a more sustainable and equitable biophysical and human environment This important Handbook presents an indispensable overview of the range of new methods and of the conceptual advances in SIA Recent increased attention to social considerations has led to substantial development in the techniques useful to and the thinking in SIA A distinguished group of contributors provides an up to date and comprehensive account of the cutting edge in SIA development This Handbook outlines a new understanding and definition of SIA and as such will be an invaluable reference tool for both practitioners and scholars at different levels working in the fields of SIA and environmental studies including both impact assessment and management Measuring Organised Crime in Europe Tom Beken, 2004 Recent years have been characterised by growing awareness among European member states about serious shortcomings to the way organised crime is measured and assessed Currently organised crime reports primarily generate descriptive analyses of a past situation based on law enforcement data and do not always provide the necessary information for proactive and preventive policy strategies Therefore an EU Action Plan has been issued to develop a more future oriented and risk based methodology for the measurement of organised crime and to convert the traditional organised crime situation reports into strategic reports for planning purposes This book is the outcome of two studies undertaken by a team composed of Belgian Italian and Swedish researchers for the European Commission It presents an overview of current practices in the measurement of organised crime in Europe and includes a discussion about the concept and the assessment of the impact of the phenomenon Further the feasibility of the implementation of the existing EU Action Plan was studied and evaluated As a result of applied research Measuring Organised Crime in Europe provides an in depth and comparative analysis of current practice in drafting organised crime reports across and by the EU and offers new ideas to improve their quality Handbook of Regulatory Impact Assessment Claire A. Dunlop, Claudio M. Radaelli, 2016-04-29 Regulatory impact assessment RIA is the main instrument used by governments and regulators to appraise the likely effects of their policy proposals This pioneering Handbook provides a comparative and comprehensive account of this tool situating it in the relevant theoretical traditions and scrutinizing its use across countries policy sectors and policy instruments Comprising six parts university researchers international consultants and practitioners working in international organizations examine regulatory impact assessment from many perspectives which include research traditions in the social sciences implementation regulatory indicators and effects tools and dimensions such as courts and gender sectoral case studies including environment enterprise and international development international diffusion in the European Union EU Americas Asia and developing countries appraisal training and education With its wealth of detail and lessons to be learned the Handbook of Regulatory Impact Assessment will undoubtedly be of great value to practitioners and scholars working in governance political science and socio legal studies New Directions in Social Impact Assessment Frank Vanclay, Ana Maria Esteves, 2011-01-01 This book should be read by anyone commissioning impact assessments who wants to build their understanding of the more progressive and innovative end of the topic A job well done in the eyes of stakeholders and regulators requires proper social analysis Jon Samuel Head of Social Performance Anglo American The list of authors reads like a who's who in SIA Academics and practitioners are equally represented among the authors The book provides a good mix of broad theoretical concepts and specific practical topics Martin Haefele Manager Environmental Impact Assessment at Mackenzie Valley Environmental Impact Review Board Yellowknife Northwest Territories Canada This book gives a very broad overview of where Social Impact Assessment is coming from where it is now and where it could go from an impact assessment tool to an impact management tool It provides a realistic insight in both the achievements and the struggles of Social Impact Assessment A recommended read for both those interested in Social Impact Assessment and those in related domains where social issues are gaining increasing importance such as Environmental Assessment and Sustainability Appraisal Rob Verheem Deputy Director Netherlands Commission for Environmental Assessment This important new book outlines current developments in thinking in the field of Social Impact Assessment SIA It advances the theory and practice of SIA and argues that a dramatic shift is required in the way socioeconomic studies and community participation is undertaken The book emphasizes that much more than the act of predicting impacts in a regulatory context SIA needs to be the process of managing the social aspects of development and that there needs to be a holistic and integrated approach to impact assessment It stresses that greater attention needs to be given to ensuring that the goals of development are attained and enhanced This significant addition to the literature will be an invaluable reference for academics consultants and practitioners
