American Socialist Ryan C. McIlhenny, 2025-02-20 Ryan C. McIlhenny's American Socialist is the first comprehensive biography of Laurence Gronlund 1844-1899, one of the nation's most persuasive proponents of socialism. Gronlund cultivated a unique polemic against capitalism by advocating positions that synthesized Marxism with Darwinian evolution, rejected class violence, and emphasized cooperation over competition. According to McIlhenny, a belief in a divine force advancing history toward a cooperative commonwealth underpinned his philosophy. Gronlund's books enjoyed a wide and dogmatic readership during the late nineteenth century, and his teachings inspired prominent Gilded Age figures including Edward Bellamy, Leo Tolstoy, and Eugene V. Debs. American Socialist masterfully restores Gronlund to his place among the nation's most important political thinkers.

INTERNATIONAL STATUS Albania is a member of the United Nations. December 14, 1955. It is a member of other international organizations. It was a member of the League of Nations. Albania became independent on November 28, 1912, after centuries of Ottoman domination. Its existence was recognized internationally after the First Balkan War on July 28, 1913, and an international control commission drew up a constitution in 1914 providing for a monarchy with a National Assembly, most of whose members were elected by the people. Albania, although a neutral state, became involved in the First World War, after which, in January 1920, the Albanian chiefs drew up a new constitution providing for a monarchy. In 1925, Albania was proclaimed a republic, and a new constitution based on the United States constitution was promulgated. In 1928, the President became King, and a new constitution followed. On April 7, 1939, Italy occupied Albania and imposed a constitution providing that Albania was a monarchy under the House of Savoy. On April 6, 1941, martial law was proclaimed throughout the country. After the Italian capitulation in 1943, Albania was occupied by Germany. The Albanian Communist Party was founded in November 1941, and the bases of the communist regime were laid at the second national conference in July 1943 of the Movement for National Liberation created by the Party to unite and control all the forces opposing foreign occupation. This conference created Councils of National Liberation.
