Language, Society and Power Linda Thomas, Shân Wareing, 2012-09-10 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      The Balance of Power in Society Frank Tannenbaum, 1969      Power and Society Thomas R. Dye, Brigid C. Harrison, Brigid Harrison, 2005 Designed as a basic text for an introductory interdisciplinary social science course POWER AND SOCIETY introduces students to key concepts in anthropology sociology economics psychology political science and history The text focuses these perspectives on a central integrative theme and interdisciplinary viewpoint the nature and uses of power in society POWER AND SOCIETY introduces students to some of the central challenges facing American society for example ideological conflict racism and sexism poverty and powerlessness crime and violence community problems and international relations Focusing on controversy stimulates students interest and appreciation for social sciences      Power, Place, and State-Society Relations in Korea Jongwoo Han, 2013-11-26 No book has addressed the simultaneous phenomena of Korea's rapid economic development and its vibrant democratization in a single coherent paradigm The late developmentalist approach emphasizes the strong role of Korea's state and bureaucratic efficiency but does not explain how political development was concurrent with the economic miracles in the Han River modernization and dependence theories also fail to explain the aspect of simultaneity in this phenomenon What these three theories commonly miss is the unique relationship between state and society in Korea's long history of political culture In this book Jongwoo Han takes a holistic approach to understanding these phenomena by examining the state's role in the unprecedented economic development and society's capabilities to resist the state's centralized power Han re articulates state society relations through Onuf's social constructivist approach based on three rules of a political community hegemony hierarchy and heteronomy This book expands upon this effort to re construct the state and society relations in two ways First it produces case studies of the capital city of Hanyang Joseon Dynasty from 1392 to 1910 Kyeongseong Japanese colonial control from 1910 to 1945 and Seoul 1945 current The capital city is analyzed as a container for the major ideologies and ways of thinking that have shaped three important political eras Second i adopts two indigenous thoughts Neo Confucianism and geomancy as sources of the main political and cultural ideologies that shape Korea's state and society relations These sources have never been treated as units of political analysis This book finds that both Neo Confucianism and geomancy over two periods of Hanyang and Kyeongseong are two main contributing factors of the emergence of the developmental state and vibrant democracy in Korea in the Seoul era      Elites and Power in British Society Philip Stanworth, Anthony Giddens, 1974-05-23 Compilation of conference papers on social stratification in the UK with special reference to the ruling class examines the origins of the Elite in the fields of politics civil service education economy the Church etc and gives information on the transmission of wealth between generations and the interconnections between land ownership income and political power etc Diagrams and statistical tables Conference held in Cambridge 1973 mar      Society, Power, and

Land in Northeastern Zimbabwe, ca. 1560-1960 Admire Mseba, 2024-11-12 A little over two decades ago Zimbabwe undertook its Fast Track Land Reform Programme Critics saw it as nothing more than an assault on human and property rights for political expedience by a ruling elite that was fast losing its power In contrast those sympathetic to the land reform program saw it as fundamental to the righting of colonialism's historical wrongs Yet rural displacements at the hands of state actors or of those closely connected to them continue As in the past the continuing land conflicts are mostly understood as the result of the actions of an authoritarian state that exploits its control of land for the political and economic benefit of those who inhabit it These explanations share one thing in common each understands the country's perpetual land questions in terms of the actions or inactions of the colonial or the postcolonial state This book refocuses attention on how regimes of power rooted in kinship gender generation and status have individually and in combination informed access to land in precolonial northeastern Zimbabwe It then examines how these regimes of power interacted with colonial policies to inform the African experience in colonial Zimbabwe Further the book places land and the ability to ensure its fecundity at the center of the making and moderation of precolonial political power and how this power was impacted by the imposition of colonial rule Tracing the dynamics of land and power from precolonial times together with their entanglement with colonial policies is important for this relationship is almost always neglected by both scholars and policymakers drawn to the high drama of colonial and postcolonial politics of land This oversight has real consequences on our understandings of landed inequalities and how they are addressed When Zimbabwe's postcolonial state focused on colonially induced racialized land inequalities its land reform efforts left older forms of landed inequalities based on gender generation and ideas of belonging intact The book which details these inequalities reminds Zimbabweans and others that if the quest for equity espoused in postcolonial land reforms is to be meaningful it must be attentive to both colonially induced inequalities and those enduring disparities that predated were deepened by and outlived colonial rule At the same time Zimbabweans who now live with a postcolonial state that is increasingly centralizing power over land may well learn from past societies creative efforts to limit the authority of their leaders

Andreassen, Gordon Crawford, 2013-07-18 Human Rights Power and Civic Action examines the interrelationship between struggles for human rights and the dynamics of power focusing on situations of poverty and oppression in developing countries It is argued that the concept of power is a relatively neglected one in the study of rights based approaches to development especially the ways in which structures and relations of power can limit human rights advocacy Therefore this book focuses on how local and national struggles for rights have been constrained by power relations and structural inequalities as well as the extent to which civic action has been able to challenge alter or transform such power structures and simultaneously to enhance protection of people s basic human rights Contributors examine and compare struggles to advance human rights by non governmental actors in Cambodia China Ghana Kenya South Africa and Zimbabwe The country case studies analyse structures of power responsible for the negation and denial of human rights as well as how rights promoting organisations challenge such structures Utilising a comparative approach the book provides empirically grounded studies leading to new theoretical understanding of the interrelationships between human rights struggles power and poverty reduction Human Rights Power and Civic Action will be of interest to students and scholars of human rights politics power development and governance
